No. 14 Texas Tech vs No. 12 Kansas (Full preview article at www.TexasTech.com & Page 13)

KEY POINTS: A nationally-ranked showdown is set for primetime on Saturday night in Lubbock with No. 14 Texas Tech hosting No. 12 Kansas at 7 p.m. at the United Supermarkets Arena. The Red Raiders (21-5, 9-4 Big 12) are 14-1 on their home court this season, while the Jayhawks (20-6, 9-4 Big 12) have won three in a row and secured a win in the first matchup between the two teams earlier this month in Lawrence. Both teams have had a week away from competition with the Red Raiders earning an 86-61 win over Baylor and the Jayhawks picking up a 78-53 victory over West Virginia last Saturday. The two teams are currently second in the Big 12 standings, one game back of Kansas State which is at 10-3 in conference play going into its matchup against Oklahoma State on Saturday in Manhattan, Kansas.

PLAYER NOTES: : Jarrett Culver comes into Saturday's game having scored 875 points in his career and leads the Red Raiders with 17.7 points, 6.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game this season. A sophomore from Lubbock, he is coming off scoring 18 points and adding eight rebounds in the win over Baylor after going for 19 points last Wednesday at Oklahoma State... Davide Moretti hit four 3-pointers and finished with 17 points last Saturday against Baylor and is now 10-for-18 from beyond the arc in the past four games... Owens has scored 11 points and two blocked shots in the past two games against Baylor and Oklahoma State. He came to Lubbock with 179 blocked shots and now has 242 in his career... Mooney scored nine points against Baylor after going 5-for-5 on 3-pointers in a 15-point performance at Oklahoma State. He now has three games in his collegiate career with five 3-pointers and has 29 this season for the Red Raiders.

RANKINGS: On a four-game winning streak and continuing to lead the nation in field-goal percentage defense, Texas Tech has moved up one spot to No. 14 in this week's Associated Press Top-25 and USA TODAY Coaches Poll along with staying at No. 10 in the NCAA NET Rankings. The Red Raiders (21-5, 9-4 Big 12) have outscored their last four conference opponents by a 24.0 scoring margin and top the nation by limiting opponents to 36.1 percent shooting for the season. TTU, which is the top Big 12 team in the NCAA NET Rankings and is at No. 9 in the Pomeroy Ratings, is also second in the country by holding teams to 57.2 points per game and is fourth with opponents being limited to 27.6 percent shooting on 3-pointers.

ABOUT 4:1 • CHRIS BEARD

"One of many great things I learned from Coach Knight was the idea about mental toughness. The mental is to the physical as four is to one. Everyone has talented players. What separates good teams from great teams and contenders from champions is mental toughness. Mental toughness is everything to us, and I'm proud of our teams for embracing 4:1."

A HISTORIC SEASON: Texas Tech earned the program's first NCAA Elite Eight trip and a program-best second-place Big 12 finish en route to a 27-10 record in 2017-18. The 27 wins were the second-highest total in program history for a season only behind the 30-2 mark put together by the 1995-96 squad under James Dickey. The Red Raiders also set a program single season record with eight victories over Associated Press Top 25 opponents and captured a program-best No. 6 final ranking in the USA Today/Coaches Top 25 poll.

COACHING STAFF: Beard's coaching staff includes assistant coaches Mark Adams, Brian Burg, Glynn Cyprien, Max Lefevre, Sean Sutton and Tim MacAllister. Cyprien and MacAllister begin their first sea-sons with the Red Raiders with Cyprien most recently being the head coach of the NBA G League's Memphis Hustle and MacAllister working at Creighton. Lefevre has been on Beard's staff since he was a graduate assistant at Angelo State, while Adams and Burg helped lead Little Rock to the Sun Belt Conference title and the NCAA tournament before coming to Tech.

TECH ALUMS ON STAFF: Texas Tech fans will recognize a group of former players who are now on the sidelines as graduate assistants in Darryl Dora (2004-07), Ronald Ross (2002-05) and Matt Temple (2016-17). The trio of former Red Raiders are joined by Casey Perrin, Anthony Johnson, Gino Saucedo and Elliott De Wit on the graduate assistant staff.

CULVER NAMED TO JERRY WEST WATCH LIST / BIG 12 PRESEASON HONORABLE MENTION

• Texas Tech sophomore Jarrett Culver has been named to the 2019 Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year Award Watch List as part of "The Naismith Starting 5". Culver is coming off an impressive freshman season where he averaged 11.2 points, 4.8 rebounds, 1.8 assists and 1.1 steals per game for the Red Raiders. A Lubbock Coronado graduate, he recorded career-highs with 26 points and 12 rebounds at West Virginia and finished his first season with four games scoring 20 or more points. He led Texas Tech with 55 3-pointers and was second on the team with 177 rebounds, 41 steals and 27 blocks.

The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame announced the 20-member watch list on Tuesday for the 2019 Jerry West Shooting Guard of the Year Award that is named after Class of 1980 Hall of Famer and 1959 NCAA Final Four Most Valuable Player Jerry West. The annual honor is in its fifth year and recognizes the top shooting guards in Division I men's college basketball. A national committee comprising top college basketball personnel determined the watch list of 20 candidates.

• Culver joins Zach Smith as the only Texas Tech players to be recognized by either of the five preseason watch lists for honors presented by the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. The list includes the Bob Cousy, Jerry West, Julius Erving, Karl Malone and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar awards. Smith was named to the Karl Malone Award Watch List last season.

Texas Tech - Quick Notes

Maintaining possession: Texas Tech has a plus-5.5 turnover margin advantage during the course of its four-game winning streak. The Red Raiders have forced 73 turnovers by their opponents during the last four games and have only lost 51 possessions. For the season, TTU has a plus-3.3 turnover margin advantage which leads the Big 12 and is 33rd nationally.

3-point barrage: Texas Tech has hit a season-high 12 3-pointers in the past two games at Oklahoma State and against Baylor after making 10 at Oklahoma. The Red Raiders are 24-for-54 in the past two games, 34 of 76 in the past three and are 42-for-98 (42.9 percent) from beyond the arc in the past four games. Opponents have hit only 21 3-pointers during the past four games at a 33.3 percentage. Tech now has six games this season with 10 or more 3s with three straight.

Home dominance: Texas Tech is 14-1 at home this season and is 47-5 at home under Chris Beard the past three seasons. In Big 12 play, the Red Raiders are 5-1 on their home court this season and 19-5 during the Beard era. Tech is currently 90-75 in conference play and 245-90 all-time at the United Supermarkets Arena since the first game on Nov. 19, 1999.

One-liners: Matt Mooney is averaging 11 points per game and has 11 assists and 11 steals in the past four games… Davide Moretti is 13-for-26 on 3-pointers and leads the team with 15 assists in the past five games… Jarrett Culver averaged 18.5 points per game last week where he went 5-for-11 on 3-pointers during the two wins… Tariq Owens has at least one block in all 26 games this season and has had nine blocked shots during the past four games… Norense Odiase leads the team with 6.5 rebounds per game over the past four games, including securing 10 against West Virginia and 11 in the road win at Oklahoma.

Elite defense: Texas Tech has allowed only two opponents to score over 70 points all season and no one has gone over 80 through 26 games against the Red Raiders. Opponents are averaging just 53.8 points per game during the past four games and have been limited to 33.3 percent shooting from the field and 28.0 percent on 3-pointers.

Fast starts: Texas Tech has led at halftime by double-digits in five of its last six games: Baylor (+13), Oklahoma State (+19), Oklahoma (+11), West Virginia (+15) and TCU (+16). The only discrepancy during the past six is a 20-point halftime deficit at Kansas.

20-Win Milestone: The Red Raiders reached the 20-win milestone with their victory over Oklahoma State and have now recorded 20 wins in a season 13 times in program history. The team went 27-10 last season and has now had back-to-back 20-win years for the first time since the 2003-04 and 2004-05 under head coach Bob Knight.

Texas Tech Adds Four During Signing Period

LUBBOCK, Texas – Texas Tech head coach Chris Beard and the men's basketball program announced the signing of Kevin McCullar, Jahmius Ramsey, Russel Tchewa and Khalid Thomas to National Letters of Intent on November 15, 2018.

The signing class includes three four-star prospects and a three-star to join a program which is coming off a NCAA Elite Eight appearance and has started this season with a 3-0 record. Thomas is a transfer from the College of Southern Idaho, while Ramsey signs out of Duncanville High School, McCullar from San Antonio Wagner and Tchewa is a senior at Putnam Science Academy in Connecticut.

KEVIN McCULLAR | GUARD | 6-6 | SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
With ties to Texas Tech with his father a former Red Raider football player and his mother a Tech graduate, McCullar committed in the summer before making his selection official this week. A 6-foot-6 guard, McCullar played at San Antonio Wagner High School as a junior. He graduated earlier and joined the Red Raiders this semester.

McCullar helped his high school team to the Class 6A title game as a sophomore before averaging 16.8 points and 6.6 rebounds per game last year. He chose the Red Raiders over Kansas State, Louisville, Houston and Virginia Tech. ESPN lists him as a top-30 national player and rivals.com lists him as a 4 Star prospect.

Corey Evans (Rivals): "Kevin McCullar is another mix and match guard that defines versatility. I love his intangibles and ability to touch various portions of the stat sheet. Best ball is ahead of him and have not issues settling in as a backcourt contributor early on."

Blue Zertuche (Texas Hoops): "There is a high ceiling for Kevin and he worked his way into being among the elites in the state and the country. Kevin's versatility and play making ability will allow for success in the Big 12 and will be a player that has the length and size to compete."

JAHMIUS RAMSEY | GUARD | 6-4 | DUNCANVILLE, TEXAS
Ramsey is the highest rated recruit in program history with a national ranking of 28 on the ESPN 100 list and at No. 33 by 247Sports. He is a four-star by ESPN, 247Sports and Rivals who had 22 offers before choosing the Red Raiders.

A Duncanville, Texas native, Ramsey is a senior at Duncanville High School and committed to Texas Tech on Nov. 8 after also receiving offers from Florida, Indiana, Memphis, Louisville, LSU and Oregon among others. A 6-foot 4 shooting guard, he's ranked fifth nationally at his position by ESPN and is the third highest rated played in the state of Texas at No. 3 by 24/7 Sports.

Ramsey joins Texas Tech freshman Kyler Edwards who was also a four-star shooting guard in last year's signing class and gives the Red Raiders two straight years of ESPN 100 signees after Khavon Moore chose Tech as the No. 43-ranked player in last year's class.

Evan Daniels (247Sports): "Jahmius Ramsey is one of the most dynamic guards in the 2019 class. He's an impressive athlete that can be utilized on or off the ball. He has good vision and can pass, is effective in transition and is a good finisher at the rim. On top of all that, he has the tools to be a great defender one day. There's immense potential wrapped up in Ramsey's frame."

Jon Rothstein (CBS Sports): "Jahmius Ramsey is a program changing recruit for Chris Beard and Texas Tech. The Red Raiders became a national name last season by reaching the Elite Eight and adding Ramsey will only augment their brand."

RUSSEL TCHEWA | CENTER | 7-0 | CAMEROON
A 7-foot, 250-pound center currently playing at Putnam Science Academy in Connecticut, Tchewa signs with the Red Raiders as a 3-star prospect by Rivals. Tchewa played three years of prep basketball in Italy.

Texas Tech sophomore Malik Ondigo and freshman Josh Mballa also played at Putnam Science Academy.

Jeff Borzello (ESPN): "This could end up being a steal for Texas Tech. Russel Tchewa has the potential to be a major factor as he develops. We're talking about a 7-footer who can run the floor and finish in transition, or get the ball in the post and score with his back to the basket. Guys with size and athleticism don't come around every day."

Eric Bossi (Rivals): Russel Tchewa is a throwback low post player who plays with physicality and tries to punish the rim whenever possible. He's an interior enforcer who controls the glass and scores on the block.

KHALID THOMAS | FORWARD | 6-9 | PORTLAND, OREGON
Thomas will transfer to Texas Tech after two years at the College of Southern Idaho where he is coming off a freshman season averaging 14.5 points and 6.5 rebounds per game. Regarded as one of the top junior college players in the nation, he helped lead the team to the NJCAA championship game last season and attracted offers from throughout the country. Street and Smith lists Thomas as their Preseason Player of the Year.

Thomas chose the Red Raiders over Arizona, Baylor, Oklahoma, West Virginia and Florida State among 14 offers. A four-star recruit, Thomas was a NJCAA All-American selection last season at CSI and committed to Texas Tech on Sept. 28. Thomas shot 54.8 percent from the field and 41.4 on 3-pointers as a freshman.

Jeff Borzello (ESPN): "Khalid Thomas is going to make an impact at Texas Tech because of two reasons: his fit in Chris Beard's motion offense, and his college-level experience. Thomas is very skilled for his size, and shot better than 41 percent from 3-point range last season. But because he is 6-foot-9, he can rebound very well too. There's a reason he was a JUCO All-American and one of the favorites for JUCO Player of the Year this season."

Eric Bossi (Rivals): "Khalid Thomas is one of the premier junior college prospects in the country. He's a long and fluid athlete who can really make defenses pay with his ability to face up and shoot the ball from deep."

PLAYER NOTES: Jarrett Culver comes into Saturday's game having scored 875 points in his career and leads the Red Raiders with 17.7 points, 6.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game this season. A sophomore from Lubbock, he is coming off scoring 18 points and adding eight rebounds in the win over Baylor after going for 19 points at Oklahoma State. Culver, who is third in the Big 12 in scoring behind only Iowa State's Marial Shayok (19.3) and KU's Dedric Lawson (19.2), had his first double-double of the season by going for 23 points and 13 rebounds in the first matchup against Oklahoma and his second double-double of the season with a career-high 16 rebounds and 20 points against Iowa State. Against Baylor, Culver matched a career-high by making seven free throws and also had four assists. Culver has led the team in scoring in 18 of 26 games and is currently averaging 16.2 points, 7.2 rebounds and 3.0 assists through 13 conference games. Culver is on the John R. Wooden Award, Jerry West Award, Oscar Robertson Trophy and Lute Olson Award watch lists, was named to the Sporting News Midseason All-America second-team and earned Big 12 Preseason Honorable Mention honors. He has scored in double figures in 25 of 26 games and is shooting 49.8 percent from the field overall and 44.7 percent in Big 12 play. Culver recorded a career-high with 30 points against Abilene Christian on Dec. 20 where he went 12-for-13 from the field and hit four 3-pointers. He was named the Big 12 Player of the Week after the performance and followed it by going to New York and scoring 25 points against Duke.

Davide Moretti hit four 3-pointers and finished with 17 points last Saturday against Baylor and is now 10-for-18 from beyond the arc in the past four games. Moretti, who is currently averaging 12.4 points and 2.4 assists in conference play, dished out a career-high seven assists and scored nine points (3-for-4 3-pointers) in the win over Oklahoma State last Wednesday after he led the Red Raiders with 14 points at Oklahoma. Over the past five Big 12 games, Moretti has gone 13-for-26 on 3-pointers and is 18-for-19 at the free-throw line. He scored 14 points against Kansas where he hit three 3-pointers and was 5-for-5 at the free-throw line in the first matchup. Moretti recorded a career-high 21 points against Arkansas four weeks ago after going 6-for-9 from the field with three 3-pointers and followed it with seven assists against TCU. He's currently shooting 47.7 percent on 3-pointers in conference play and is 47-for-108 from beyond the arc this season. Moretti has scored in double figures in 11 of 13 Big 12 games this season and now has 411 points through 63 games in his career. He has started all 26 games for the Red Raiders this season after making one start in 37 games played as a freshman. A coach's son from Italy, Moretti is averaging 10.9 points and 2.5 assists per game in his second season with the program. He has also registered 17-point performances in wins over Southern Cal and Mississippi Valley State and has two games with six assists in non-conference play. Moretti made a career-high five 3-pointers against MVSU and has scored in double figures in 14 games this season and 16 in his career. He currently leads TTU with 47 3-pointers and is shooting 43.5 percent from beyond the arc.

After losing five seniors off last season's NCAA Elite Eight team, Texas Tech remained a veteran team through recruiting by adding graduate transfers Matt Mooney (University of South Dakota) and Tariq Owens (St. John's) to go along with returners Norense Odiase and Brandone Francis to make up a senior class of four for the Red Raiders. Owens and Mooney were both named to the Naismith Defensive Player of the Year Award Watch List, making TTU the only team with two members on the list of 15. Owens has scored 11 points and blocked two shots in the past two games against Baylor and Oklahoma State. He secured his second double-double of the season two weeks ago by scoring 12 points and adding 10 rebounds at Kansas in the first matchup against the Jayhawks. An Odenton, Maryland native, he had one of his best offensive games of the season after scoring 17 points against TCU where he was 7-for-9 from the field, including going 2-for-2 on 3-pointers. He is currently fourth on the Texas Tech single-season list with 63 blocks this season. Tony Battie has the single-season record with 71 blocks in the 1996-97 season. Owens, who has had at least one block in all 26 games this season, has scored in double figures in five of the last seven Big 12 games and is currently averaging 8.9 points, 5.7 rebounds and 2.4 blocked shots through 13 conference games. He has 31 blocks in Big 12 play and is fifth in the conference with a 56.7 shooting percentage. Owens, who led the BIG EAST in blocks the past two seasons while playing at St. John's, established a new Texas Tech single-game record with eight blocks in the win over Memphis on Dec. 1 in Miami after starting his Red Raider career with six blocks against Incarnate Word in the season opener. He had a season-high 18 points against Southern Cal and recorded the team's first double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds in his eight-block performance against Memphis. Owens transferred to Tech after playing his freshman season at Tennessee and then two years at St. John's. He came to Lubbock with 179 blocked shots and now has 242 in his career.

Mooney scored nine points against Baylor after going 5-for-5 on 3-pointers in a 15-point performance at Oklahoma State. He now has three games in his collegiate career with five 3-pointers and has 29 this season for the Red Raiders. His conference season has been highlighted by scoring a season-high 22 points against Texas where he was 8-for-10 from the field with three 3-pointers before his 18 points in a 7-for-12 performance against the Horned Frogs. He opened Big 12 play with 14 points in both games against KSU and WVU before scoring seven in the first matchup against OU. Through 13 conference games, he is now averaging 10.9 points, 2.5 rebounds, 1.5 steals and 2.2 assists per game in Big 12 play. An Illinois native, Mooney started his career at Air Force before playing two seasons at South Dakota where he led his team in scoring both years. He is shooting 43.7 percent from the field this season, has scored in double figures in 14 games and leads the team with 46 steals after having 13 in the past five games. Mooney transferred to Tech having recorded 1,480 points, 166 steals and 228 assists at Air Force and South Dakota. He now has 1,756 points, 212 steals and 302 assists in his collegiate career.

Odiase has made 99 career starts as a Red Raider and is currently averaging 6.6 rebounds per game in the last five contest after securing back-to-back double-digit rebounding performances with 11 rebounds at OU after having 10 against West Virginia. Odiase also had seven rebounds in the first game against the Jayhawks. He had a season-high nine points against the Mountaineers and has played in 114 career games coming into Saturday's contest against KU. The career resume boasts 524 rebounds, 570 points and 69 blocked shots in his career as a Red Raider that includes two trips the NCAA tournament. A Fort Worth native, Odiase is averaging 3.9 points and 5.1 rebounds per game in his senior season and is shooting 52.2 percent from the field. He had a career-high 13 rebounds in the win over Southeastern Louisiana on Nov. 13 after a 10-rebound performance against Mississippi Valley State. Odiase scored seven points to go along with his seven rebounds against Duke after going 3-for-4 from the field.

Francis is currently averaging 5.9 points, 2.4 rebounds and 1.5 assists per game and is fourth on the team with 28 3-pointers this season after hitting two against Baylor. He was coming off a week where he scored a season-high 16 points against West Virginia after going 7-for-10 from the field and then had 11 points with three 3-pointers at Oklahoma. A reserve in 25 of 26 games this season with an average of 23.5 minutes per game, Francis had three points and two rebounds in the first game against Kansas this season. He had scored his previous season-high 14 points against Baylor by going 4-for-8 from the field and 3-for-5 from the free-throw line in the game. A Dominican Republic native, he started his career at Florida before transferring to Lubbock where he averaged 5.1 points per game with 33 3-pointers as a junior during the Elite 8 run, including a career-high 17 points in the win over West Virginia. Francis scored 13 points in the opener against UIW and would contribute 10 points and a career-high six assists in the neutral-court win over Memphis. He has scored 342 points in 63 games in his career for the Red Raiders.

Kyler Edwards hit two 3-pointers and finished with seven points in the win over Baylor last Saturday after he recorded a career-high six assists and added eight points in the win over OU two games prior. Edwards leads the TTU reserves with 6.0 points and 1.4 assists per game in his freshman season. He has scored nine points in two conference games so far, first in the home game against KSU and then against Iowa State before going 3-for-3 from the field for eight points in Norman. A guard from Arlington, he has scored nine or more points in eight games this season and has recorded four double-digit scoring performances. Edwards recorded a career-high 19 points against Northern Colorado where he went 7-for-7 from the field with four 3-pointers. He is shooting 40.8 percent from the field with 18 3-pointers and has provided 10 assists in the past four games. Texas Tech sophomore Deshawn Corprew is averaging 5.6 points and 3.8 rebounds per game after scoring eight points against OSU and 10 points against WVU on a 3-for-3 shooting performance from the field. Corprew, who has made 10 of his last 14 shots from the field, was 3-for-3 at the free-throw line and finished with five points and three rebounds against Baylor. A transfer from South Plains College, he recorded a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds against UTRGV. Corprew, who made his first career start in that game against UTRGV, was 6-for-8 from the field to match a previous career-high of 13 points that he also had against Northern Colorado. Corprew has 10 rebounds in the past four games and now has 35 through the first 13 games Big 12 play. Avery Benson scored a career-high five points against Baylor after recording a career-high three steals in 11 minutes against WVU, while Parker Hicks scored a career-high with five points against the Mountaineers. Hicks was 2-for-4 from the field, including hitting one of the eight 3-pointers by the Red Raiders in the 31-point win. Last Monday, the Tech basketball program announced that freshman Khavon Moore will not play in any remaining games this season and will seek a medical hardship.

COVERING TECH: The Red Raiders and Jayhawks will be featured on ESPN with Mark Neely and Fran Fraschilla calling the game. On the radio, ESPN Radio will be broadcasting with Bob Valvano and Bill Rosinski on the call and Geoff Haxton and Chris Level will broadcast on Texas Tech Sports Network's flagship station Double T 97.3 in Lubbock. (1-0) RED RAIDERS OPEN SEASON WITH 50-POINT WIN OVER INCARNATE WORD CARDINALS

LUBBOCK, Texas – Jarrett Culver led Texas Tech with 16 points, Tariq Owens had six blocks and Matt Mooney contributed 12 points and six assists to help lead the Red Raiders to an 87-37 season-opening win over Incarnate Word on Tuesday at the United Supermarkets Arena.

Texas Tech (1-0) held UIW (0-1) to only seven points in the second half with the Cardinals being limited to shooting 3-for-30 from the field and 0-for-9 on 3-pointers. With the defense putting on pressure, the Red Raider offense knocked down six 3-pointers and shot 19-for-30 (63.3 percent) to post the largest season-opening win since a 119-55 win over UNC-Ashville to begin the 2003-04 season. The Red Raiders, who finished with 11 blocked shots as a team which was one off the program record, have now won 19-straight season openers and extended their non-conference home winning streak to 39 games after outscoring UIW by a 48-7 margin in the second half.

"We had some hard words to the guys at half time," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "We weren't pleased. We made some adjustments, but you have to give the players credit. It starts with those four seniors. They knew what was coming. They knew we didn't play our best in the first half. You have to have guys that want to be coached, that's the first thing. But then again, you have to give Incarnate Word credit, they spaced it out the first half. They shot a good percentage and they had a player get really hot. It isn't always what you did bad, sometimes it is about understanding the opponents pretty good too."

Culver shot 6-for-10 from the field with two 3-pointers for his team-leading 16 points and also added four assists, while Owens was only one blocked shot away from matching the Texas Tech program record of seven set by Will Flemons in 1990 against Texas A&M. Owens, a graduate transfer from St. John's, is coming off a season where he had 94 blocks and now has 185 in his career. His career-high is eight last year in a game against Georgetown and he is now one of nine players in Texas Tech history to have six or more blocks in a game.

"Tariq has the chance to become one of the best defensive players in college basketball," Beard said. "He has a special gift. It isn't just the ability to get up there and block the shot, it's the anticipation, intelligence, toughness, athleticism, and preparation."

Tech finished with five players recording blocks, including two from Norense Odiase who led the team with six rebounds. The 11 blocks by the Red Raiders were only behind 12-block games against Texas Southern (2013) and Pepperdine (1998).

Brandone Francis would add 13 points and five rebounds for the Red Raiders in the first game of his senior season after having two 3-pointers, and freshman Kyler Edwards gave Tech four double-digit scorers when he hit a shot with 4:34 to play to give him 10 points in his debut. Mooney and Francis led the team with three steals each, while Davide Moretti added nine points and six assists, starting with a lob pass to Owens for a dunk on the opening possession and then drilling a 3-pointer on the next trip down the court. The Red Raiders started the season on a 9-0 run to start the game before UIW kept it close throughout the opening half. Culver would hit a 3-pointer with four seconds remaining in the opening half as Tech took a 39-30 lead into the locker room. Moretti's six assists matched his previous career-high against Wofford in his freshman season.

Edwards led Texas Tech at halftime with eight points, while Mooney, Culver and Moretti each had seven. The Red Raiders, who started the game on the 9-0 run, shot 55.6 percent in the first half.

A nine-point advantage at halftime would turn into a 50-point win for the Red Raiders with the combination of a strong shooting performance and stifling defense over the final 20 minutes. Texas Tech opened the second half on a 17-2 run that started on an Owens dunk like in the first half and included two 3-pointers from Culver and one from Francis as the lead grew to 56-32 with 15:13 remaining in the game. Another run, this time a 15-0 one, saw 3s from Moretti and Francis along with a dunk by Odiase.

Texas Tech will return to action at 8 p.m. on Friday against Mississippi Valley State in its second of three home games to begin the season at the United Supermarkets Arena. The Red Raiders are now 34-4 in home games with Beard as head coach.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Brandone Francis
On the offensive surge in the second half:
"First of all, if you noticed, it started on defense. We kind of held it up back at halftime and coach talked to us about it. We just brought a whole other intensity. Then the floor had a couple steals and things got going defensively. That is what started for us."

On how steals and blocks energized the team:
"He gets us going, we need Norense Odiase to be a tough defender, especially myself. "I got your back, I got your back. I stay low and I think Odiase got way better defensively and he's trying. I'm proud of him."

Tariq Owens
On having six blocks in tonight's game:
"We did a good job as a team. Everybody is flying around, and it makes things easier. Speeding the defense up, it makes my job easier and you see me coming. It is easier for me to get there."

On TTU's defensive helping Owens play tonight:
"It gave us energy. Centers down the floor, flying. A lot of plays with a lot of balls. You know, send us down to transition. Plays like that give us energy. Getting steals, getting blocks, it's all the energy and effort plays that will have things right."

(2-0) RED RAIDERS ROLL TO 40TH STRAIGHT NON-CONFERENCE HOME WIN

LUBBOCK, Texas – Davide Moretti scored a career-high 17 points and Deshawn Corprew added 11 points and eight rebounds to help lead Texas Tech to an 84-52 non-conference win over Mississippi Valley State on Friday at the United Supermarkets Arena.

The Red Raiders (2-0) won their 40th straight non-conference home game with the 32-point victory where they limited the Delta Devils (0-2) to 33.3 percent shooting and forced 12 turnovers. Texas Tech has not lost a non-conference home game now since Dec. 30, 2013 and coach Chris Beard is now 21-0 in those games.

Moretti, a sophomore from Italy, would also set a new career-high with five 3-pointers in the game and added four assists and two rebounds. Moretti led the Red Raiders with 14 points at halftime after going 4-for-5 on 3-pointers. His previous career-best was 14 points last season against Florida Atlantic.

"I was just making shots," Moretti said. "My teammates helped me a lot with about five assists in the first half. I mean, that was confidence. My teammates were giving me wide-open shots."

"That's what Moretti is supposed to do," Beard said. "He is a good shooter when his teammates get him wide open shots and the offense produces shots. I think he is a 40-45 percent shooter. We are looking for him to get more consistent this year, he helped us out a lot last year as a freshman learning how to play on this level. He is a guy I pull for."

Norense Odiase would add a team-high 10 rebounds and also scored eight points, while Jarrett Culver went for 12 points, five assists and four rebounds in the second game of his sophomore season. Odiase, who also led the team with seven rebounds in the opener against Incarnate Word, had four of his rebounds on the offensive side of the court along with two blocked shots. Corprew, a sophomore in his first season at Texas Tech after transferring from South Plains College, scored seven of his 11 points in the second half after scoring seven in the game against UIW.

Texas Tech finished the game with eight 3-pointers and was 32-for-64 (50 percent) from the field. The Red Raiders owned the glass with a 49-25 rebounding advantage, including seven rebounds from Tariq Owens who would also add nine points, two assists and one blocked shot. Matt Mooney led the Red Raiders for the second straight game in assists, finishing with six assists along with scoring eight points and securing five rebounds. Malik Ondigo also had a career night with eight points and five rebounds, while Kyler Edwards went for nine points after opening his freshman season with 10 against UIW.

Odiase and Owens each had six points each as the Red Raiders took a 43-20 lead at halftime.Odiase led the team with seven rebounds through 20 minutes and also had two blocks, while Mooney went into the break with five assists.

NOTES

Texas Tech has scored on the opening possessions in both games this season with an inside shot and then a 3-pointer. . . Owens would score the opening points for the second straight game and was followed by Mooney knocking down a 3-pointer. Against UIW, Owens had a dunk to start the game and was followed by Moretti hitting a 3-pointer... Texas Tech has started the first two games of the season with 9-0 runs... Texas Tech led by 23 at halftime after hitting five 3-pointers and shooting 53.3 percent from the field.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Coach Chris Beard

On Davide Moretti's performance against Mississippi Valley State:
"That's what Moretti is supposed to do. He is a good shooter when his teammates get him wide open shots and the offense produces shots. I think he is a 40-45 percent shooter. We are looking for him to get more consistent this year, he helped us out a lot last year as a freshman learning how to play on this level. He dedicated himself this summer to his national team while staying in town with his teammates in Lubbock. He is a guy I pull for. When he shoots the ball every tme I think it is going in because I know what this guy does behind the scenes. He is a guy that takes 400-500 shots a day and never takes a day off. I got a lot of respect for him."

On the play of Malik Ondigo and Deshawn Corprew:
"Malik played well tonight he is talents and Corprew is doing everything he can to contribute to the team he has three years of eligibility left. They are our first guys coming off of the bench. They played great tonight."

On Odiase against the Delta Devils:
"I think Norense played great tonight right around a double-double. If the game would not have been so large he would of played more and got a double-double. I think he is a rim protector. Everyone associated block shots with Tariq but he is an explosive athlete. He is one of the better defensive players in the Big 12."

Mississippi Valley State coach Andre Payne

On playing against Texas Tech:
"They are so diverse, they can beat you from the perimeter from shooting 3s. Culver is outstanding off the dribble. They have an attack game. The point guard is solid and Odiase is a big man in the middle who can get in there and bang. I'm not quite sure the depth, but the first seven or eight guys they play are pretty tough guys."

G3 TEXAS TECH 59, SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA 40 (November 13, 2018)

(3-0) ODIASE, CULVER LEAD RED RAIDERS TO 19-POINT WIN OVER LIONS TO COMPLETE HOME STAND

LUBBOCK, Texas – Texas Tech senior Norense Odiase secured a career-high 13 rebounds in his 92nd career game and Jarrett Culver scored a season-high 21 points to help lead the Red Raiders to a 59-40 non-conference win over Southeastern Louisiana on Tuesday at the United Supermarkets Arena.

Texas Tech (3-0) has now won 41 straight non-conference home games and has outscored its first three opponents by a 33.7 scoring margin to begin the season. The Red Raiders have still not trailed in a game this season and are 3-0 for the third straight season under head coach Chris Beard who is also now 22-0 in non-conference home games at Tech.

"The first season, within the season, was this three-game home stand," Beard said. "We are pleased to be 3-0 and are looking forward to getting to Kansas City and having an opportunity to compete for our first championship of the season in the four-team tournament. We didn't play our best game tonight where we had a lot of open shots and just didn't make them and other parts of our game didn't pick us up. Defensively, we were good for the most part, but offensively it wasn't one of our better efforts. You have to give them credit though, they are well-coached and are a good team. They came in here and played hard"

Culver was 8-for-12 from the field with two 3-pointers for his fifth career game over 20 points and just five back of his career-high of 26 last season at West Virginia. The sophomore from Lubbock led the Red Raiders at halftime with 14 points after shooting 5-for-6 from the field, including a jumper with two seconds remaining in the half to give the team the 13-point advantage after 20 minutes. The Red Raiders started the game on an 18-3 run that began on the with a Matt Mooney jumper and grew to 15 on a Culver jumper.

"My teammates got me open and made plays for me," Culver said. "I was just letting the game come to me and being patient like Coach always tells me. I have a lot of confidence in my team. That just comes from our daily work. Everybody's in the gym every day, everybody watches film, and I have a lot of confidence that every game everybody's going to come and play hard."

Odiase, who had a previous career-best of 12 rebounds against Seton Hall last season, now has six games of double-figure rebounding in his career. He would grab nine rebounds in the first half against the Lions who were out-rebounded in the game by a 38-25 margin. Odiase would add six points to his rebounding total, while Davide Moretti went for eight points after hitting two shots and going 4-for-4 from the free-throw line. Mooney and Culver led the team with four assists each and Deshawn Corprew led the reserves with six points and three rebounds.

Culver is now averaging 16.3 points per game this season, while Mooney leads the team with 16 assists through three games. Tariq Owens added three blocks in the win over SLU and now has 10 on the season.The Red Raiders finished the game shooting only 42.3 percent from the field, but limited the Lions to 26.1 percent and forced 15 turnovers. Tech would lead by as many as 24 points in the game.

Moses Greenwood led the Lions with 13 points and six rebounds, while Parker Edwards hit two 3-pointers and scored 11. SLU, which won the Southland Conference regular-season last year, falls to 1-3 but those losses are to LSU, Nebraska and now the Red Raiders.

The Red Raiders will now travel to Kansas City where it will play Southern Cal on Monday at the Hall of Fame Classic at the Sprint Center. The Red Raiders and Trojans will then play either Nebraska or Missouri State on Tuesday to complete the event. Texas Tech will return home to host Northern Colorado on Saturday, Nov. 24 at the United Supermarkets Arena.

POSTGAME QUOTES

Chris Beard | Texas Tech Head Coach

On his ability to play multiple lineups throughout the game:
"One of the things we have on this team is a lot of different pieces. I think we can play small ball and put five shooters out there, but we're obviously starting two bigs with Norense and Tariq, and we'll even play Malik, Norense and Tariq together and get really big if need be. So tonight, just at different parts of the game and because of the way the game was going, we went with that smaller lineup and it helped us a little bit and we finished the game with Norense cause he was doing such a great job rebounding."

On his thoughts about the game against SLU:
"We played nine players in the game basically and only three guys shot 50%. If you're trying to shoot 50% as a team, everyone has to make their shots and tonight only 3 of 9 made their shots. Again, you can't always depend on jump shooting, tonight shots weren't going down and we just got to figure out ways to get to the free throw line more, we've got figure out how to get more offensive baskets as our worse offensive rebounding effort. I'll have to watch the film and try to figure out why. But it's nice to see our defense carry us on a night where we really needed it."

Norense Odiase

On his mentality on rebounding and playing defense:
"Just across the board it's just like every game. I was fortunate enough to corral on this game, so whatever helps the team. We didn't give up many layups, so that was good. We walled up, and early on we didn't do much fouling, so that really helped us early on."

On the first three games of the season:
"Every day is a different struggle, every game and opponents. It's kind of different, but we've been okay we just have to keep getting better as the season keeps going, so that when we come to Big 12 we'll be full up and ready to go. Shots fall some games, shots fall some other games, but tonight they didn't fall for us. We just have to know how to grind it out and get those tough wins in different ways." Keep moving the ball, don't get stagnant and don't settle for three's and get to the free throw line early in each half, so that's what we harped on."

(4-0) RED RAIDERS RALLY FROM 13 BACK FOR WIN OVER TROJANS AT HALL OF FAME CLASSIC

KANSAS CITY – Tariq Owens and Jarrett Culver scored 18 points each and Matt Mooney and Davide Moretti both went for 17 as Texas Tech stormed back from a nine-point halftime deficit to earn a 78-63 win over Southern Cal on Monday on the first day of the Hall of Fame Classic at the Sprint Center.

The Red Raiders (4-0) trailed by as many as 13 in the first half against the Trojans (2-2), but would respond by shooting 16-for-19 (84.2 percent) from the field and 5-for-6 on 3-pointers in the second half to advance to the Hall of Fame Classic Championship final where they will meet Nebraska at 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday at the Sprint Center.

"It's not easy not playing well and then flipping the script," Texas Tech head coach Chris Beard said. "We played really well in the second half shooting over 80 percent and only having three turnovers. You can beat a lot of teams like that. I learned that we can make adjustments and everything that I had hoped about our guys where they are grown men who want to be coached hard. Every team is a work in progress right now and trying to get better and we're no different. Playing this type of competition in this venue gives us a chance to get better."

Culver would add a team-high nine rebounds and five assists to his 18 points, while Owens scored his season-high 18 points by going 7-for-10 from the field and 3-for-3 from the free-throw line. Mooney would also notch a season-high with his 17 points that came on a 6-for-12 shooting performance and knocking down two 3-pointers. Down 32-23 at halftime, Mooney would spark the team early in the second half with a layup followed by a 3-pointer to cut it to a 34-29 deficit just 1:40 in the half. Another Mooney layup was followed by two Culver free throws and a layup before Moretti drilled a 3-pointer to give the Red Raiders a 37-36 lead with 14:38 to play. Mooney scored 15 of his 17 points in the second half where he was 5-for-5 from the field.

"We were sluggish in the first half and that's just not us," Mooney said. "Us as seniors can't let that happen. We knew we had to bring energy in the second half and we were able to get some steals and get out in transition. Once we got some shots going it got contagious."

Moretti's 17 points matched his career-high that he set in the second game of the season and came with him knocking down four shots and going 4-for-4 from the free-throw line. A sophomore from Italy, Moretti scored 13 of his 17 points in the second half and also finished the game with two assists. Owens scored 11 points in the second half where he was 4-for-4 from the field and 3-for-3 from the line. He had an emphatic dunk off a lob from Culver to give the Red Raiders a 59-53 that would grow to an 11-point lead with him hitting a layup to cap the 7-0 run.

"This was a real test for us," Owens said. "We've felt like we always had that leadership role but this game showed that we always have to be ready. As leaders and seniors, this showed us that we have to be ready to play every single game and all 40 minutes."

Texas Tech trailed 32-23 at halftime after being limited to 27.3 percent shooting from the field and only going 1-for-9 on 3-pointers. The Red Raiders, who had not trailed once throughout the first three games of the season, were down by as many as 13 in the opening half against the Trojans who were 6-for-12 on 3-pointers through 20 minutes. Owens led Texas Tech with seven points and four rebounds in the first half, while Culver had five points and two assists. The Trojans would take a 20-17 game into a 13-point deficit for the Red Raiders with a 10-0 run that included two 3-pointers. Tech ended the run with a Culver layup with 2:46 remaining in the half.

Boatwright had a half-high 10 points for USC and Porter was at eight points and three assists as the Trojans took the nine-point lead into halftime despite having 10 turnovers against the Red Raider defense.

"We didn't play very well in the first half," Beard said. "A lot of that was us, but you also have to give them some credit. We settled down in the second half. When you shoot over 80 percent and only have three turnovers in a half you're going to be successful a lot of times."

Texas Tech and Nebraska will meet for the 27th time on Tuesday, but the first since 2011 when the Red Raiders earned a 72-71 win in Lubbock. The Huskers (4-0) advanced to final with an 85-62 win over Missouri State on Monday led by Isaac Copeland Jr. who went for 23 points, seven rebounds and four assists. The Huskers shot 50.8 percent from the field in the game, including hitting 13 3-pointers.

"I've only seen Nebraska play one game on television and we'll dig in tonight," Beard said. "I know this, they are really good. They look to me to be a Sweet 16-type team on paper and then of course if you're that good you can win a couple more and make the final four. They have experience, guard play and we know that we'll have to play our best against them."

(5-0) TEXAS TECH WINS HALL OF FAME CLASSIC CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE OVER NEBRASKA

KANSAS CITY – Jarrett Culver matched a career-high with 26 points and Matt Mooney added 15 to help lead Texas Tech to the Hall of Fame Classic Championship title with a 70-52 win over No. 25 Nebraska on Tuesday at the Sprint Center.

The Red Raiders (5-0) earned the tournament title after limiting the Cornhuskers (4-1) to 37 points below their season average and having nine players score in the game. Texas Tech trailed early by as many as nine in the first half but would take a six-point halftime lead and never looked back as it led for 25:29. The Red Raiders have now won a regular-season tournament title for the second straight season after taking the Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame Tournament title last season with an 85-49 win over No. 20 Northwestern. Nebraska, which came into the game having scored over 80 in its previous four games, was the first ranked opponent for the Red Raiders this season and comes a year after Tech went 8-5 against opposition in the polls.

"We were really concerned with their offensive firepower and their ability to make the 3-point shot," said Texas Tech coach Chris Beard who is now 50-24 as the program's head coach. "I thought our guys were locked in tonight, especially on a one-day prep. I'm really proud of our team and it's evident that we have a veteran team with these four seniors. We embraced the preparation."

Texas Tech opened the tournament in Kansas City with a 78-63 win over Southern Cal on Monday after beginning the season with three home wins. Mooney was also named to the all-tournament team after he scored 17 points against the Trojans, while Culver earned the top honors after going for 18 against USC and then dropping the 26 against the Cornhuskers.

Culver was named the Hall of Fame Classic Most Valuable Player after recording the sixth game of his career with 20 or more points. He was 9-for-18 from the field with three 3-pointers and five more point from the free-throw line. Tariq Owens secured a season-high eight rebounds and added two blocks, while Mooney had two steals and two assists to go along with his 15 points. Culver, who also had 26 points last season at West Virginia, also had six rebounds and two assists in the win.

Davide Moretti finished the game with eight points and two assists and Brandone Francis scored seven to lead the bench which owned a 15-3 scoring advantage over Nebraska's bench on the night. Texas Tech owned a 38-29 rebounding advantage and limited the Cornhuskers to n 35.4 percent shooting and to a 5-for-23 performance on 3-pointers.

Texas Tech would take a 32-26 lead into halftime with Mooney scoring the final six points of the half on three layups to complete a first half where the Red Raiders trailed by nine early before four lead changes in the opening 20 minutes. Mooney led with nine points, including the six in the final 1:25 minutes of play to take a tied game to break with the Red Raiders up six. Francis added seven off the bench with a 3-pointer and two jumpers, while Culver had six points and three rebounds for the Red Raiders who would finish the half shooting 45.2 percent from the field.

Texas Tech was down 15-6 six minutes in the game before going on a 12-0 run to take a 18-15 lead on an Owens layup, an and-one from Mooney, two Culver free throws, Francis' 3-pointer and then a Deshawn Corprew layup. The run was shades of Monday's game against USC when the Red Raiders were down 13 before storming back to advance to the title game. Nebraska finished the first half shooting 37.5 percent from the field and were only 3-for-12 on 3-pointers. The Red Raiders were 1-for-5 from beyond the arc in the first half but owned inside with a 24-10 scoring advantage in the paint and a 20-13 rebounding margin.

The Red Raiders would never trail in the second half and were up double-digits for the first time when Culver hit a 3-pointer with 11 minutes remaining in the game. Mooney would add to the lead that was 11 with just over nine to play before a pair of Moretti free throws pushed the lead to 15 with 7:31 remaining. The largest lead of the game was at 17 points when Mooney hit a pair of free throws to increase the lead to 61-44 and the lead never went under 13 the rest of the way.

(6-0) RED RAIDERS ROLL TO 31-POINT WIN OVER NORTHERN COLORADO AT HOME

LUBBOCK, Texas – Kyler Edwards didn't miss a shot and finished with a career-high 19 points while Jarrett Culver scored 20 and had six assists to lead Texas Tech to a 93-62 win over Northern Colorado on Saturday at the United Supermarkets Arena.

The Red Raiders (6-0) shot 60.7 percent from the field, including going 10-for-16 on 3-pointers as they extended their non-conference home winning streak to 42 games and handed the Bears (3-1) their first loss of the season and held them to 40 points below their season average. Texas Tech's shooting percentage was the best it had in a game since shooting 61.4 percent in a win over Idaho State on Nov. 25, 2016 and the first over 60 since last year against Northwestern.

"I was really pleased to get the win tonight," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "They were a team that had our full respect and attention. They are a team that is set up to win games in March. They won 26 games last year. I thought our guys were dialed in for the most part with a couple of good days of preparation."

Edwards finished the game 7-for-7, including going 4-for-4 on 3-pointers while Deshawn Corprew also had a career-night with 13 points after going 6-for-7 from the field. A freshman from Arlington, Edwards came into the game averaging 4.8 points per game and with a season-best 10 points in the opener against Incarnate Word.

"It was just my night tonight," Edwards said. "It could have been anyone's night, but tonight was just my night. It just happen to be me tonight. Coach gives me confidence. He tells me my time is going to be coming one day, any game."

Culver, who was coming off matching his career-high with 26 on Tuesday against Nebraska, shot 7-for-10 in the game with two 3-pointers and Brandone Francis was 5-for-7 and finished with 11 to give the Red Raiders four double-digit scorers in the game where the team went 37-for-61 from the field. Matt Mooney and Davide Moretti added seven points each with Mooney also grabbing five rebounds. Norense Odiase also had five rebounds and Tariq Owens added two blocks for the Red Raiders.

Edwards and Corprew led a bench that owned a 51-3 scoring advantage over the UNC bench in the game.

Northern Colorado came into Lubbock averaging 101 points per game but were limited to 62 by the Red Raider defense which held the Bears to 19-for-55 shooting and to only 4-for-24 on 3-pointers. Texas Tech has now limited back-to-back opponents to game where they were held well below their season averages after also holding Nebraska to only 52 points on Tuesday.

Culver has now scored in double-digits in all six games this season and now has 26 in his career. His 20-point performance was the seventh time in 43 games and he is now averaging 18.8 points per game and leads the Red Raiders with 26 assists. A sophomore from Lubbock, he is also leading the team by shooting 54.1 percent from the field.

Texas Tech, which had 12 players score, finished the game with six blocks with two coming from Owens and one each from Odiase, Edwards, Corprew and Avery Benson. Owens now has 15 blocked shots through only six games. The Red Raiders led 43-30 at halftime and would cruise to the win after only having six turnovers in the game and forcing 16 from the Bears. The Red Raiders have won all six of their games by double-digits with three wins of over 30 or more points and are now winning by a 27.5 margin.

Edwards led the Red Raiders with 11 points in the first half after shooting 4-for-4 from the field, including going 3-for-3 on 3-pointers. Francis added nine points on 4-for-5 shooting in the half and Corprew and Odiase both had six at halftime. The Red Raiders led by as many as 19 in the first half after shooting 59.4 percent from the field and going 5-for-8 on 3-pointers. Culver, who had one 3-pointer in the opening half, would hit a jumper at the halftime buzzer and finished with seven points and three assists at halftime.

QUOTES

Chris Beard

On his team's depth on Saturday:

"We're a team of depth. We've got a nine or 10 man rotation right now and we also got some players that aren't in the rotation right now that will be some really good players at some point. You know I would like to recognize those players at the end of the game. So speaking of the five guys at the end of the game did a great job. Those guys are a big part of our team and practice hard every day. We have a lot of confidence in those five guys. We want to have balance. We have a lot of players on our roster that we have a lot of confidence in. We can't win in the Big 12 by only having one or two good players. You have to have a team of players that can play a role and get it done any given night."

On the team's effort against the Bears:

"It's a game of spurts and what we are trying to get through is the 40 minutes. Tonight with the naked eye I think we played about 28 minutes instead of the 40. Fortunately that got the win tonight. There will be some games that we will have to play 38 of the 40 to be able to win. They spread you out, it's not easy for those big guys but I thought we hung with them the best that we could."

(7-0) RED RAIDERS RALLY FOR WIN OVER MEMPHIS IN HOOPHALL MIAMI INVITATIONAL

MIAMI – Tariq Owens recorded a double-double with 13 points and 11 rebounds along with setting a new Texas Tech single-game record with eight blocked shots to help the No. 20/19-ranked Red Raiders rally for a 78-67 win over Memphis at the Air Force Reserve Hoophall Miami Invitational on Saturday at the AmericanAirlines Arena.

The Red Raiders (7-0) trailed 78-67 at halftime and by as many as 13 in the second half before finishing the game on a 27-8 run over the final seven minutes to knocked off the Tigers (3-4). Texas Tech went on a 9-0 run to take its first lead of the second half at 60-59 with 4:35 remaining, capped by Owens layup and a free-throw off an assist from Kyler Edwards assist. Owens had a block on the next possession, got the rebound and then hit two free throws as the Red Raiders took a 62-59 lead that would not be relinquished.

Jarrett Culver led the Red Raiders with 20 points, six assists and also had six rebounds in the win, while Deshawn Corprew added 12 points and five rebounds. Culver had now led the team in scoring in six of seven games, has scored in double-figures in all seven games and has scored 20 or more in four games. Owens, who had six blocks in the season opener against Incarnate Word, set a new TTU record that had previously been held by Will Flemons had seven against Texas A&M in 1990 and also the first double-double for Texas Tech this season.

"We just picked it up as a team," Owens said. "Our team defense was better and we just locked in as a collective unit."

Brandone Francis would add 10 points after going 2-for-3 on 3-pointers in the second half and Edwards would go for nine points and two assists. Matt Mooney finished with eight points, three assists and three rebounds for the Red Raiders who shot 49.1 percent from the field and went 22-for-30 from the free-throw line. Corprew, who was one point away from his season-high in scoring went on a 6-0 run of his own in the second half, hitting a jumper, two free throws and then a layup to cut the deficit to 57-51 with 8:11 remaining.

"Coach is always on us about playing it to the bone," Culver said. "We play a full 40 minutes and fight until the end. We all buy into that and are always going to fight until the end. I feel like this team has a lot of heart."

Texas Tech hit 16 of its 22 free throws in the second half, including Culver hitting six in his 20-point performance. The 22 free throws matched the 22 the team made in its comeback win over Southern Cal and the team has still won all of its games this season by double-digits with Edwards knocking down a layup with 31 seconds remaining for the 11-point win.

"I thought above everything, we just stayed the course," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "On a night when some teams could say it's not our night, we just stayed the course. We knew we couldn't get it all back at once so we broke the game into little three and four minute games."

Tyler Harris led Memphis with 17 points, while Kyvon Davenport added 13 points and four rebounds. The Tigers finished the game shooting 3-for-15 on 3-pointers and were 18-for-28 from the free-throw line.

Texas Tech trailed by the nine-point halftime deficit after shooting going 2-for-8 on 3-pointers and committing 10 turnovers. It was only their second time trailing at halftime this season and came with the team going 10-for-25 from the field and the Tigers shooting 12-for-35. Owens and Culver led the Red Raiders with six points each at halftime with Owens scoring four of his six on dunks. Culver was limited to 2-for-6 shooting in the first half and also had two assists. Owens led the team with six rebounds in the opening and also had one blocked shot. Memphis, which led by as many as 11 in the first half, was led by Tyler Harris who had 13 points with three 3-pointers. The Tigers built their first-half lead by going 10-for-11 at the free-throw line while the Red Raiders were 6-for-11 at the line. The 37 points scored by Memphis were the most by an opponent in the first half this season against Tech.

Texas Tech will begin a three-game home stand on Wednesday when the Red Raiders welcome Arkansas-Pine Bluff to the United Supermarkets Arena. TTU is on a 42-game home non-conference winning streak going into the 6:30 p.m. game and is 4-0 at home this season.

(8-0) RED RAIDERS LOCKS DOWN UAPB FOR EIGHTH STRAIGHT WIN TO OPEN SEASON

LUBBOCK, Texas – No. 13-ranked Texas Tech extended its non-conference home winning streak to 43 games with a 65-47 win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff on Wednesday at the United Supermarkets Arena by limiting the Golden Lions to 32.6 percent shooting and forcing 20 turnovers.

The Red Raiders (8-0) are now 5-0 on their home court this season, limited an opponent to under 50 points for the third time this season and are unbeaten through eight games for the third time in program history. UAPB (2-6) made only 14 shots in the game and saw Martaveous McKnight score 27 of their 47 points. Texas Tech has now won all eight of its games this season by double digits and remain one of only 11 teams in the nation still unbeaten. TTU led the nation coming into the game by limiting opponents to 33.8 percent shooting this season, a number that dropped to 33.7 percent after another stifling night on the defensive side of the court.

Jarrett Culver led Texas Tech with 13 points, seven rebounds and four assists in the game, while Matt Mooney went for 11 points and led the team with five assists. Kyler Edwards scored in double-figures for the third time this season after adding 10 points and Tariq Owens and Davide Moretti each finished with nine points. Norense Odiase added six rebounds and five points and Deshawn Corprew had five rebounds for the Red Raiders who had a 41-30 rebounding advantage.

"We played against zone for 40 minutes tonight," Texas Tech head coach Chris Beard said. "We just have to hit shots. On nights where you don't hit shots you have to manufacture some offense out of offensive rebounds. I thought we could have done a lot better job on the glass, and you have to get to the free throw line so I give Pine Bluff a lot of credit. They slowed the game down with zone, we weren't hitting shots, and then we really weren't creating much offense with our defense."

Texas Tech earned the 18-point win despite a season-low 41.9 shooting percentage from the field and going 3-for-15 on 3-pointers. The Red Raiders were only 1-for-4 on 3-pointers in the second half, but dominated with a 36-14 scoring advantage in the paint and had a 27-10 points off turnover advantage. Moretti and Mooney each had one 3-pointers in the first half before Edwards hit one in the second. The three 3-pointers were the fewest for the Red Raiders this season, but defensively the 20 turnovers forced were the second most as the team has had this season behind only 29 in the season-opening win over Incarnate Word.

McKnight, who came into the game averaging 25.0 points per game, shot 9-for-18 with three 3-pointers. He would also go 6-for-6 from the free-throw line and had seven rebounds. The rest of the Golden Lions would go 5-for-25 in the game against the Red Raider defense.

Moretti led Texas Tech at halftime with nine points after going 4-for-6 from the field, while Culver had eight points and five rebounds. The Red Raiders shot 45.2 percent from the field in the opening half, including Mooney knocking down three shots and scoring seven points. Mooney scored the first basket of the game on the opening possession and would also knock down a 3-pointer to give the Red Raiders an early 10-3 lead after Moretti had scored five in a row. TTU, which owned a 7-0 scoring advantage off the bench, went on a 6-0 run late in the first half to take a 35-21 lead before the Golden Lions scored the final four points to cut their deficit to 10 after 20 minutes.

The Red Raiders have now held opponents to under 30 points in the first half in four of eight games this season.

Texas Tech will return to action at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 12 against Northwestern State at the USA followed by its Throwback Game against Abilene Christian on Saturday, Dec. 15 at the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum. The Red Raiders and Wildcats will play the final basketball game in the coliseum before TTU travels to New York to play Duke on Thursday, Dec. 20 at Madison Square Garden.

QUOTES

Chris Beard

On his thoughts about the win over UAPB: "We played against zone for 40 minutes tonight. We got the ball in the middle some, we got to the free throw line many times. We just have to hit shots. On nights where you don't hit shots you have to manufacture some offense out of offensive rebounds. I thought we could have done a lot better job on the glass, and you have to get to the free throw line so I give Pine Bluff a lot of credit. They slowed the game down with zone, we weren't hitting shots, and then we really weren't creating much offense with our defense. We let their best player get hot. At times in the second half when we started to separate a little bit, we started getting rebounds and running before they could set up their zone and we had some success there. It's not just the players, I take responsibility for this too. The coaching staff has to figure this out, and we just have to play better."

(9-0) RED RAIDERS SHUTS DOWN DEMONS

LUBBOCK, Texas – The Texas Tech defense limited Northwestern State to 10 points and 14.8 percent shooting in a dominant first half that carried the No. 11-ranked Red Raiders to a 79-44 win and extended a 44-game non-conference home winning streak on Wednesday at the United Supermarkets Arena.

The Red Raiders (9-0) would lead 53-10 at halftime and matched a season-high with 10 3-pointers in the game, including Matt Mooney and Deshawn Corprew knocking down three each in a 35-point win where 11 players scored. The team has now won all nine of its games by double-digits this season, four by 30 or more points, is 6-0 at home and have limited opponents to under 30 percent shooting in three games. Texas Tech would hold NSU (2-8) to 24.5 percent shooting throughout the game, a season-low for the nation's top defensive team which has now held its first nine opponents to 32.6 percent shooting.

"Our theme this year is consistency," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "We are trying to get consistent and tonight is a great example of how we are not quite there yet. I thought the first half we played the game about as well as you can play basketball. You have to give Northwestern State credit, in the second half you could not even tell what the score was based on how hard they were playing. I understand that it is hard to play with these big leads. You want to value patience, but you still want to attack. I know these games are hard but I think these players would be the first to tell you that there are a lot of things we have to do better."

Jarrett Culver led the Red Raiders with 15 points and five assists, while Tariq Owens added 14 points and eight rebounds. Culver has now scored in double figures in all nine games this season, leading the team in eight and is now averaging 17.9 points per game for the season. Mooney and Corprew both finished the game with 11 points, while Kyler Edwards and Davide Moretti had seven each. Norense Odiase led the Red Raiders with seven rebounds and had two blocks along with Owens.

Culver led the Red Raiders with 13 points at halftime, while Mooney was at 11 and Owens had eight points and five rebounds. The Red Raiders had nine players score in the opening 20 minutes and finished the half shooting 54.5 percent from the field, including going 8-for-18 on 3-pointers. The Red Raiders pulled away early with a 15-0 run to take a 20-2 lead after starting the game 4-for-7 on 3-pointers while NSU was 1-for-10 from the field. Another first-half run, this time an 8-0 run that included an alley-oop dunk by Owens on a pass from Culver, followed by two layups by Culver and a Moretti layup that took the lead to 46-10.

"We were locked in on defense," Culver said. "We had a great defense mentality. Everybody was flying around and playing as hard as we can. We were focusing on putting 40 minutes together."

The Red Raiders finished the game shooting 48.3 percent from the field, including going 10-for-23 on 3-pointers. Mooney was 3-for-4 from beyond the arc, while Corprew was 3-for-5. Culver, Moretti, Edwards and Brandone Francis would also knocked down 3s in the game.

DeAndre Love led Northwestern State with 11 points, while Dalin Williams added nine points and six rebounds. The Demons would shoot 4-for-27 in the first half and finished at 13-for-53. NSU was limited to 4-for-19 on 3-pointers and also committed 19 turnovers as they fell to 0-7 on the road this season.

Texas Tech is 9-0 for the first time since the 2009-10 season and for only the third time in program history. The best start to a season came in 1929-30 at 12-0.

The Red Raiders will return to action at 6 p.m. on Saturday against Abilene Christian (9-1) in the final game ever at the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum and for the 27th time overall. TTU earned a 74-47 win last season in the last meeting with the first-ever game between the two West Texas programs coming on Feb. 22, 1926 that resulted in a 34-21 win by the Red Raiders.

HEAD COACH CHRIS BEARD

On the team's performance in the first half:

"I think defensively we were executing the game-plan. Everybody was bringing energy. I thought on offense, we had a lot of shots early, which always helps. We've good shooters. Then, I was really proud of the guys about mid-way through the first half. We said "hey, let's not settle though" because to win in the Big XII, you have to go to make shots. But you also have to get to the bonus, get to the free-throw line. There is a balance. I thought in the first half I would agree with you, that is about as well as we have played all year long."

On the challenge of stringing together two quality halves: "Our theme this year is consistency, we are trying to get consistent and tonight is a great example of how we are not quite there yet. I thought the first half we played the game about as well as you can play basketball. You have to give Northwestern State credit, in the second half you could not even tell what the score was based on how hard they were playing. The coach was coaching until the end, and they gave us all we could handle in the second half and I think that is a great reflection of their character and their team and what they are about. I understand that it is hard to play with these big leads. You want to value patience, but you still want to attack. I know these games are hard but I think these players would be the first to tell you that there are a lot of things we have to do better."

(10-0) RED RAIDERS SHINE IN FINAL GAME AT LUBBOCK MUNICIPAL COLISEUM

LUBBOCK, Texas – Jarrett Culver scored a career-high 30 points after going 12-for-13 from the field to lead No. 11-ranked Texas Tech to an 82-48 win over Abilene Christian on Saturday in the final game ever at the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

The Red Raiders (10-0) are now unbeaten through 10 games to start a season for the second time in program history behind only a 12-0 start to the 1929-30 campaign and also extend their non-conference home winning streak to 45 games. TTU shot 55.6 percent from the field in the game and limited ACU (9-2) to 28.3 percent shooting after the Wildcats came into the game shooting 49.3 percent through their first 10 games.

Texas Tech will now face No. 2-ranked Duke on Thursday at Madison Square Garden in the first-ever matchup between the two programs. The Red Raiders and Blue Devils are scheduled to tip-off at 6 p.m. on ESPN2.

A Lubbock native playing in front of a sold-out Coliseum, Culver would add seven rebounds and four assists to his career-high 30 points. He had a previous career high of 26 earlier this season against Nebraska and last season as a freshman at West Virginia before going off for 30 against the Wildcats where he was 2-for-3 on 3-pointers. Culver is now averaging 19.1 points per game this season and has scored in double-digits in all 10 and led the team in scoring in nine.

"My teammates got me open a lot, set some good screens, had good passing and there was great space on the floor tonight so I got going early and didn't look back," Culver said.

Texas Tech had double-digit scorers for the second straight game with 10 players scoring at least a point in the 34-point win. Matt Mooney went for 14 points on a 6-for-10 shooting performance along with adding three steals and freshman Kyler Edwards had 10 points and five rebounds. Deshawn Corprew matched a career-high with eight rebounds and also had four points and two assists off the bench, while Tariq Owens added seven points and five rebounds and Davide Moretti contributed seven points and two assists.

Texas Tech took a 41-26 into halftime with Culver leading the way with 20 points on 8-for-9 shooting, while Mooney had eight. Culver's 20-point halftime was the first of his career and also included him going 4-for-5 from the free-throw line in the opening half. The Red Raiders were 14-for-27 from the field in the first half and limited the Wildcats to 37 percent. The Wildcats were 4-for-13 on 3-pointers at halftime.

"I just told the guys without watching the film I feel played a solid 33 to 34 minutes," Texas Tech head coach Chris Beard said. "We had a couple of stretches in the second half that just got away from us. When you get that lead there is a fine line that you want to play with some patience, but you also want to keep attacking. I give ACU a lot of credit. They are a great reflection of how coach Joe Golding was as a player and as a coach. He is a competitive guy. It was one of our better games. In order to win in the Big 12 we need to play the full 40 minutes."

The Red Raiders led by as many as 39 points in the game and has now won five games by 30 or more and all 10 of their games by double digits. Culver's performance was the first time a Red Raider has scored 30 points this season and the first since Keenan Evans went for 38 last season at Texas. He is the 45th player in program history to reach 30 points, with Dub Malaise topping the program with 13 games with 30 or more points and Will Flemons maintained the all-time Lubbock Municipal Coliseum record with 47 against Oral Roberts in 1993.

Texas Tech has now shot over 50 percent in four games and limited an opponent to under 30 percent in four this season. The Red Raiders continue to lead the nation by holding the opposition to 32.2 percent shooting and is now at 49.9 percent offensively. The team has held opponents to under 50 points in five games and three straight after holding ACU to 48, a season-low for them that was previously at 60.

Jalone Friday led the Wildcats with 12 points and seven rebounds, while Jaren Lewis had nine and Jaylen Franklin and Trey Lenox added eight each. The Wildcats had only eight turnovers in the game, but were unable to stay with the Red Raiders after going 5-for-21 on 3-pointers and 15-for-53 from the field. ACU will return to action on Friday when it plays at Southeastern Missouri State.

Coach Chris Beard - Quote

"I want to wish Abilene Christian the best this season. I think the best complement that I can give those guys is how focused our guys were tonight. We set this game up, in our opinion, as the best team that we have played in non-conference at home. No disrespect to the other opponents. This team was 9-1 for a reason. They got a veteran team. Joe Golding has done a great job with his team. We will be pulling for them the rest of the season. Our guys were dialed in. I think that they understood that Abilene Christian was coming here to beat us. Once again, I would like to thank our fans. Red Raider nation never disappoints. We had what appeared to be an almost sell out situation without the students in town. It is always humbling how our fans are good to us. Tonight was always about showing respect to the players and coaches that came before us. Last night I couldn't sleep because I was worried to death about Abilene Christian."

(10-1) RED RAIDERS FALL FALL TO DUKE IN MADISON SQUARE GARDEN SHOWDOWN

NEW YORK – No. 12/11-ranked Texas Tech led by two with six minutes remaining but would see No. 2 Duke finish the game on a 16-3 run and take a 69-58 win over the Red Raiders on Thursday at a Madison Square Garden sellout.

Jarrett Culver led the Red Raiders (10-1) with 25 points and also had four assists and six rebounds, while Norense Odiase had seven rebounds and seven points. Texas Tech led as many as seven in the second half and had a 55-53 lead on a layup by Matt Mooney before Duke went on its first run of 7-0 to take a 60-55 lead and then a 9-1 run to end the game.

"This says a lot about our team," Culver said. "We have a lot of fight and heart on our team, a lot of great players that want to be coached. We see what we can be. We're not there yet, but we're going to learn from [tonight] and try to reach our potential."

"I think that the best thing about tonight was that we have a locker room full of guys who were disappointed," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard added. "We expected to win the game. It's not arrogance, just a belief. We were right there. We get two wide-open 3s and two layups around the six or seven minute mark left in the game. I thought if we could've gotten those, the momentum would've swung a little bit. But, this is what Duke does. They just know how to win. We have a lot of respect for their program."

Culver, who finished with 25 points a game after recording a career-high 30 last Saturday, has now scored 20 or more points in five games and in double-figures in all 11. He was 9-for-21 for his game-high against the Blue Devils including hitting four 3-pointers. Culver drained his fourth 3 of the game and followed it with a dunk to give Texas Tech a 53-49 lead with 7:27 remaining and then had three free throws in the middle of the Blue Devil run.

"He's one of the best guys in college basketball," Beard said. "The secret is out. Jarrett Culver is a great player. And, what makes him really special is the kind of person he is, his character. He's the real deal. The guy is like an old school student of the game. He's in the film room more than anybody I've ever coached. He always wants to get better. He's that fine balance between confident and killer, but he's also the nicest guy in the world. He's going to kill you in one-on-one at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday then he's going to help you go to church at 11:15. He's special."

Texas Tech led 29-28 at halftime after trailing 8-0 to start the game where it stormed back on a Culver dunk, Mooney 3-pointer, Culver 3-pointer and an Odiase putback to take a 12-10 lead eight minutes into the half. The Red Raiders lead by as many as seven points in the half when Culver made a jumper to give them a 21-14 lead and then again on a Culver 3-pointer for a 24-17 lead. Duke would tie the game on a Williamson dunk with 4:34 remaining before Culver made another layup and Owens hit a free throw.

Mooney finished the game with seven points, five rebounds and two steals, while Tariq Owens and Kyler Edwards had six points each. Edwards was 3-for-6 shooting on the night to lead the bench for the Red Raiders who would finish the game shooting 44.0 percent but with a season-high 24 turnovers.

"We just had a lot of uncharacteristic, unforced turnovers," Beard said. "So that's the stuff we have to clean up. We knew it was not going to be a perfect game and we allowed ourselves ten to fifteen turnovers including blocked shots to be in the game. I think our formula turned out to be right. We turned it over two dozen times—never had a team do that. But, give Duke credit."

Zion Williamson led the Blue Devils with 17 points and 13 rebounds for the double-double, while RJ Barrett had 16 points and six assists. Williamson would foul out of the game, but also got to the free-throw line throughout the game where he went 9-for-10. Tre Jones added 13 points and Cam Reddish had six assists. The Blue Devils did not make a 3-pointer in the first half but would go 4-for-7 from beyond the arc in the second half including two from Jack White who finished with eight points.

Culver led the Red Raiders with 14 points and four rebounds in the first half after shooting 6-for-9 from the field with two 3-pointers. Mooney had five in the opening half, while Edwards and Owens had four rebounds each. Texas Tech was shooting 44 percent in the first half after making 11 of its first 25 shots, including knocking down two 3-pointers.

Duke, which was held to 0-for-10 shooting on 3-pointers, trailed at halftime for only the second time this season and was limited to a first-half low by the Red Raider defense. The Blue Devils were 12-for-35 from the field with four dunks. Williamson led the Blue Devils with 11 points and six rebounds, while Jones and Barrett had six points each. The Red Raiders, who led despite having 18 first-half turnovers, owned the halftime lead for the ninth time in 11 games.

(11-1) RED RAIDERS STIFLE VAQUEROS FOR 46TH STRAIGHT NON-CONFERENCE HOME WIN

LUBBOCK, Texas – Deshawn Corprew recorded a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds and Jarrett Culver went for 19 points to help lead No. 11/13-ranked Texas Tech to a 71-46 win over The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley on Friday at the United Supermarkets Arena.

The Red Raiders (11-1) extended a 46-game non-conference home winning streak with the 25-point victory where they limited an opponent under 50 and 32 percent shooting for the sixth time this season. TTU, which is 11-1 after 12 games for the fourth straight season, finished off the 2018 calendar year with a 26-10 record and will open Big 12 play next week when it travels to play West Virginia (7-4) at 6 p.m. (CST) on Wednesday at the WVU Coliseum in Morgantown, West Virginia.

"This was a good game to prepare us for West Virginia," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "In our non-conference we try to play people that prepare us. When this game came up, we knew how big of an opportunity it would be for us. We always want to play against well coached teams because it exposes and tests you. This game was a good game for us and I was pleased to win."

Texas Tech finished the game shooting 53.8 percent from the field with four 3-pointers, while UTRGV was held to 32.7 percent for the game after the Red Raider defense locked down and held them to 4-for-23 shooting (17.4 percent) and 15 points in the second half. TTU improved to 8-0 at home with the win while the Vaqueros fell to 8-7 overall on the season with the loss.

Corprew established a new career-high with his 10 rebounds and matched his scoring high after going 6-for-8 from the field. A sophomore who transferred in this season from South Plains College, Corprew made his first career start and would also add three steals for the Red Raiders. Averaging 7.4 points and 4.9 rebounds per game, Corprew had two games with eight rebounds prior to Friday's win over the Vaqueros and now has five double-digit scoring performances this season with 13 also coming against Northern Colorado.

"I feel very comfortable on the court now," Corprew said. "Every day I tell myself to just go out there and work hard and play hard and do my role. I think I'm still doing the same thing that I'm supposed to do when I go out there every night and just play aggressive and basically just play my role."

Culver would score in double-figures for the 12th straight game to start the season after shooting 8-for-13 from the field, while Matt Mooney led the team with six assists and would also add eight points, four rebounds and two steals. Tariq Owens scored eight of his 10 points in the second half and Brandone Francis led the reserves with eight points in the game that all came in the second half. Francis was 4-for-5 from the field in the second half and also contributed three rebounds. Kyler Edwards would score seven and Malik Ondigo added four rebounds for the Red Raiders who have now won six games by 25 points or more this season.

Corprew's double-double was the second of the season for a Red Raider after Owens had the first with 13 points and 11 rebounds in the win over Memphis on Dec. 1 in Miami.

Terry Winn III led UTRGV with 17 points after going 7-for-14 from the field in the game, while Lesley Varner II and Greg Bowie II scored eight each. The Vaqueros would commit 19 turnovers in the game and were outrebounded by a 34-22 margin.

Texas Tech led 38-31 at halftime after shooting 14-for-28 from the field in the opening 20 minutes led by Culver who had 11 points on a 5-for-9 shooting performance. The Red Raiders, who hit four 3-pointers in the half, led by as many as 11 in the opening half but did trail for 3:18 in it. The team owned the lead at halftime for the 10th time in 12 games this season and had a 17-9 rebounding margin advantage. Mooney added eight points and two assists for the Red Raiders, while Corprew led the team with four rebounds and had seven points. The Vaqueros stayed with TTU by shooting 46.2 percent and forcing eight turnovers in the opening half before the Red Raiders pulled away in the second half.

Texas Tech will return from its game against WVU next Wednesday to host Kansas State on Saturday, Jan. 5, 2019 at 1 p.m. and Oklahoma on Tuesday, Jan. 8, 2019 at the United Supermarkets Arena. The Red Raiders, who are currently 11-1 in non-conference play, will host Arkansas on Saturday, Jan. 26, 2019 in their final non-conference game of the regular season after playing seven Big 12 games.

QUOTES
Texas Tech coach Chris Beard

On preparation for West Virginia:
"This was a good game to prepare us for West Virginia. Mark Adams says he did it on purpose, but I am not sure if I'll buy that. It did turn out to be good. It helped us work on fast breaks and press breakers. This transitions us into the West Virginia game. In our nonconference we try to play people that prepare us. When this game came up, we knew how big of an opportunity it would be for us. We always want to play against well coached teams because it exposes and tests you. This game was a good game for us and I was pleased to win."

(12-1) RED RAIDERS RALLY FOR BIG 12-OPENING WIN AT WEST VIRGINIA

MORGANTOWN, WV – No. 11 Texas Tech earned its first-ever win at West Virginia with a 62-59 victory over the Mountaineers in its Big 12 opener on Wednesday at the WVU Coliseum.

The Red Raiders (12-1, 1-0 Big 12) were 0-6 all-time in Morgantown coming into the game and was limited to 20 points in the first half before making a comeback and earning the win over the Mountaineers (8-5, 0-1 Big 12).

"I'm just really happy for our players," Texas Tech head coach Chris Beard said. "The Big 12 is like an 18-round fight, so our objective is just to give ourselves a chance every night, and I thought our guys did. Obviously, they outrebounded us and got to the free-throw line. I think we won the game with our ball-handling. We only had three turnovers in the second half. We made them turn it over a little bit more than normal, and then we took care of the ball in the second half. I thought that's where the basketball game was won or lost. I'm just happy for our players. The main reason is that nobody respects West Virginia basketball or Coach (Bob) Huggins more than I do and more than we do."

Jarrett Culver scored all of his team-leading 18 points in the second half after shooting 6-for-8 from the field and 6-for-6 at the free-throw line. Davide Moretti added 14 points, including a 3-pointer to give the Red Raiders a 55-54 lead with 2:09 remaining before Culver made a jumper and four free throws to secure the road victory to open conference play.

West Virginia led 22-14 with 3:33 remaining in the first half before the Red Raiders went on a 17-0 run that spanned nearly seven minutes and with the Red Raiders leading 31-22. The game would tighten and was at 37-31 on a dunk by Culver before WVU regained the lead at 44-43 on a Lamont West 3-pointer with eight minutes remaining. The lead was exchanged four times before Moretti drilled a 3-pointer to give the Red Raiders the one-point lead that would only grow with Culver's jumper, four free throws and then one more free throw by Moretti with three seconds remaining to leave Morgantown with a three-point lead.

Matt Mooney went for 14 points after knocking down five shots from the field and four from the free-throw line, while Moretti finished with 12 after hitting two 3-pointers. Brandone Francis scored eight for the second straight game and also added four rebounds and Norense Odiase and Tariq Owens each had four points. Odiase tied the game at 48 off an assist from Culver who led the team with two assists. Culver has now scored in double-digits in all 13 games and has led the team in scoring in 12. He's averaging 19.5 points for the season and scored his 18 points in only 22 minutes against WVU after falling into early foul trouble.

Texas Tech finished the game shooting 21-for-55 (38.2 percent) while West Virginia shot 41.9 percent from the field and was limited to 5-for-19 on 3-pointers. The Red Raiders were 17-for-24 from the free-throw line and the Mountaineers were at 18-for-32 in a game were Owens, Odiase and Kyler Edwards each fouled out and Culver had four fouls.

Texas Tech would end the first half on a 6-0 run as the game went to halftime with the Red Raiders trailing 22-20 but with the momentum in a game where they trailed by as many as nine. Mooney led TTU with seven points in the first half, while Owens had four rebounds and Odiase had two blocks. The Red Raiders were limited to 7-for-24 shooting in the first half, including going 0-for-6 on 3-pointers.

West Virginia had a 21-12 lead with four minutes remaining in the half before an 8-1 run by TTU closed out the half. The Red Raiders would cut into the deficit with Odiase hitting a pair of free throws followed by layups from Corprew and Francis. TTU would pull to within three on a steal and one free throw by Francis with 2:40 on the clock before the final point of the half was scored by Mooney who hit one of two free throws. Mooney helped the Red Raiders stay in the game early by hitting a jumper to stop a 7-0 run by the Mountaineers and cut the deficit to 10-8 with 11:25 remaining in the first half. WVU, which held the Red Raiders to their lowest scoring half of the season, controlled most of the half before missing their final four shots and only taking a two point lead into the break.

"What happened was we're playing against a Hall of Fame coach with really good players and a really good defense," Beard said. "They face-guarded Jarrett (Culver) a lot. I thought he had great composure in the second half. He looked like a veteran out there. We had some other guys like (David) Moretti to my left here, with a no-turnover game. He hit some big timely shots. I think any problems that we had with our offense tonight was because West Virginia is a really good defensive team."

(13-1) FAST START, STRONG FINISH LEADS RED RAIDERS TO WIN OVER WILDCATS AT HOME

LUBBOCK, Texas – A sold-out United Supermarkets Arena crowd saw No. 11-ranked Texas Tech jump out to a 14-0 lead to start the game and earn a 63-57 win over Kansas State on Saturday to improve to 2-0 in Big 12 play and 9-0 at home this season.

The Red Raiders (13-1, 2-0 Big 12) held the Wildcats (10-4, 0-2 Big 12) to an 0-for-13 shooting performance to begin the game with their first basket not coming until the 9:12 mark of the first half. TTU led 17-3 eight minutes into the game and by as many as 16 in the first half before the game tightened in the second half. The Wildcats would pull to within one point with 6:56 remaining in the game before Davide Moretti took over with a 3-pointer and layup to push the lead back to six. KSU would never get back into the game with the Red Raiders making 10 of 12 free throws down the stretch.

"I thought we showed grit," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "We weren't playing our best at one point, but we hung in there. We just held on, and that's a good thing in the game of basketball. If you can hold that threshold you're doing good. A college basketball game is 10 four-minute games. Tonight we won the game in the first half. Our defense was locked in. We basically won the first game during the first half and made enough plays late to survive. This is what the Big 12 is. I would love to come out here and play well for 38 minutes but that's not the reality of this league."

Texas Tech, which opened Big 12 play with a win 62-59 road win at West Virginia, will return to action at 8 p.m. on Tuesday when it hosts Oklahoma at the USA. The Sooners will be coming off a 74-64 win over Oklahoma State on Saturday and are currently 12-2 on the season and 1-1 in conference play after beginning the week with a 70-63 loss at Kansas. The Red Raiders continue leading the nation by limiting teams to 33.4 percent shooting and is second by holding teams to 53.1 points per game.

Moretti led the Red Raiders with a career-high 19 points after going 7-for-11 from the field with three 3-pointers and two free throws. A sophomore from Italy, Moretti had previously scored 17 points in wins over Mississippi Valley State and Southern Cal this season and came into the game on Saturday averaging 8.7 points per game. His game was highlighted by his 19 points, but it also included an impressive steal with 1:34 remaining where he dove for a loose ball and with four rebounds. He'd finish with two assists and two steals in a game where he also fouled out in the final minute.

"I tried to attack the basket and get fouled," Moretti said. "With every play I just tried to be more aggressive. Some stats I played good. I had way too many turnovers and too many stupid fouls. Those are the things I need to clean up. I have to work on turnovers. My teammates need me to work on that."

Matt Mooney added 14 points, including a 3-pointer to start the 14-0 run, and also had four rebounds and a steal in the win. Jarrett Culver, Kyler Edwards and Tariq Owens each had nine points and Deshawn Corprew hit one 3-pointer. The Red Raiders finished the game shooting 44.7 percent from the field, including hitting six 3-pointers. Moretti led the team with his three 3s, while Mooney, Corprew and Edwards each added one. Culver's nine points were the first time this season that he has not scored in double-digits and came with him struggling from the field at 2-for-7 and going 5-for-10 at the free-throw line. He's now shooting 56 percent from the field and leads the Red Raiders with 18.7 points per game this season.

Texas Tech owned a 34-19 lead at halftime after limiting the Wildcats to 23.1 percent shooting and 0-for-9 on 3-pointers. Moretti led the Red Raiders with nine points and also had four rebounds and two assists at half, while Edwards had seven and Owens six. TTU was 11-for-25 (44 percent) from the field and hit four 3-pointers to take the 15-point halftime lead.

Barry Brown led Kansas State with 16 points and three steals, while Cartier Diarra added 11 and Makol Mawien recorded a double-double with 10 points and 11 rebounds. The Wildcats, who host West Virginia on Wednesday, were limited to 33.3 percent shooting by the nation's top defensive team. KSU would finish the game 4-for-23 on 3-pointers (17.4 percent) and had a 33-32 rebounding margin advantage with 13 offensive rebounds coming on their misses.

QUICK NOTES

The Red Raiders are now 42-4 on their home court under Beard.
Texas Tech improved 4-1 against KSU with Beard as head coach
Kansas State now leads the all-time series 23-16
TTU is now 12-7 against KSU in Lubbock
TTU has now won three straight against the Wildcats
The two teams will play again on Tuesday, Jan. 22 in Manhattan,

POSTGAME QUOTE

On protecting the home court after a big win against West Virginia:
"The first thing we set out to do today was protect the home court. For our fans, we tried to play aggressive. We tried to play hard defense and be tough every single possession. Our first objective this game was to protect the home court."

(14-1) RED RAIDERS LOCK SOONERS DOWN IN SECOND HALF TO MOVE TO 3-0 IN BIG 12 PLAY

LUBBOCK, Texas – Texas Tech senior Brandone Francis provided the spark and sophomore Jarrett Culver took over to lead the No. 8 Red Raiders to a 66-59 win over No. 23 Oklahoma on Tuesday at the United Supermarkets Arena.

The Red Raiders (14-1, 3-0 Big 12) finished the game on a 15-8 run with Culver scoring nine during it to pull away after the game was tied at 51 with five minutes to play. TTU, which trailed by four at halftime, improved to 10-0 at home with the win and is 3-0 to start conference play for the second straight season under head coach Chris Beard who improved to 43-4 at home leading the Red Raiders.

Texas Tech finished the game shooting 17-for-17 from the free-throw line and its national-leading defense held Oklahoma (12-3, 1-2 Big 12) to only 32.3 shooting. The Red Raiders are now limiting teams to only 33.3 percent shooting through 15 games and also lead the Big 12 with a 19.5 scoring margin and holding opponents to 53.5 points per game. TTU, which plays at Texas at 1 p.m. on Saturday in Austin, has now held all three conference opponents under 60 points and have not allowed any of its opponents to score over 70 this season. The Longhorns (10-5, 2-1 Big 12) will be coming off a 61-58 loss at Oklahoma State, but have won 22 straight over the Red Raiders in Austin dating back to TTU's last win there on Feb. 24, 1996.

"It's an 18-round fight and we're excited to win round three against a team that we have nothing but respect for," Beard said. "I've said it all week in preparation and I'll stand by it, Oklahoma is going to be a part of the fight for the conference championship. I'm just really happy for our players tonight because I think we just beat a really good team."

Culver recorded his first double-double of the season and third of his career after going for 23 points and 13 rebounds. The Lubbock native also had double-doubles last season against West Virginia and Texas in conference play as a freshman and would drop 23/13 on the Sooners with 11 points and nine rebounds coming in the second half. With the game tied, Culver made back-to-back layups for a 55-51 lead with 3:37 remaining, a lead Texas Tech wouldn't relinquish.

Oklahoma led by as many as eight points in the game and had a five point lead with 13 minutes remaining before Francis drilled a 3-pointer to cut it to two. Francis would get a defense rebound on the next possession, hit two free throws on the next to tie the game at 46 and three possessions later hit his second 3-pointer to give the Red Raiders a 51-48 lead. He finished the game with eight points after being held scoreless last Saturday against Kansas State.

Davide Moretti added 12 points after hitting two 3-pointers and four free throws a game after recording a career-high 19 points against KSU. Moretti is now averaging 14.3 points per game through three conference games with seven 3-pointers to lead the Red Raiders. Tariq Owens would add four blocks and six rebounds, while Matt Mooney had seven points and two assists. Owens now has 38 blocks and has had four or more blocks in three games. He's averaging 2.5 per game which ranks second behind on Jaxson Hayes who is averaging 2.6 for the Longhorns. The Red Raiders finished with eight blocks for the second straight game, including one each from Norense Odiase, Kyler Edwards, Francis and Corprew to go along with four from Owens.

Texas Tech finished the game shooting 44.9 percent from the field despite going only 5-for-19 on 3-pointers, while the defense forced 14 turnovers and held them to 20-for-62 shooting. OU was 9-for-29 on 3-pointers in the game led by Christian James who had three and finished with a team-high 14 points. Brady Manek would also hit three 3-pointers and had 13 points and seven rebounds for the Sooners who finished the game shooting 10-for-14 from the free-throw line.

Texas Tech trailed 35-31 at halftime after starting the game hot with an 8-0 run but seeing Oklahoma storm back late in the half with a 9-0 run that gave the Sooners a 27-23 lead. Moretti came out with two 3-pointers followed by an assist to Norense Odiase for a dunk to grab the early 8-0 lead in the game. The Sooners had a 24-15 rebounding advantage, including a 10-1 margin on the offensive end to take the four-point lead. OU led 30-25 on a Christian James 3-pointer with 4:32 remaining in the half before Culver hit a pair of free throws and a jumper for the final four points of the half. Culver's jumper came with two seconds remaining and gave him 12 points and 4-for-7 shooting in the first half. Culver was 4-for-4 at the free-throw line for the Red Raiders who were 6-for-6 at halftime and also had six points from Moretti. James led OU at halftime with nine points, while Doolittle and Manek had seven points each.

The Red Raiders, who trailed for only the fourth time this season at halftime, were shooting 11-for-28 from the field (39.3 percent) in the first half while the Sooners were 12-for-36 (33.3). OU was 5-for-14 on 3-pointers and also 6-for-6 on free throws against TTU which started the game 3-for-13 on 3-pointers.

"The first half they were beating us on rebounds, and I believe we beat them on rebounds in the second half," Culver said. "Coach knows that rebounding would be tough and boxing out and that's what we tried to do. We fought to the end and played to the bone."

(15-1) RED RAIDERS END LOSING STREAK IN AUSTIN; IMPROVE TO 4-0 IN BIG 12 PLAY

AUSTIN – You have to go back to the final year of the Southwest Conference to find the last time Texas Tech accomplished what it did on Saturday – win at the Frank Erwin Center.

Matt Mooney scored a season-high 22 points and Jarrett Culver went for 14 points and nine rebounds to lead the No. 8 Red Raiders to a 68-62 win over Texas for the first win in Austin since Feb. 24, 1996. In historic terms, Texas Tech ended a stretch of 22 straight Big 12 road losses to the Longhorns on their home court and for only the second time in program improved to 4-0 in Big 12 play (2003-04) and has only one loss through 16 games (1995-96). TTU also improved to 5-0 overall this season and 3-0 in conference play when trailing at halftime and is now 2-0 on the road in conference play.

"The main reason I'm happy for our guys is because I think we just beat a really good team that is going to be a part of the fight," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "I thought our guys played with a lot of poise. We didn't feel like we were playing our best in the first half and made some adjustments at halftime. We had four guys in double figures, had a low-turnover game and competed on the boards. That's how I think we won a close game."

The Red Raiders (15-1, 4-0 Big 12) finished the game shooting 44.4 percent from the field with five second-half 3-pointers and were 13-for-17 at the free throw line. TTU, which is now 4-3 against Texas under Beard, was 7-for-8 from the line down the stretch, including two by Brandone Francis, Mooney and Tariq Owens to secure the win over the Longhorns (10-6, 2-2 Big 12). Texas was 23-for-57 from the field and was only the third team this season to shoot over 40 percent against the Red Raider defense which is now holding teams to 33.8 percent shooting for the season.

"We are a defensive team," Beard said. "That's our identity. Teams like Texas make it look like you can't play defense from time to time. I thought our guys were dialed in for most of the game. We big block out and good rotation and close-outs."

Mooney finished the game shooting 8-for-10 from the field, including going 3-for-3 on 3-pointers and with 14 of his 22 coming in the second half. He had a previous season-high of 17 earlier this year against Southern Cal and is now 11.4 points per game in his first season at Texas Tech. He would add five rebounds, two assists and two steals. Tariq Owens had four blocked shots for the second straight game and now has 13 blocks through four Big 12 games. Owens added 12 points on a 4-for-5 shooting night while Davide Moretti buried three 3-pointers and finished with 13 points. Norense Odiase secured eight rebounds, including a team-high four on the offensive side of the court. Culver, who has now scored in double figures in 15 of 16 games, recorded six assists for the third time this season and was one rebound away from his second straight double-double after he went for 23 points and 13 rebounds in the win over No. 23 Oklahoma on Tuesday.

"I knew someone was going to have to step up and I had some open looks and I was able to knock them down," Mooney said. "We had to get it going offensively with only 26 points at half."

Texas Tech led 55-48 after an Odiase dunk that followed a Moretti 3-pointer and a Culver jumper. The 7-0 run by the Red Raiders gave them their biggest advantage of the game after leading 48-43 with 10 minutes remaining on an Owens dunk after two straight baskets by Mooney. The Red Raiders went on a previous 7-0 that was capped with a Owens dunk that came after a Mooney layup and a four-point play by Moretti who was fouled on a 3-pointer and then made the free throw. The run gave TTU a 40-35 lead five minutes into the half after being down four at halftime. Mooney gave the Red Raiders an immediate spark in the second half by hitting two 3-pointers to open half to give the Red Raiders a 32-30 lead.

Texas Tech trailed 30-26 at halftime after shooting 10-for-28 from the field and only 2-for-5 on 3-pointers. Mooney led the team with eight points and three rebounds at the half, while Culver, Owens and Moretti each had six for the Red Raiders. Mooney was 3-for-5 from the field with one 3-pointers and Owens had three first-half blocks. TTU started game 2-for-10, but led 4-2 at first media timeout with Texas starting 1-for-5. A 9-0 run by the Longhorns had them leading 16-11 before two free throws and a dunk by Owens followed by a Moretti jumper to give the Red Raiders a 19-18 lead. Mooney would hit his 3-pointer to give the Red Raiders a 23-21 lead with 3:23 remaining and Moretti hit his to tie it at 26. The Longhorns closed the half on a 4-0 run with two free throws and a layup.

Kerwin Roach II led the Longhorns with 17 points and also added five assists, while Jaxson Hayes had 15 points and five rebounds. Dylan Osetkowski provided nine rebounds and Jase Febres had 12 to lead the UT bench. The Longhorns shot 40.4 percent from the field and were 7-for-20 on 3-pointers against the TTU defense.

Texas Tech will now host No. 20 Iowa State at 8 p.m. on Wednesday at the United Supermarkets Arena before playing at Baylor next Saturday. The Red Raiders are currently 10-0 at home this season, 1-0 in Big 12 play at home after the win over Oklahoma and are 43-4 at home under Beard. The Cyclones (12-4, 2-2 Big 12) are coming off a 73-70 loss at Baylor on Tuesday and a 58-57 loss to Kansas State on Saturday.

(15-2) CYCLONES HAND RED RAIDERS ONLY BIG 12, HOME LOSS OF SEASON ON WEDNESDAY

LUBBOCK, Texas – Texas Tech's run came, but so did Iowa State's response.

The No. 8 Red Raiders were down by as many as 10 before storming back to tie the game at 61 with two minutes remaining only to see the Cyclones answer with two quick baskets that propelled them to a 68-64 win on Wednesday at a sold-out United Supermarkets Arena. TTU (15-2, 4-1 Big 12) fell to 10-1 on its home court this season and dropped its first conference game after going 6-for-15 from the free-throw line, while ISU (13-4, 3-2 Big 12) was 13-for-19 at the line.

Texas Tech will return to action at 5 p.m. on Saturday against Baylor in Waco. The Bears (10-6, 2-2 Big 12) are coming off a 73-69 win over Oklahoma State on Monday and are 7-3 at the Ferrell Center this season.

Iowa State shot 43.9 percent from the field which was the second-best from an opponent against Texas Tech this season and went the entire first half without a committing a turnover. The two teams would both finish the game with nine turnovers in a game that came down to the free throw difference. TTU, which trailed 41-33 at halftime, is now 5-1 in games where it was down at halftime.

"I want to congratulate Iowa State. They played hard and well," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "I told the guys all week in preparation I thought this was one of the best teams in the Big 12 and I will stand by that. You don't beat Kansas by 20 points if you are not really good. They had a game plan and executed and really won the game in the first half. I give our guys some credit in the second half for just coming back and playing with a lot of guts and grit. Really that half time deficit was too much to overcome."

Jarrett Culver recorded his second double-double of the season after going for 20 points and 16 rebounds with his final points coming on a layup with nine seconds remaining to make it a two-point game. The Red Raiders were forced to foul and saw Marial Shayok hit two free throws for his 19th and 20th points that would also be the final margin. Culver's 16 rebounds were a career high and matched the most for a TTU play since Brad Reese had 16 back on Dec. 22, 2010 against UT Arlington. He had 10 points and eight rebounds in the second half, but struggled at the free-throw line where he was 5-for-10.

Davide Moretti added 10 points with two 3-pointers, while Kyler Edwards had nine and Brandone Francis six to lead the reserves. Matt Mooney, who was coming off a season-high 22 last Saturday against Texas, had eight and Tariq Owens finished the game with seven points and three blocks. Norense Odiase pulled down five rebounds and scored four, while freshman Khavon Moore made his Texas Tech debut where he played two minutes after coming onto the court to a loud ovation from the crowd.

Culver is now averaging 18.8 points and 6.9 rebounds per game, has recorded eight games with 20 or more points and now has two double-digit rebounding performances after his previous career-high of 13 last Tuesday against Oklahoma. His 16 rebounds are the third most by a Red Raider in Big 12 play with Devonne Giles (2004) and Cliff Owens (1998) having 18-rebound performances.

Down eight at halftime, Francis would give the Red Raiders a second-half spark with two early 3-pointers that cut the deficit to seven before a Culver jumper made it a three-point game just five minutes into the second half. ISU continued having answers to thwart Tech runs until the four minute mark when the Red Raider rallied with a 7-0 run that started with three Culver free throws, a Mooney layup and then a Culver layup to tie the game at 61-61 with 1:50 on the clock.

Nick Weiler-Babb would end the run with a jumper and was followed by a Lindell Wigginton layup that gave the Cyclones a four-point lead with a minute to play. Shyok led ISU with 20 points and six rebounds, while Michael Jacobson recorded a double-double with 14 points and 10 rebounds. Weiler-Babb went for 11 points and Wigginton led the Cyclone reserves with 11 points and six rebounds.

Texas Tech trailed at halftime for the sixth time this season with the 41-33 margin and for the third straight game. Culver led the Red Raiders with 10 points and eight rebounds, while Moretti had seven and Owens, Mooney, Odiase and Edwards each had four points. The Red Raiders were 15-for-32 from the field, but were only 2-for-10 on 3-pointers while the Cyclones shot 45.2 percent and knocked down four 3-pointers and nine free throws.

Shayok led the Cyclones at halftime with 15 points after going 5-for-7 from the field with three 3-pointers, while Jacobson had eight and Wigginton and Horton-Tucker six. ISU was 9-for-12 at the free-throw line at halftime and TTU was only 1-for-2. The Red Raiders started the game 3-for-8 from the field, while the Cyclones were also struggling with a 2-for-8 start from the field.

(15-3) RED RAIDERS TAKE SECOND STRAIGHT LOSS WITH 11-POINT DEFEAT AT BAYLOR

WACO, Texas – No. 8-ranked Texas Tech committed 17 turnovers and saw Baylor hit 11 3-pointers as the Red Raiders fell 73-62 in Big 12 Conference play on Saturday at the Ferrell Center.

Texas Tech (15-3, 4-2 Big 12) led by as many as 13 in the first half, but lost for the second straight game for the first time this season after starting the week with a loss to Iowa State. Baylor (11-6, 3-2 Big 12) has now won two in a row after going on the road and knocking off Oklahoma State on Monday and improved to 8-3 at home with the win. The 11 3-pointers by the Bears were the most by a TTU opponent this season.

"We had too many turnovers," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "It was like we were just going down the court and handing the ball over to Baylor. Today they beat us with the 3-point shot, we turned the ball over too much and they out-rebounded us. You just can't hand the ball to the other team 17 times and expect to win on the road against a really good coach and a really good team."

The Red Raiders will now play at Kansas State at 6 p.m. on Tuesday before returning home to host Arkansas at 5 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 26 at the United Supermarkets Arena. TTU earned a 63-57 win over the Wildcats in the first meeting between the two teams on Jan. 5 in Lubbock, but KSU has now won four straight after 65-55 win over TCU on Saturday.

Jarrett Culver led the Red Raiders with 19 points, nine rebounds and five assists in the game, while Brandone Francis scored a season-high 14 points after hitting three 3-pointers in the second half and also making three free throws. Davide Moretti scored in double-figures for the sixth straight conference game with 13 points, including going 6-for-7 at the free-throw line and Tariq Owens provided eight points and six rebounds. Culver, who had three steals but also seven turnovers, would score the last nine points of the game for the Red Raiders and is now averaging 17.2 points and 10.0 rebounds per game in Big 12 play this season.

Texas Tech finished the game shooting 46.7 percent from the field and was 15-for-19 at the free-throw line, but struggled with possession with 17 turnovers and stopping the Bears from beyond the arc. Baylor finished the game 11-for-29 on 3-pointers, including Makai Mason going 4-for-7 for 16 points and King McClure and Jared Butler hitting two each. Butler led the Bears with 19 points and also had five assists, while Mark Vital led the team with eight rebounds to go along with five assists and six points.

Texas Tech made a 11-0 run to cut it to 55-53 with six minutes after Francis converted an and-one after a 3-pointer for a quick six points to get as close as it would to making a second-half comeback. Baylor responded though with Butler hitting a 3-pointer, the 11th of the game for the Bears, and then a jumper to take a 60-53 lead with 3:46 remaining. Culver would hit a 3-pointer and a tough shot in the lane to cut it to 63-58 with two minutes to play. He'd answer a Baylor basket with another layup, but the Bears would continue hitting free throws with Makai Mason and Freddie Gillespie both going 4-for-4 at the line in the final two minutes. BU was 14-for-16 at the free-throw line in the second half, while TTU went 5-for-7.

"We are just going to continue to fight and scrap," Beard said. "These games are tough to win. Today I'm just disappointed. I thought we beat ourselves in a lot of ways."

Baylor started the second half on a 6-0 to take an eight-point lead before Culver made the first Red Raider basket of the half. The Bears started the second half shooting 3-for-4 from the field three minutes in and were 2-for-2 at the free-throw line after not getting there for the first 20 minutes. Texas Tech trailed 50-42 with 11 minutes remaining after a McClure 3-pointer that gave the Bears 10 3s for the game. Baylor was on another run, this time 8-0, before Moretti was fouled shooting a 3-pointer and made all three to cut the deficit to 55-45 with eight minutes to play.

Texas Tech trailed 33-31 after leading by as many as 13 in the first half against Baylor which made its comeback by hitting seven 3-pointers and closing the half on a 9-2 run. Moretti led the Red Raiders with eight points in the opening half, while Culver had six points, four assists, four rebounds and three steals. TTU was 9-for-21 from the field with three 3-pointers and Baylor was 13-for-34 with its seven 3-pointers. The Red Raiders were 10-for-12 from the free-throw line but had eight turnovers, while Baylor did not take a free throw in the first 20 minutes of play but led two fewer turnovers and four more 3-pointers.

Francis finished the first half with seven points, including two straight 3-pointers to give the Red Raiders a 19-7 that capped 13-3 run. Texas Tech started the game shooting 7-for-9 from the field and led 19-10 eight minutes with Baylor shooting 4-for-13. Mason was leading BU at halftime with nine points after going 3-for-4 on 3-pointers, while McClure had eight on two 3s.

Texas Tech and Baylor will play again on Saturday, Feb. 16 at the United Supermarkets Arena.

(15-4) RED RAIDERS GO COLD IN MANHATTAN

MANHATTAN, Kan. – Kansas State earned a 58-45 Big 12 Conference win over No. 14 Texas Tech on Tuesday after shooting 46.3 percent from the field and limiting the Red Raiders to a season-low 32.7 percent at the Bramlage Coliseum.

The Red Raiders (15-4, 4-3 Big 12) won the first matchup against the Wildcats by a 63-57 margin on Jan. 5 in Lubbock, but have now lost three in a row with KSU (15-4, 5-2) shooting the highest percentage an opponent has this season against them. The Wildcats have won five in a row since dropping the decision at TTU.

Jarrett Culver led the Red Raiders with 17 points, seven rebounds and five steals, while Tariq Owens added 12 points with two 3-pointers. Davide Moretti also had two 3-pointers and finished with six and five players scored two points each. Texas Tech finished the game shooting 16-for-49 from the field and were only 5-for-23 on 3-pointers. KSU was 19-for-41 from the field and also went 15-for-22 from the free-throw line as it improved to 10-1 at home.

"First of all it is about K-State's defense," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "One team this year has broken 70 on them. We knew it was going to be a difficult game to score so we set up a game plan. We have to score on different levels to play against teams like this. You have to get some points off your fast break and we had very few. We had to get points off our secondary break. We had very few. You have to score points off your defense and we had a few in the first half. I thought our guys were dialed in and played really hard in the first half. We just did not make enough shots."

Barry Brown led KSU with 15 points and seven rebounds, while Dean Wade had 13 points.

Texas Tech trailed by eight at halftime and wouldn't be able to cut the deficit to under six throughout the second half. A Moretti 3-pointer made it 51-43, but besides a Culver layup with 30 seconds remaining that was all the Red Raiders were able to score against the Wildcats. TTU would go 8-for-25 (32 percent) in the second half and were only 2-for-3 at the free-throw line in the second half.

Moretti had also stopped a 7-0 run by KSU by hitting a 3-pointer with 10 minutes to play followed by two Culver free throws to cut the deficit to eight at the 9:35 mark. That margin stuck until KSU's Dean Wade hit two free throws with 6:42 to play for a 48-38 game followed by a Stokes 3-pointer. Matt Mooney would respond for the Red Raiders with his first basket of the game and the first Red Raider points in four minutes to make it 51-40 with 5:37 but the team was unable to continue momentum.

Down eight at halftime, the Red Raiders stayed in the game early in the second half with Culver making a pair of jumpers and Owens hitting his second 3-pointer of the game to make it 39-33 with 16 minutes to play. The Wildcats would push it to nine though with Mike McGuirl hitting a 3-pointer and then had a 44-33 lead on a Barry Brown layup with 11:06 on the clock. The Red Raiders were 4-for-10 from the field with three turnovers in the opening nine minutes of the second half before Moretti's 3-pointer stopped KSU's run and made it 46-36 with 10 minutes to play.

Texas Tech trailed 32-24 at halftime after being limited to 8-for-24 shooting (33.3 percent) from the field and going 2-for-9 on 3-pointers. Culver led the Red Raiders with nine points and five rebounds in the half, while Owens had seven points and Corprew added three rebounds. Owens, who came off the bench for the first time this season, scored seven of the first 11 points for the Red Raiders in the game. Brown led Kansas State with 11 points and three rebounds in the opening half where the Wildcats were 12-for-22 from the field and had a 15-11 rebounding advantage.

"They made shots," Beard said. "They were very aggressive, they got to the free throw line and late in the game when we were trying to come back from a deficit they got good looks. If you look at the first 32 minutes or so we played okay defense. K-State was really hitting shots tonight."

Kansas State started the contest on a 7-2 run with the Red Raiders committing three turnovers and going 1-for-5 from the field. TTU stopped that run coming out of a timeout with Mooney lobbing a pass up to Owens for a dunk followed by Owens hitting his third 3-pointer of the season to tie the game. The Red Raiders were on a 7-0 run of their own with a pair of Francis free throws for their first lead of the game.

Texas Tech led 15-13 on a Deshawn Corprew tip-in with 10:09 remaining in the first half but would not make a basket again until a Culver 3-pointer with 1:38 to play in the half. KSU went on a 15-3 run during that time with the Red Raiders going 1-for-9 from the field. A pair of Culver free throws and Edwards going 1-for-2 at the line was all the Red Raiders scored during the stretch before the 3. Culver would made a layup with 1:08 to play and Edwards hit one of two free throws for the final points of the first half. The Red Raiders would go into the locker room at halftime trailing for the sixth time in seven conference games this season.

Texas Tech will return to action against Arkansas at 5 p.m. on Saturday in the Big 12/SEC Challenge at the United Supermarkets Arena.

(16-4) RED RAIDERS EARN WIN OVER RAZORBACKS IN THE SEC/BIG 12 CHALLEGE; EXTEND NON-CONFERENCE WINNING STREAK TO 47 GAMES

LUBBOCK, Texas – Davide Moretti scored a career-high 21 points and Jarrett Culver added four 3-pointers to help lead No. 14 Texas Tech to a 67-64 SEC/Big 12 Challenge win over Arkansas on Saturday at the United Supermarkets Arena. The win helped the Big 12 to a 6-4 win in the challenge and snapped a three-game losing streak.

The Red Raiders (16-4) have now won 47 straight non-conference home games, are 40-39 in their all-time series with the Razorbacks (11-8) that started in 1942 and improved to 12-1 in non-conference play this season. TTU trailed at halftime for the ninth time this season, but responded with its seventh win in that situation after limiting turnovers in the second half and shooting 10-for-19 on 3-pointers and 51.2 percent overall in the game.

"I think you have to give Arkansas a lot of credit, but I do think our guys showed a lot of grit to come back after being down at half time and finding a way to win, when it really wasn't our best night," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "I'm happy for our players. I think we beat a really good team and a team that is in a fight for the NCAA tournament."

Texas Tech will return to action against TCU at 8 p.m. on Monday at the USA in the ESPN Big Monday matchup. The Red Raiders are 2-1 at home in conference game this season, while the Horned Frogs (15-4) is coming off a 55-50 win over Florida in their SEC/Big 12 Challenge.

Culver would score 12 of his 15 points in the second half and finished the game 4-for-5 on 3-pointers and also added four assists and three steals. Moretti, who had a previous career-high of 19 points earlier this season at home against Kansas State, would going 6-for-9 from the field with three 3-pointers for his 21 points for the Red Raiders who improve to 11-1 at home this season. Culver's first 3-pointer of the second half came on the first possession, tying the game at 33-33 and Matt Mooney would hit another to give Texas Tech a 42-40 lead three minutes into the half. Another 3 by Culver followed by one from Moretti gave the Red Raiders a six-point advantage before Culver made it 52-42 with his fourth of the game.

Texas Tech had its largest lead of the game at 12 when Norense Odiase pulled down an offensive rebound and scored on a dunk with eight minutes remaining before Arkansas started chipping at the lead. The Razorbacks had it down to four with 4:10 to play on a Mason Jones layup and it was at three with Daniel Gafford making another layup with 1:34 on the clock. A free throw by Embery-Simpson cut it to two before Culver made one free throw on the offensive side of the court and then a steal with six seconds remaining on defense. Moretti would hit a pair of free throws with five seconds on the clock to push the lead to five in a game that ended with a three-point margin after a Harris layup as time expired for the Razorbacks. Moretti finished the game 6-for-7 from the free-throw line, while the Red Raiders were 13-for-19 as a team from the line.

Mooney would finish the game with 12 points, including going off for nine in the second half. He was 4-for-8 from the field, 3-for-4 at the free-throw line and also had two assists. Kyler Edwards would add seven points, Brandone Francis had five and Odiase led the team with seven rebounds to take his career total to 486. The Red Raiders had only six turnovers in the second half after committing 15 in the first half and shot over 50 percent for the sixth time this season. The 10 3-pointers matched a season-best after they also had 10 against Northern Colorado earlier this season.

Gafford led the Razorbacks with 14 points and added five rebounds, while Harris and Mason Jones each had 11. Arkansas shot 43.8 percent from the field in the game but was limited to 4-for-19 on 3-pointers and was 18-for-26 at the free-throw line.

Texas Tech trailed 33-30 at halftime with Jalen Harris hitting a 3-point buzzer beater to give the Razorbacks the lead. The Red Raiders were shooting 11-for-20 (55 percent) at half but also had 15 turnovers, while Arkansas was shooting 40.7 percent from the field, was 8-for-9 at the free-throw line and had nine turnovers. Moretti led the Red Raiders with 14 points after going 5-for-7 from the field with two 3-pointer and Francis had five points off the bench. TTU was 5-for-10 on 3-pointers in the opening half, while the Razorbacks were 3-for-10. Harris was leading Arkansas with nine points after his shot to end the half.

"Definitely feels great to get a win, Arkansas is a real good team so it feels good to get a win against them, but at the same time we got a lot of work to do to get better," Mooney said. " TCU is a real good team so we really can't celebrate for too long for this one because they are coming up in less than 48 hours, but it feels good right now."

(17-4) RED RAIDERS EARN 19-POINT WIN OVER HORNED FROGS TO IMPROVE TO 5-3 IN BIG 12 PLAY

LUBBOCK, Texas – Matt Mooney and Jarrett Culver scored 18 points each, Tariq Owens added 17 and No. 16-ranked Texas Tech limited its turnovers to seven in an 84-65 win over TCU after establishing a 16-point halftime lead on Monday at the United Supermarkets Arena.

The Red Raiders (17-4, 5-3 Big 12) finished the game shooting 54.2 percent, were 9-for-21 on 3-pointers (42.9 percent), recorded 20 assists and finished with a rebounding advantage over the Horned Frogs (15-5, 3-4 Big 12). TTU, which led 43-27 at halftime in the first ESPN Big Monday showcase in Lubbock since 2006, improved to 12-1 at home this season with the win and stopped a three-game conference losing streak.

Davide Moretti recorded a career-high seven assists and scored 11 points two days after scoring a career-high 21 points against Arkansas. He also led the team with three 3-pointers and now has 34 for the season. Culver scored 12 of his 18 points in the second half and led the team with seven rebounds, while Owens was one point off of his season-high after going 7-for-9 from the field along with adding six rebounds. Owens scored the opening points of the game on an alley-oop pass from Mooney and hit two 3-pointers for the second straight game. Mooney finished the game 7-for-12 from the field and also had five assists. Mooney now has five games with five or more assists for the Red Raiders who now have four games this season with 20 or more assists.

"I'm happy for our players because I think we beat a really good team tonight," said Texas Tech coach Chris Beard who is now 45-5 at home during his three years leading the program. "They are an NCAA tournament team that is a big part of the fight this year in the Big 12. I have a lot of respect for them. I think we played one of our better games of the season."

Kyler Edwards added eight points with two 3-pointers, while Deshawn Corprew had six rebounds and five points off the bench. Culver has now scored 803 points in his career, reached double-figures in 20 of 21 games this season and leads the Red Raiders with 18.5 points, 6.9 rebounds and 3.9 assists per game. TCU's Kevin Samuel recorded a double-double with 10 points and 12 rebounds and Kouat Noi led the Horned Frogs with 17 points. TCU shot 45.7 percent from the field, the second highest against Tech this season, but would commit 13 turnovers and couldn't keep up with the Red Raiders who finished 11-for-14 at the free-throw line.

"There's a real statistical part of basketball," Beard said. "Tonight we shot over 50 percent, over 40 from 3 and had a low-turnover game and outrebounded them. Then we found a balance we needed with four guys in double-figures and then Kyler right there under 10. If we can get that kind of balance scoring, take care of the basketball and guard then I think we are one of the best teams in the country."

The Red Raiders would maintain and build on their 16-point halftime advantage throughout the second half, leading by a 57-40 margin on after a Moretti 3-pointer five minutes into the half. TCU would trim its deficit to 10 on a dunk by Kevin Samuel with 9:05 to play before the Red Raiders pushed it back to 15 on a jumper by Edwards and a pair of baskets from Culver. TTU would put the final touches on the impressive win with Owens throwing down a dunk off an assist from Culver before Culver put the exclamation point on the game with a dunk to make it 80-60 with 3:16 remaining.

Texas Tech led 43-27 after hitting seven 3-pointers and committing only three turnovers. Mooney led the Red Raiders with 10 points at halftime after going 4-for-7 from the field and also had four assists, while Edwards was 2-for-3 on 3-pointers and had six points. Moretti also had two 3s and had eight points at the break for the Red Raiders who led at halftime for the first time in six games. The Red Raiders went on a 10-0 run early to take a 12-6 lead after a Mooney jumper and 3-pointers from Brandone Francis and Owens.
The 43 first-half points were tied for the second most in the opening half this season with the team scoring 53 in a win over Northwestern State and also having 43 Mississippi Valley State and Northern Colorado.

"You have to come ready to play with heart, effort and together," Beard said. "We normally do that. And then you have to play well. Tonight we played really well against a really good TCU team."

Texas Tech will return to action against No. 11 Kansas at 3 p.m. on Saturday in Lawrence, Kansas. The Red Raiders earned their first-ever win on the Jayhawks home court last year with an 85-73 victory on Jan. 2, 2018. TTU is 1-17 all-time in Lawrence going into this weekend's contest that will be broadcasted on CBS.

(17-5) RED RAIDERS TAKES ROAD LOSS AT KANSAS

LAWRENCE, Kansas – Texas Tech trailed by 20 at halftime against No. 11 Kansas and could never get a comeback going as the No. 16 Red Raiders took a 79-63 loss at the midpoint of their Big 12 Conference schedule on Saturday at Allen Fieldhouse.

Texas Tech (17-5, 5-4 Big 12) had a two-game winning streak end, while the Jayhawks (17-5, 6-3 Big 12) snapped a two-game skid after hitting a season-high 13 3-pointers against the Red Raiders. TTU was limited to 34.4 percent shooting, including going 6-for-28 on 3-pointers while Kansas made nine first-half 3-pointers and shot 45.8 percent from the field. Tariq Owens led Tech with his second double-double of the season after going for 12 points and 10 rebounds, while Davide Moretti had three 3-pointers for the third straight game and led the team with 14 points. Jarrett Culver would add 10 points and six rebounds and Matt Mooney finished with 11 points. Owens added three blocked shots in the game and now has 54 for the season.

Dedric Lawson and Ochai Agbaji both recorded double-doubles for the Jayhawks with Lawson going for 25 points and 10 rebounds and Agbaji contributing 10 points and 10 rebounds. Three KU players made three 3-pointers each with Lawson at 3-for-3 from beyond the arc, Legerald Vick going 3-for-4 and Devon Dotson making 3 of 5. Dotson finished the game with a career-high 20 points and Vick had 13 points and six rebounds for the Jayhawks who led throughout and by as many as 24. Lawson now has 15 double-doubles this season for the Jayhawks who had 19 assists on their 27 baskets.

Texas Tech will return to action on ESPN's Big Monday against West Virginia at 8 p.m. at the United Supermarkets Arena. The Red Raiders earned a 62-59 win over the Mountaineers on Jan. 2 in Morgantown, West Virginia in their Big 12 opener with Culver leading the team with 18 points and six rebounds, while Mooney added 14 and Moretti had 12 in the first-ever win for Tech at WVU. It is the second straight week where TTU will host ESPN Big Monday after not appearing on that national platform since 2006 before last week's win over TCU. West Virginia (10-12, 2-7 Big 12) is coming off a 79-71 win over Oklahoma on Saturday that snapped a three-game losing streak.

The Red Raiders were never able to cut the 20-point halftime deficit against KU lower than when Moretti hit a 3-pointer to make it 59-46 with 11 minutes to play before the Jayhawks went on a 7-2 run and led 66-48 with eight minutes on the clock. The Red Raiders were 0-for-2 on 3-pointers, while KU was 3-for-3 from the field with one 3-pointer during the run that took it from a 13-point hole back to 18. Texas Tech finished the game with a 42-39 advantage on the boards but could never overcome the 3-point shooting of the Jayhawks. Tech also was 13 of 22 at the free-throw line (59.1 percent) in the game where they were 34.4 percent from the field and 21.4 percent from beyond the arc.

Texas Tech, which fell to 12-19 in ranked vs. ranked matchups, trailed 46-26 at halftime after seeing the Jayhawks go 9-for-15 on 3-poiters and the Red Raiders being held to 10-for-33 (30.3 percent) shooting from the field. Tech had only two turnovers but were being outrebounded by a 22-14 margin as they went to the locker room trailing for the 10th time this season. Culver was leading the Red Raiders with eight points, but was only 4-for-11 to start the game including going 0-for-4 on 3-pointers. Mooney and Moretti each had seven points and Owens was at four points as the teams went into the locker room. KU was on a 10-2 run to start the game with the Red Raiders at 1-for-7 shooting, including going 0-for-3 on 3-pointers in the first five minutes of the game.

Lawson led KU with 16 points at halftime, including going 3-for-3 on 3-pointers and Vick had 11 after he also went 3-for-3 from beyond the arc to start the game. The Jayhawks were shooting 16-for-29 (55.2 percent) from the field and were 5-for-6 at the free-throw line as they built the 20-point advantage.

Texas Tech and Kansas will matchup again Saturday, Feb. 23 at the United Supermarkets Arena. The Jayhawks will go into that game with a 35-5 all-time advantage in the series, including an 18-1 record in Lawrence after their win on Saturday.

G23 No. 18 Texas Tech 81, West Virginia 50 (Feb. 4, 2019)

(18-5) RED RAIDERS ROLLS TO WIN OVER WVU

LUBBOCK, Texas – No. 18 Texas Tech matched its largest Big 12 Conference margin of victory in program history with an 81-50 win over West Virginia on Monday at the United Supermarkets Arena after limiting the Mountaineers to 23.1 percent shooting and forcing 26 turnovers. The Red Raiders held the Mountaineers to 9-for-39 from the field to establish a new Big 12 record for fewest field goals allowed in a conference game topping the previous record of 10 when the Red Raiders held TCU to that total in 2014.

Tech (18-5, 6-4 Big 12) improved to 13-1 at home with the win and swept the season series over WVU (10-13, 2-8 Big 12) for the first time since the Mountaineers joined the conference in 2013. TTU, which earned a 62-59 win over the Mountaineers back on Jan. 2 in Morgantown, West Virginia in the first meeting between the two teams, finished the game 30-for-57 (52.6 percent) and owned a 37-27 rebounding advantage. The only other 30-point Red Raider win in Big 12 play came in a 93-62 win over Baylor on Jan. 2, 1999.

"They responded. We didn't have our best effort against Kansas, but that's coaching too," said Texas Tech coach Chris Beard, who improved to 46-5 at home in his three seasons leading the program. "We responded and we told each other the truth. We know West Virginia is a little undermanned right now and shorthanded and some of their best players are hurt. I think if West Virginia and Tech played 10 times, it would be 5 and 5 in my opinion. Tonight's score is not a good representation. I think you have to give our players credit for responding when our backs were against the wall. I was not pleased in the way we played against Kansas. All you can do is respond. Tonight I thought we played much better."

Brandone Francis led Texas Tech with a season-high 16 points in a game where nine Red Raiders scored, while WVU made nine baskets total in the game. Francis was 7-for-10 from the field, including going 2-for-3 on 3-pointers but came up one point shy of his career-high of 17 that came last season at West Virginia.

"I was a little more focused today," Francis said. "I went out there and played with a chip on my shoulder with something to prove. I talked to my mom today, I had it in my mind and I just went out there, with a chip on my shoulder thinking about my family."

Jarrett Culver finished the game with 12 points and four assists and Davide Moretti added 11 points from the starting lineup. Deshawn Corprew would contribute 10 points after going 3-for-3 from the field and 2-for-2 at the line, while Norense Odiase led the team with 10 rebounds and was one point away from his first double-double of the season. A senior from Fort Worth, Odiase now has 508 rebounds in his career and seven double-digit rebounding performances.

"I have said it over and over, he is one of our better players," said Beard of Odiase. "He has to play his best for us to win. I think he is one of the most physical and dominant guys in the league. Tonight I thought he imposed his will. He had some big rebounds. He is a really good free throw shooter and has good poise. He is just someone I trust."

Matt Mooney added five assists, four steals and nine points and Tariq Owens had seven points and four rebounds. Moretti would also have four assists in the game for the Red Raiders who had 20 assists on 30 baskets in the game and owned a 38-10 scoring advantage in the paint. Derek Culver led WVU with 23 points and 12 rebounds, while Jordan McCabe had seven. The Mountaineers were 3-for-16 on 3-pointers in the game and scored 29 of their 50 points at the free-throw line after going 29-for-41.

Texas Tech would lead by as many as 39 points in the game where they built on a 15-point halftime advantage with Francis hitting a jumper two minutes into the second half to push the lead to 42-22 and then led by 30 on a Corprew jumper three minutes later. The Red Raiders led 59-24 on an Owens layup for their first 35-point margin and was up 79-40 when Parker Hicks hit a 3-pointer. WVU finished the game with the final four points to cut the deficit to 31 to match Tech's largest conference margin of victory.

Texas Tech led 36-21 at halftime after going 13-for-26 with three 3-pointers and limiting the Mountaineers to 3-for-17 shooting. Culver led the Red Raiders with 10 points at halftime, while Francis had seven and Owens, Mooney, Moretti and Odiase each had four. The Red Raiders trailed 5-0 to start the game but went on a 13-0 run midway through the half and finished it on a 24-7 run that ended with Francis hitting a layup in the final seconds. The run included Odiase almost ripping down the goal with a dunk for an 18-16 lead. The lead grew to six on an Owens jumper and to 11 with Francis hitting a 3-pointer. Tech had a 14-point lead when Culver buried a 3-pointer at the shot-clock buzzer with 2:55 remaining in the half before Francis' layup at the end took to halftime with the largest lead of the half.

The Red Raiders have now won six games by 30 or more points this season and own a 13.4 scoring margin advantage through 23 games.

(19-5) RED RAIDERS SWEEP SEASON SERIES AGAINST OKLAHOMA WITH WIN IN NORMAN

NORMAN, Oklahoma – Texas Tech senior Norense Odiase secured 11 rebounds, freshman Kyler Edwards recorded a career-high six assists and four Red Raiders scored in double-figures in a 66-54 Big 12 Conference road win over Oklahoma on Saturday at the Lloyd Noble Center.

No. 18 Texas Tech (19-5, 7-4 Big 12) swept the season series over Oklahoma (15-9, 3-8 Big 12) for the first time since 2010 after limiting the Sooners to 36.2 percent shooting, owning the rebounding advantage and matching a season-best with 10 3-pointers. Tech, which led 35-24 at halftime with seven 3-pointers, had won a 66-59 decision over OU in the first matchup earlier this season in Lubbock and has now won three straight over the Sooners dating back to last season.

Davide Moretti led the Red Raiders with 14 points after hitting four shots from the field and going 4-for-4 at the free-throw line, while Jarrett Culver had 13 points and Matt Mooney and Brandone Francis had 11 each. The Red Raiders finished the game shooting 42.6 percent the field and made 10 3-pointers for the fourth time this season.

Odiase, who had 10 rebounds in Monday's 81-50 win over West Virginia, now has four games with double-digit rebounds this season and Tariq Owens now has six games with four or more blocks and 59 for the season after having four against the Sooners. Owens also had four blocks against the Sooners in the first matchup. Moretti has now scored in double figures in 10 of 11 conference games and has led the team in five games this season.

Texas Tech is now 4-1 in its last five games after a three-game losing streak that had the Red Raiders at 4-3 in conference play. The team has since run off conference wins over TCU, West Virginia and now the Sooners and find themselves among the leaders in the Big 12 Conference fight.

"We have been getting better in practice an in games," Texas Tech coach Chris Beard said. "I think today we made a couple steps and that is what we are all trying to do this time of year. We all feel the pressure and the need to win these games, but there is something bigger than each individual game that is coming. For us, it's just playing the best we can. Are we playing better right now than we were a couple of weeks ago? Yes. Are we playing as well as we can? No. This time of year is about trying to improve and today against an opponent and coach that we have a lot of respect for I thought we did improve."

Francis led the Red Raiders with three 3-pointers, while Mooney added two 3s and led the team with four steals for the second straight game. Mooney now leads Tech with 43 steals this season and also 71 assists after adding three more against the Sooners. Edwards recorded his career-high six assists after having four on Monday against WVU and also scored eight points in a game where the Red Raiders had 15 total assists on 23 made shots. Mooney and Culver both added three assists and Francis had two along with five rebounds in the game.

OU only led once in the opening minute of the game and only got the game to single-digits once in the second half. The Red Raiders took their 11-point halftime lead to 20 for the first time on a Culver jumper and would lead by as many as 23 points with six minutes remaining. Tech's lead was cut to nine on a Miles Reynolds layup with 13 minutes to play before a Moretti 3-pointer took the advantage to 49-37 in a game that never got closer.

Culver would make the 10th 3-pointer of the game for the Red Raiders to push the lead to 64-41 at the 5:46 mark that would be the final basket of the game for Tech. Rashard Odomes led the Sooners with 14 points after going 5-for-5 from the field, while Brady Manek and Christian James had 11. Manek recorded a double-double with 11 rebounds to go along with his 11 points and James also added eight rebounds. Tech had a 38-35 rebounding advantage in the game and limited the Sooners to 4-for-14 from beyond the arc.

The Red Raiders took a 35-24 lead into halftime with Odiase grabbing his seventh rebound of the half and putting in a buzzer-beater for the 11-point lead at the break. TTU was shooting 43.3 percent from the field with seven 3-pointers, while OU was limited to 8-for-29 shooting (27.6 percent) and only had two 3s.

TTU took a 30-13 lead on a Francis 3-pointer that capped a 13-0 run before the Sooners went on a 7-0 run of their own to get back into the game. Another Francis shot from beyond the arc gave the Red Raiders the 33-20 lead with 1:45 remaining in the half. Francis led the Red Raiders with 11 points at halftime after going 4-for-6 from the field with three 3-pointers. Mooney and Moretti had five points each at halftime, while Odiase had two points to go along with his seven rebounds at the break. Tech owned a 23-18 rebounding advantage after 20 minutes with Edwards and Francis having three each and Corprew at two as the reserves had eight of the first 23 rebounds for the Red Raiders.

Edwards had five points in the half after making back-to-back baskets, first a layup and then a 3-pointer to give the Red Raiders a 25-13 in the middle of the 13-0 run. Tech had started the game 2-for-10 with Francis hitting one 3-pointer and then a layup to give the Red Raiders a 7-4 lead, but OU was also 2-for-10 to start the game. Tech led by double-digits at halftime for the fourth conference game of the season.

(20-5) RED RAIDERS ROLL TO WIN IN STILLWATER

STILLWATER, Oklahoma – Texas Tech senior Matt Mooney made five 3-pointers, Davide Moretti had a career-high eight assists and the No. 15 Red Raiders hit a season-high 12 shots from beyond the arc in a 78-50 Big 12 Conference win over Oklahoma State on Wednesday at the Gallagher-Iba Arena.

The Red Raiders (20-5, 8-4 Big 12) were up 21 points at halftime and ran away with the game in the second half by going on a 15-0 run to start the half that had them leading 62-25 with 13:37 remaining. Tech, which has now won 20 or more games 13 times in program history and has outscored its last three conference opponents by a 23.7 scoring margin, finished the game shooting 51.8 percent from the field, including going 12-for-25 on 3-pointers. The defense limited the Cowboys (9-15, 2-9 Big 12) to 36.7 percent shooting and forced 14 turnovers, while the Red Raiders committed only eight turnovers in the game. The Red Raiders have now shot over 50 percent in nine games this season and have limited their opponents under 40 percent in 16 of 25 games.

"I think the biggest positive tonight, offensively, was that this a low-turnover game," Texas Tech head coach Chris Beard said. "We can't always count on making shots like we did tonight. Our guys put a lot of time in, so from time-to-time, we're going to have nights like tonight."

Texas Tech will return to action at 1 p.m. on Saturday against Baylor at the United Supermarkets Arena. The Red Raiders are 13-1 on their home court this season and are 46-5 at the USA under Beard in the past three seasons.

Jarrett Culver led the Red Raiders with 19 points on a 7-for-12 shooting performance, while Mooney finished with 15 with a season-high five 3s. Tariq Owens led the Red Raiders with seven rebounds and added 11 points in a game where eight players scored. Moretti added nine points with three 3-pointers to go along with his assists and Norense Odiase scored eight and had three rebounds. Odiase was 4-for-4 from the free-throw line and the Red Raiders were 8-for-10 in the game. Mooney had two games during his time at South Dakota with five 3-pointers and now has 1,747 points in his collegiate career.

"Once we start making shots, we're really hard to guard," Mooney said. "Teams have to close out on us more, that lets us run in transition, they've got to close out on shooters faster which opens up driving lanes. We were able to get the ball inside and spray it around. We got hot tonight and played well offensively."

Moretti is the first Red Raider to have eight assists in a game since Toddrick Gotcher did against Iowa State in 2016. A sophomore from Italy, Moretti now has 104 assists in his career and four games this season with six or more assists. His previous career-high was seven three weeks ago against TCU. Owens added two blocked shots and now has 61 on the season. He's one of only four players in program history to have over 60 blocks in a season and is approaching the all-time single-season record where he is only behind Tony Battie who set the record with 71 in the 1996-97 season and Brodney Kennard who had 69 in 1999-2000.

Culver has now scored 857 points in his career through 62 games and has led the Red Raiders in scoring 18 times this season. He's averaging 17.7 points per game and has recorded double-digit scoring performances in 24 of 25 games. He's also leading the team with 6.2 rebounds per game after having three against the Cowboys.

The 28-point win was the second highest in conference play this season after last week's 31-point win over West Virginia and the 12 3-pointers are the most since last year when they hit 14 against Florida Atlantic. The Red Raiders improved to 4-3 on the road in conference play and has now won three straight with wins over WVU, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State. Cameron McGriff recorded a double-double for the Cowboys with 18 points and 11 rebounds, while Lindy Waters III had 12 points. The loss for OSU was the second largest ever at home behind only a 33-point defeat to Kansas on Feb. 19, 1966. The Red Raiders previous biggest margin over the Cowboys was a 24-point win back in 2002 and has now won against the Sooners and Cowboys in Oklahoma in the same season for the first time since 1997. Tech improved to 5-23 all-time against the Cowboys in Stillwater.

Texas Tech went into halftime with a 44-23 lead after hitting nine 3-pointers and having eight different players score in the half. Mooney finished the first half shooting 4-for-4 on 3-pointers and led the Red Raiders with 12 points at the break, while Moretti was 2-for-2 from beyond the arc and Edwards, Culver and Francis had one each. The Red Raiders were 9-for-14 on 3-pointers after 20 minutes, while Oklahoma State was 2-for-11 (18.2 percent) on 3-pointers and were being limited to 33.3 percent.

The 21-point lead at the break was the largest lead of the half for the Red Raiders who led by eight on a Mooney 3-pointer and by double-digits for the first time in the game on the next possession when Odiase threw down a dunk for a 22-12 lead. Tech's lead grew to 26-12 on a Moretti 3-pointer and it was a 17-point game when Mooney hit his third 3-pointer with 2:08 on the clock. Another Moretti 3-pointer gave the Red Raiders a 41-21 lead before Mooney's fourth 3-pointer with 37 seconds remaining made it 44-23. Mooney's four 3-pointers were a season-high at the break after he had two previous games this season with three from beyond the arc.

No. 15 Texas Tech 86, Baylor 61 (Feb. 19, 2019)

(21-5) RED RAIDERS HIT 12 3-POINTERS TO EVEN SEASON SERIES AGAINST BAYLOR; WIN FOURTH STRAIGHT

LUBBOCK, Texas – Jarrett Culver went for 18 points, eight rebounds and four assists while Davide Moretti knocked down four 3-pointers to help lead No. 15 Texas Tech to an 86-61 Big 12 Conference win over Baylor on Saturday at the United Supermarkets Arena.

The No. 15 Red Raiders (21-5, 9-4 Big 12) extended their conference winning streak to four and also improved to 14-1 on their home court this season by avenging a loss to the Bears (16-9, 7-5 Big 12) earlier this season in Waco. Tech, which led 45-32 at halftime and never had that lead cut below 14 in the second half, made a season-high 12 3-pointers as a team for the second straight game, forced 19 turnovers and would hit a season-high 30 free throws on 35 attempts.

Texas Tech is now away from competition for a week before hosting No. 14 Kansas at 7 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 23 at the USA. The Jayhawks (19-6, 9-4 Big 12) will also have the week off before traveling to Lubbock after they earned a 78-53 win over West Virginia on Saturday. In other Big 12 games, No. 23 Iowa State (19-6, 8-4 Big 12) earned a 78-64 win over conference-leading No. 18 Kansas State (19-6, 9-3 Big 12). The Red Raiders, who have now split with the Bears the past four years in the regular-season series, now have five games remaining in the regular season.

"Our objective has always been to be a part of the fight," said Texas Tech coach Chris Beard who is now 47-5 at home as the team's head coach. "I'm just really proud of this team. We're a part of the fight. A lot of people thought that we weren't going to be able to get back into the fight. You got to give those seniors credit. It starts with Brandone Francis and Norense Odiase, returners that believed. Then there's Tariq Owens and Matt Mooney, came to this program to make an imprint from Day 1 and they have. There's lot of basketball left but I think it's an accurate statement to say Texas Tech is a part of the fight right now with a few weeks left. We're in contention for the conference championship and that's our goal."

Culver led the Red Raiders with his 18 points by hitting three 3-pointers and going 7-for-8 at the free throw line. He would add four assists and is now averaging 17.7 points, 6.3 rebounds and 3.7 assists per game. A sophomore from Lubbock, Culver now has 875 points in his career through 63 games. Moretti stayed hot from beyond the arc, going 4-for-8 and finishing with 17 points. He is now 10-for-18 on 3-pointers in his last four games and added to his point-total on Saturday by hitting 5 of 6 from the free-throw line. Tariq Owens gave the Red Raiders three players in double-figure scoring by contributing 11 points for the second straight game. He would go 7-for-8 from the free-throw line and also had two blocks to take his season total to 63. Odiase had two rebounds in the 99th start of his Texas Tech career.

Texas Tech would limit its turnovers to only nine, including zero from Mooney and Moretti. The Red Raiders shot 40.7 percent from the field and limited Baylor to only 34.7 percent shooting. In the win over Tech in Waco, Baylor forced 17 turnovers and made 11 3-pointers. On Saturday, BU made nine from beyond the arc but also had 10 more turnovers than the Red Raiders who also made 12 more free throws.

Texas Tech would finish the game with 11 players scoring, including getting nine points from Matt Mooney who was 4-for-4 at the free-throw line and seven off the bench from Kyler Edwards and Brandone Francis. Edwards and Francis both had two 3-pointers in the game, while Deshawn Corprew and Andrew Benson both had five points. Corprew was 3-for-3 from the line and also had three rebounds.

Texas Tech matched its season high with 12 3-pointers after Francis hit the 12th to give the Red Raiders a 76-52 lead in a game where they led by as many as 25. Tech has now outscored its last four Big 12 opponents by a 24.0 margin with wins over West Virginia (81-50), Oklahoma (66-54) and Oklahoma State (78-50) before the 25-point win over the Bears.

Texas Tech led 45-32 at halftime after starting the game 8-for-14 on 3-pointers led by Culver who was 3-for-5 and Moretti with two. The Red Raiders were also 17-for-19 at the free-throw line with Culver going 5-for-6 and Owns and Mooney both knocking down all four of their attempts. Corprew had five points at halftime after hitting one shot from the field and also going 3-for-3 at the line. Culver was leading the team with 14 points after hitting his three 3s and also had five rebounds and two assists. Mooney would added seven in the opening half, while Owens and Moretti had six each. Moretti hit the first three of the game on the opening possession and Culver gave the Rd Raiders the 13-point halftime lead with a 3-pointer on their last.

Culver also hit the sixth 3-pointer of the half to push the Red Raider lead to 35-21 with 3:48 remaining with Tech on a 7-0 run and at 6-for-10 on 3-pointers. The lead grew to 42-27 on two free throws by Corprew before Culver's 3-pointer from NBA-range. Butler led Baylor at halftime with 13 points after going 3-for-4 from beyond the arc for the Bears who were 7-for-13 from beyond the arc. BU was shooting just 34.6 percent from the field and had nine turnovers at the break.

Texas Tech has three more home games on its schedule, first next week's matchup against Kansas before hosting Oklahoma State on Wednesday, Feb. 27 and then the home finale on Monday, March 4 against Texas.

CAREER AND TEXAS TECH

Chris Beard is in his third season as head coach and his 13th season overall with the Texas Tech men's basketball program. He was named the program's 17th head coach on April 15, 2016 by Director of Athletics Kirby Hocutt and Interim University President Dr. John Opperman.

Beard elevated the Red Raiders to an elite level of success following a 27-10 record and the program's first NCAA Elite Eight trip in 2017-18. The 27 wins are the second-highest in program history only behind the 30-2 mark put together by the 1995-96 team under James Dickey. He came away as the 2018 Big 12 Co-Coach of the Year, the 2018 National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 8 Coach of the Year, the 2018 United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) District VII Coach of the Year and the 2018 John McClendon National Coach of the Year award recipient. Texas Tech garnered a program-best No. 6 final ranking in the USA Today/Coaches Top 25 poll. The Red Raiders checked in as a consensus Top 15 program for the final 10 weeks of the regular season highlighted by six Top 10 rankings. The 1995-96 season was the only other time the program was ranked among the nation's Top 10.

Texas Tech earned a program-best second place finish in the Big 12 regular season and set a program single season mark with 11 Big 12 wins. The Red Raiders registered the program's first victory at Allen Fieldhouse during a wire-to-wire 85-73 win over No. 10 Kansas on Jan. 8, 2018, the largest conference home loss for the Jayhawks under Bill Self.

Texas Tech racked up a nation's best and program single season record eight victories over Associated Press Top 25 opponents in 2017-18. The Red Raiders knocked off No. 2 West Virginia 72-71 on Jan. 13, 2018 which matched the program's best win rankings-wise as Texas Tech defeated No. 2 SMU 64-63 on Jan. 26, 1985 under Gerald Myers. Texas Tech also defeated No. 23 Florida and No. 11 Purdue before falling short to eventual national champion and No. 2 Villanova in the 2018 NCAA Tournament.

The Red Raiders played host to ESPN's College GameDay for the first time in program history on Feb. 24, 2018. The one-hour show hosted by Rece Davis, Jay Bilas, Seth Greenberg and Jay Williams aired live from the United Supermarkets Arena.

Beard agreed to a six-year, $19.05 million dollar contract in March 2018 that locks him up as Texas Tech's head coach through the 2023-24 season. The Red Raiders have seen a significant increase in season ticket sales under Beard, and the program's average attendance surged to over 10,000 fans per game in 2017-18 for the first time dating back to 2006-07.

Over his first two seasons in Lubbock, Beard has captured 45 victories which is tied with Bob Knight for the most wins in program history for a coach during their first two seasons. He has already picked up 11 wins over AP Top 25 opponents, the second-highest total for a head coach in program history and shattering the program's record during a two-year span. Beard also has been a part of 13 of Texas Tech's 20 wins over AP Top 10 foes as either a head coach or an assistant coach.

Beard has either coached and/or recruited 15 of Texas Tech's 20 All-Big 12 selections highlighted by seven of the 10 players listed on the first, second and third teams in program history. Keenan Evans was named Texas Tech's first All-Big 12 First-Team pick since Jarrius Jackson in 2006-07. He took his game to another level in 2017-18 and became the third player in program history to claim consensus All-America status from the AP, NABC, Sporting News and USBWA. Evans also was a Top 10 finalist for the Bob Cousy Award, a Top 15 finalist for the Wooden Award and a Top 10 semifinalist for the Naismith Trophy.

Zhaire Smith and Jarrett Culver finished the 2017-18 season ranked first and second on the program's scoring list among freshmen. Smith was the program's first one-and-done NBA prospect and program's second NBA Draft First Round selection. He was chosen No. 16 overall by the Phoenix Suns and traded to the Philadelphia 76ers as part of a draft night trade. Evans has signed a two-way contract with the Detroit Pistons, while Zach Smith has earned a training camp invite by the Charlotte Hornets. The last time the Red Raiders had three players on NBA rosters during the same season was in 2004-05 when Tony Battie was with the Orlando Magic, Andre Emmett was with the Memphis Grizzlies and Darvin Ham was with the Detroit Pistons.

Texas Tech has had six seasons with a winning record in Big 12 conference play, five of which came when Beard was an assistant coach. The Red Raiders also have recorded five of their six top half finishes in the Big 12 during Beard's time as an assistant coach. Beard's 17 wins in Big 12 play are more than Baylor's Scott Drew, Oklahoma's Lon Kruger, TCU's Jamie Dixon, Texas' Shaka Smart and West Virginia's Bob Huggins during their first two seasons as Big 12 head coaches at their respective schools.

Beard guided Little Rock to a historic turnaround in 2015-16 fueled by 30 victories, which was a program single season record and Sun Belt single season mark. The Trojans claimed the Sun Belt regular season and tournament titles en route to the program's fifth NCAA Tournament bid.

Little Rock overcame a 14-point deficit during the final five minutes of the second half and won an 85-83 double overtime thriller over No. 12-ranked and fifth-seeded Purdue in the NCAA Tournament.

Beard has amassed a 216-74 record, a .745 winning percentage and 24.0 victories per season over his nine seasons as a head coach coming into the 2018-19 season. His wealth of coaching experience stretches from the NCAA Division I, NCAA Division II, NAIA and Junior College levels. His previous head coaching stops include Fort Scott Community College, Seminole State College, McMurry University, Angelo State, Little Rock and UNLV. Beard's roots in Lubbock and West Texas run deep. He spent 10 years at Texas Tech which included seven seasons as an assistant coach under Hall of Fame Coach Bob Knight and three seasons as an associate head coach under Pat Knight. He was on the Texas Tech bench on January 1, 2007, when the Red Raiders defeated New Mexico making Bob Knight the NCAA's men's all-time career wins leader.

Raised in Irving, Texas, Beard's coaching career began in the Lone Star State as a graduate assistant at Incarnate Ward followed by a pair of assistant coaching stints at Abilene Christian and North Texas. He worked under the guidance of Danny Kasper at UIW, Shanon Hays at ACU and Vic Trilli at UNT. Leading into his time as an assistant with Texas Tech, Beard's first two head coaching opportunities came at Fort Scott Community College in Kansas and Seminole State College in Oklahoma. He led Seminole State College to a 25-6 record and a No. 14 national ranking in 2000-01 after Fort Scott came away with 19 victories and a NJCAA Regional appearance in 1999-2000.

Beard earned his Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology from the University of Texas in 1995 where he worked as a student assistant for Tom Penders. He completed his master's degree in education from Abilene Christian in 1998.Beard played his high school basketball for Mike Kunstadt at Irving High School and for Terry Priest at McCullough High School. He has three daughters: Avery, Ella and Margo.
