

Academic Fraud & Misconduct

Student-athletes have an ethical obligation to complete their own academic coursework without any improper assistance from institutional staff members

Student-Athlete Support Services staff should educate tutors and student-athletes on the repercussions of plagiarism, cheating or fraudulent activity

Institutional Control

The control and responsibility for the conduct of intercollegiate athletics shall be exercised by the institution itself and by the conference(s), if any, of which it is a member. Administrative control or faculty control, or a combination of the two, shall constitute institutional control.

Unethical Conduct (10.1)

Refusal to furnish information relevant to an investigation of a possible violation of an NCAA regulation when requested to do so by the NCAA or the individual's institution

Knowing involvement in arranging for fraudulent academic credit or false transcripts for a prospective or an enrolled student-athlete

Unethical Conduct

Knowing involvement in offering or providing a prospective or an enrolled student-athlete an improper inducement, extra benefit or improper financial aid

Knowingly furnishing the NCAA or the individual's institution false or misleading information concerning the individual's involvement in or knowledge of matters relevant to a possible violation of an NCAA regulation
