To The Media

The Kansas Media Relations Department welcomes your interest in women's golf. We make every effort to facilitate your coverage of our program. For information on student athletes or coaches, to set up interviews or photo shoots, or if you are in need of file photos, please call our office at (785) 864-3417 or visit us through KU's website at kuathletics.com.

Weekly Press Release

A complete release previewing the athletic events for the upcoming week and reviewing the previous week will be available on kuathletics.com. The release will also be e-mailed to media requesting this service.

Interviews

Media members wishing to interview KU head coach Erin O'Neil or student-athletes should direct requests to Brittany McCall of the Kansas Athletic Media Relations office. Please arrange interviews 24 hours in advance by calling (303) 957-8905.

Home and cell phone numbers for players will not be provided and players have been instructed not to accept calls from media without prior notice from the media relations office. Please do not contact a player or coach without scheduling the interview through the media relations office.

Photographers

The Kansas Media Relations Department can assist all media members with color as well as black and white photographic reproductions. Media requesting photos may receive them via e-mail or disk. Please contact Brittany McCall or Jeff Jacobsen at (785) 864-3417 for more information.

E-mail Service

Any media wishing to receive round-by-round results, press releases and post-tournament recaps should e-mail Brittany McCall at bmac3@ku.edu to be added to the KU women's golf media e-mail list.

Internet

Log on to the Jayhawks' official website, www.kuathletics.com, to find updated women's golf information throughout the year. This season, the site will feature rosters, schedules, tournament results and updated stats, as well as a link to the GolfStat Collegiate Scoring System online, which allows the general public to view tournament updates in real time.

Erin O'Neil Head Coach Fourth Season (Georgia 1997)

Erin O'Neil returns for her fourth season as head coach of the women's golf team at the University of Kansas

Last spring, O'Neil led Kansas to program history, as senior Amanda Costner became the first Jayhawk to claim the individual title crown at the Big 12 Championships. Costner shot a one-under par in the opening round and a total of 221 for the three-day event. As a team, Kansas finished ninth with a final score of 945.

"Amanda did a fabulous job of keeping her head leveled," O'Neil said. "Handling the pressure is always hard going into the final rounds with everyone gunning for you. She kept her composure and finished strong."

After four successful years as an assistant at Auburn, O'Neil inherited a KU squad with no seniors and helped lead the 'Hawks to their first team title in recent memory at the 2004 Marilyn Smith Sunflower Invitational. She has also guided the team to first-place finishes at the 2006 Mountain View Collegiate and at the 2006 and 2007 Marilyn Smith Sunflower Invitationals.

O'Neil has molded individual champions in senior Annie Giangrosso (2006 Kansas Women's Amateur champion) recent graduate Amanda Costner (2005 Lady Boilermaker Champion, All-Big 12 First Team, NCAA Regional qualifier, 2007 Big 12 Champion) and former KU standout Chelsey Pryor (2005 ORU Shootout winner).

During her time at Auburn, O'Neil was part of three top 10 NCAA Championship team finishes, which included a tie for second in 2002, fourth in 2001 and ninth in 2003. She coached four All-Americans and seven all-conference selections.

"There is a tremendous amount of tradition here at KU and I feel very fortunate to be a part of it," O'Neil said. "It is certainly a great time to be a part of Kansas athletics. The last few years have been an incredible learning experience for us on and off the golf course. The team is young and talented and I hope to continue our progress."

The St. Charles, Ill., native coached the Auburn team to the 19th annual Topy Cup/U.S. Japan Collegiate Championship in Fukushima, Japan, as the Tigers won by a tournament-record 10 strokes in 2001.

O'Neil joined the Tiger program after a three-year stint as a professional golfer on the Futures Tour and the Kosaido Ladies Asian Tour.

She was a four-year letterwinner at the University of Georgia from 1994-97 and led the Bulldogs to a pair of SEC Championships in 1994 and 1997.

O'Neil was a three-time All-SEC selection from 1994-96 and earned SEC Freshman of the Year honors in 1994. She won the 1995 Auburn Tiger-Derby Invitational and shot a 66 during the 1997 SEC Championship, the second lowest round in University of Georgia history.

O'Neil was listed on the Director's Honor Roll six quarters at Georgia and was a two-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection in 1996 and 1997.

O'Neil qualified for seven United States Amateur Championships as well as two United States Opens during her amateur career.

Head Coach Erin O'Neil with KU senior Annie Giangrosso.

Assistant Coach

Second Season (Arkansas 2006)

Sarah Trew begins her second season at the University of Kansas as assistant coach this spring. The Acworth, Ga., native continues her first coaching job with plenty of playing experience to bring to the table.

"It has been an amazing opportunity to join the Kansas golf family and a University so rich in tradition," coach Trew said. "Last year was a wonderful chance to jump in with both feet and gain some experience. I am excited for the upcoming season."

Trew began her career playing for the University of Georgia 2001-03. She played one year and redshirted the other.

She then transferred to the University of Arkansas to continue her golfing endeavors. Along with being named to the SEC academic honor roll all three years at Arkansas (2003-06), Trew ended her career with the eighth-lowest career stroke average in Arkansas' women's golf history.

Trew graduated in May 2006 with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice and sociology.

Following college, Trew turned professional in July 2006 and played in select events. She was a qualifier for the finals of the Re-Max World Long Drive Challenge in 2006 and 2007.

"This program has resources that are second to none and unlimited potential to become a top program," coach Trew said. "We are eager to get back out on the course and show the rest of the country what Kansas golf is capable of."

2007 Fall Recap

The Jayhawks traveled near and far for their 2007 fall season. Despite tough competition, KU demonstrated determination and strength as it competed at five tournaments.

The fall season commenced at the Chip-N-Club Invitational at Woodlands Hill Golf Course in Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 10-11. Sophomore Emily Powers sparked the Jayhawks to a fifth-place finish after firing a 75 in the final round of play. Powers shot a 224 and tied for 10th, leading the 'Hawks in the individual standings for the two-day event. Kansas finished with a third-round score of 303, its lowest of the tournament, to compile a composite score of 921.

Next, the Jayhawks traveled to Highlands Ranch, Colo., where they competed at the Ron Moore Intercollegiate, Sept. 17-18, at Highlands Ranch Golf Club. The Jayhawks recorded a final-round score of 294, besting their previous two rounds by 14 strokes to move up four spots on the leaderboard from first-round play and advance to eighth place with a final team score of 911. Powers again led Kansas for the second consecutive tournament, marking her second top-10 finish of the fall as she tied for seventh with a three-round score of 221.

Kansas next sought to defend its team title from last year at the Marilyn Smith Sunflower Invitational in Manhattan, Kan., Oct. 1-2. A thunderstorm forced the cancellation of the final round, shortening the hole-count to 36 holes and ensuring Kansas' position at the top of the leaderboard. The Jayhawks finished in first place after setting the pace on day one of the tournament with a two-stroke advantage over border-rival Missouri, firing consecutive rounds, of 302 and 298. Camilla Svensson highlighted her season debut as KU's top finisher, tying for fourth at three-over-par. Teammates Meghna Bal and Grace Thiry tied for seventh with totals of 149. Powers garnered another impressive finish, completing the day in 11th place with a score of 150. Senior Annie Giangrosso finished the second round one shot behind Powers at 151 after rounds of 73 and 78.

The Jayhawks then found themselves at the New Mexico State University Golf Course in Las Cruces, N.M., for the Price's "Give 'Em Five" Intercollegiate on Oct. 15-17. A young Jayhawk squad led Kansas to a tie for fourth place with North Carolina State and Michigan. Kansas fired rounds of 302-302-304 for a 44-over-par 908 to secure its position in the top-five throughout the three-day event.

The final destination of the fall campaign was Tuscaloosa, Ala., where the 'Hawks competed at the UA-Ann Rhoads Intercollegiate, Oct. 26-28. Powers fired a par 71 in the third round to tie for 11th place with a final score of 223. The 'Hawks fired a third-round score of 297, besting their second-round score by 15 strokes to finish with a total score of 926.

"I am pleased with how we did this fall considering how many new faces we had in the lineup," head coach Erin O'Neil said. "Hopefully we can take what we learned and use it to help make the spring season even better."

2008 Spring Preview

For the second consecutive season, Kansas will head south to open the spring semester as it travels to Miami, Fla., to compete at the Papa John's Collegiate on Feb. 17. The Jayhawks will immediately head from Florida to California for the Fresno State Invitational Feb. 25-26.

The Betsy Rawls Invitational in Austin, Texas, is the next stop for the Jayhawks, March 17-19. The tournament, hosted by the University of Texas, will take place on the UT Golf Club Course. Four Kansas golfers will return from last year's event, including Camilla Svensson, who finished in the top 30, helping lead the 'Hawks to an 11th-place finish.

With three tournaments under its belt, Kansas will then head to the MountainView Collegiate in Tucson, Ariz., on March 29-30. Last year, Emily Powers paced the 'Hawks with a three-round score of 215, good enough to tie for seventh place. The Jayhawks' final round total of 286 vaulted KU into a fourth place tie with Missouri. Nebraska captured the team title while Indiana earned medalist honors.

The Susie Maxwell Berning Classic, April 6-8, will be hosted by University of Oklahoma in Norman, Okla., on the Jimmie Austin OU Golf Course. The Jayhawks finished fourth at last year's competition, edging out Big 12 contenders Kansas State, Oklahoma and Texas Tech, while Baylor claimed top honors.

Kansas' postseason will begin April 25-27 at the Big 12 Championship at Oklahoma State's Karsten Creek Golf Club in Stillwater, Okla. Last year, Kansas senior Amanda Costner became the first Jayhawk in program history to win the individual title at the event. As a team, Kansas finished in ninth and Texas A&M pulled out the win in team competition.

Kansas' Big 12 foe, Texas, will then host the NCAA Central Regional Championship at the University of Texas Golf Club from May 8-10 to determine the eight regional representatives to the NCAA Championship, which takes place May 20-23 in Albuquerque, N.M.

"We have a good spring schedule that will allow us to play on great golf courses against strong teams," O'Neil said. "The team has a solid work ethic and a very competitive nature which will only help make them better. The goal is to take it one tournament at a time and see where it takes us."

Player Preview

~Annie Giangrosso will compete in her final season as a Kansas Jayhawk. Last year, Giangrosso tied for 32nd at the Big 12 Championship after firing a 239. In the fall, Giangrosso garnered two top-15 finishes out of Kansas' five tournaments, averaging a 76.86. "Annie played very consistent this fall and I expect her to continue to be a strong leader for us on and off the golf course," O'Neil said.

~Sophomore Emily Powers led the youthful Jayhawk squad in the fall season, in which she garnered three top-10 finishes. Averaging an impressive 74.36, Powers led the Jayhawks in four of Kansas' five fall contests. "Emily has learned so much in the last year," O'Neil said. "She stepped up for us this fall and was a key player in our success. She is a very talented golfer and can achieve whatever she sets her mind to."

~Sophomores Meghan Gockel and Camilla Svensson made impressive strides in the fall. After being named to the NCAA All-American Scholar Team in the spring, Gockel went on to compete in three tournaments in the fall season, earning an average of 78.5. "Meghan has added distance to her game and continues to make her short game stronger," O'Neil said. "Svensson led Kansas to first place at the Sunflower Invitational and completed the fall season with a 73.5 average. "Camilla loves golf and strives for perfection every day," O'Neil said. "She has great work ethic, solid game, and once she learns how to trust the talent she has the sky is the limit."

~Freshmen newcomers Meghna Bal, Jennifer Clark and Grace Thiry all had great impact on the Jayhawk squad last fall. "Meghna wants to win more than anything else and she is willing to put in the time and effort to achieve her goals," O'Neil said. Bal earned three top-30 finishes, while Thiry garnered three top-25 finishes, each sharing a tie for seventh place at the Marilyn Smith Sunflower Invitational. Bal and Thiry completed the fall season averaging 76.86 and 77.29, respectively.

~Redshirt freshman Sydney Wilson saw action in three tournaments during the fall season. She also finished 11th in the Collegiate Players Tour Championship. According to O'Neil, "Sydney has the best work ethic on the team. The more tournaments she competes in, the lower her scores will be." Wilson and fellow redshirt freshman Alyssa Rainbolt represented Kansas in the Four-State Championship in early August.

~Seniors Jo Jo Hallenbeck and Jaci Hiatt will also conclude their careers at Kansas and will look to improve in spring competition. "As a senior, Jo Jo has stepped up into a leadership role on the team, while Jaci is very competitive," O'Neil said. "Both have a desire to be pushed and to improve."

2006-07 Season Highlights

The 2006-07 season was a year of program firsts for the University of Kansas women's golf team. Senior Amanda Costner's historical first-place finish at the Big 12 Championship highlighted the Jayhawks' campaign.

Costner became the first Jayhawk to win the individual title at the Big 12 Championship in Waco, Texas on April 18. Costner led the individual field, firing a 71 in the first round and was the only golfer to finish under par for the day. Setting the pace throughout the three-day event, Costner shot a total of 221 (71-73-77). Prior to this year, she was also the only KU athlete to place among the top 10 individuals in scoring (seventh place in 2004) since the Big 12 began competition in 1997. As a team, Kansas finished ninth with a final score of 945.

KU began the fall season in Fort Collins, Colo., at the Ptarmigan/Ram Fall Classic hosted by Colorado State. Freshman Meghan Gockel shot a career-best 71 in her inaugural tournament. The 'Hawks finished in ninth place out of the 17-team field with a total score of 903 (295-310-298).

The Jayhawks next headed to The Chip-N Club Invitational in Lincoln, Neb. Gockel led the team throughout the tournament and shot a 74 in the final round to tie for a career-best fourth place. Fellow freshman Emily Powers also excelled and finished the tournament in 10th. KU shot a combined-total of 943 (322-317-304).

After two tournaments on the road, the Jayhawks sought to defend their home territory as hosts of the Marilyn Smith Invitational at Alvarado Golf Club. Powers fired a 72 in the final round to spark the Jayhawks to victory. Her fourth-place finish in the individual field marked a career best. The 'Hawks shot a 917 (304-306-307) as a team, 14 strokes ahead of second place, Nebraska.

Kansas next faced stiff competition at Price's New Mexico State University Collegiate Invitational in Las Cruces, N.M. The Jayhawks took 14th place with 933 shots (313-313-307). Costner, who led the team throughout the event, shot a 73 in the final round to tie for 13th, with a three-day total of 225.

The Derby Invitational presented KU's final challenge of the fall season. Inclement weather shortened The Derby to a two-round, 36-hole event. The Jayhawks took 15th place, two spots ahead of Big 12 rival Texas. Once again, Costner led the team, tying for 39th with a two-round total of 156. Gockel tied for 75th and shot a 76 in the second round, the lowest individual total of the tournament for Kansas.

The 2007 spring season began in Ensenada, Mexico, at the Baja Invitational. A fog delay halted play to two rounds, but the Jayhawks managed to shoot a combined score of 639 (322-317), and finished tied for ninth place.

The Jayhawks next traveled to Destin, Fla., for the Chrysler Challenge hosted by Florida State. Costner carded a four-over 75 in the final round, the team's best one-round score of the tournament, to tie for 22nd place. KU tied for seventh place with a three-round total of 967 (323-328-316).

Next, the Jayhawks competed at the Betsy Rawls Invitational in Austin, Texas. Costner led the team with a 15th place finish after carding a 76 in the final round. The Jayhawks finished in 11th place with a three-day total of 943.

Kansas then headed to Tucson, Ariz., where they competed in the MountainView Collegiate hosted by Colorado. Powers shot a final round and career-best 69, while Costner carded a season-best 70. The Jayhawks' final round total of 286 tied for the second-best round of the tournament and vaulted KU from sixth-place (after 36 holes) into a fourth-place tie with Missouri at 874 for the three-day event.

The KU women's golf team completed the regular season at the Susie Maxwell Berning Classic hosted by Oklahoma. The team finished fourth for the second consecutive tournament and shot a three-round total of 884.

Debbie Van Saun
Associate Athletics Director-
Senior Woman Administrator

Debbie Van Saun, former assistant city manager of Lawrence, Kan., since 2000, joined the Kansas athletics staff as Associate Athletics Director, Senior Woman Administrator, in July 2007.

In her position as assistant city manager, Van Saun provided direct supervision to the Planning, Neighborhood Resources, Parks and Recreation, Public Works, and Utilities departments. Her responsibilities included oversight of the Public Safety Departments and the development of the annual operating budget for the City of Lawrence - $140,842,355 in 2008. She also assisted the City Manager with day-to-day management of the city staff, which included personnel management, daily interaction with all department heads, and frequent interaction with elected officials. She also played a leadership role in negotiations with Lawrence Police Officers Association.

Van Saun was assistant utilities director for the city of Lawrence from 1989 to 2000, during which time she provided direct supervision to the clerical, technical, and professional staff responsible for providing water and wastewater services to the community. Prior to that she served as the city's assistant finance director (from 1985-1989) and as collections supervisor (from 1979-1985).

Van Saun, who grew up in Wichita, Kan., earned undergraduate (Bachelor of Science in Education) and graduate (Master's in Public Administration) degrees from the University of Kansas. She serves on the Board of Directors of The Shelter, Hilltop Child Development Center and People's Bank. She has also served on the Board of Directors of Court-Appointed Special Advocates and the Red Cross.

Van Saun's husband, Paul, played varsity football for KU in the 1970's and owns Van Saun Decorating Service in Lawrence. They have two adult children - Kristen Van Saun Toner, a 2006 graduate of KU Law School, currently working for Chief U.S. District Judge John Lungstrum, and Joseph, a CPA with Deloitte & Touche LLP. Kristen was a four-year member of the Notre Dame swimming team; Joseph was a four-year member of the Boston College swimming team.

ALVAMAR GOLF CLUB

Alvamar opened for play on May 15, 1968, with two original nines, Jayhawk and Quail Creek, which were joined by the Hidden Valley nine in 1973. The Sunflower nine opened in 1978; in 1982, the Hidden Valley and Sunflower nines became Alvamar Country Club.

Alvamar was named by developer Bob Billings from the contraction of his parents' names, Alva and Margaretta Billings of Russell, Kan. In all, the Alvamar Golf and Country Clubs encompass over 3,000 acres of West Lawrence. The 36 holes at Alvamar were designed by Mel Anderson and Bob Dunning and include a public and private clubhouse, driving range and three practice greens. The two courses at Alvamar were the first in the United States to utilize zoysia grass for its fairways and tees. The course currently uses cohansey bent green on both surfaces.

In 1991, Alvamar Country Club hosted the Kansas Amateur. Alvamar Golf Club annually hosts the Kansas Open and has been the site of the United States Golf Association's Women's Public Links tournament. It was the site of the Big Eight Conference Men's Championship for eight consecutive years, and in 1990, the Big Eight Conference Women's Championship was held at Alvamar and won by the Kansas Jayhawks. Alvamar Golf Club hosted the inaugural Big 12 Women's Championships in 1997 and has been the site of KU men's Kansas Invitational and women's Marilynn Smith Sunflower Invitational.

Having been honored as one of the "best maintained golf courses in the United States" by Grounds Maintenance Magazine, Alvamar continues to improve its attractive golf venue. At Alvamar Golf Club, the Director of Golf is former KU player and former women's head coach, Brad Demo. Randy Townner serves as head professional at Alvamar Country Club.

Alvamar Country Club is considered one of the finest golf courses in the state. Alvamar's reputation is one of the reasons KU attracts some of the top golfers in the country.

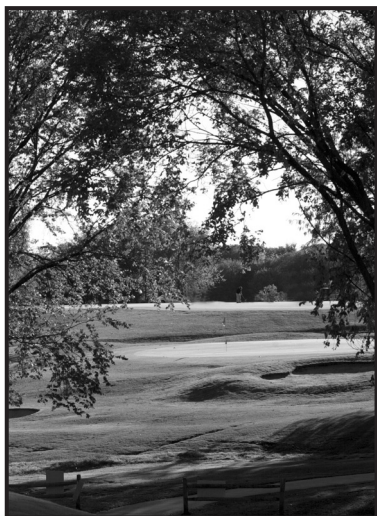

KNAPHEIDE FAMILY KU GOLF PRACTICE FACILITY

The Jayhawk Training Center is the newest addition to the University of Kansas' golf facilities. New renovations are in store for the training center in the near future.

Through a generous contribution from H.W. "Knap" Knapheide III, his wife, Ann, and many others, the Knapheide Family Practice Facility is a project that will completely renovate the current long-game practice facility at Alvamar Golf Club and allow for private teeing areas for KU golfers.

"Our program is very lucky to have the privilege of playing and practicing at Alvamar each day," women's head coach Erin O'Neil said. "The staff is very supportive, and both courses and practice facilities are a great asset for our collegiate players."

The Knapheide Family Practice Center will add to the already state-of-the-art practice facility, which includes a short-game practice area with a three-tiered green allowing tee-to-green measurements to extend nearly 140 yards, making the whole play as long as par-3. Five bunkers surround the 16,000 square feet green, making it possible for any short game shot to be simulated. The coaches agree that the facility can be considered one of the biggest impact makers in the development of the golf program.

"It is definitely considered a state-of-the-art practice facility," men's head coach Kit Grove said. "I can't think of a greater benefit for our program than what Mr. Knapheide has done for us. His generous contribution will really help our team and the golf program at the University of Kansas."

Funded by a combination of donations and the Margin of Excellence Fund, both teams helped erect the facility in the latter part of the 2001 season. Due in large part to the contributions of past players and alumni, the facility will soon be recognized as one of the best in the country. Larry Flatt and Flatt Associates, designer of many short-game areas and course remodelings, designed the facility that is located on the back nine of Alvamar Golf Club.

The practice area, finished in the Spring of 2004, added to the already-present excellence of Kansas golf. In addition to this new practice area, ground will be broken on a new indoor hitting facility in the coming months.

"We look forward to the driving range renovations at Alvamar," O'Neil said. "We will then have top of the line practice facilities in all areas of the game. Currently, the short-game facilities and both courses provide great opportunities for our players to get better every day."

2008 JAYHAWK BIRDIE CLUB KU GOLF BOOSTER ORGANIZATION

Our golf coaches, Kit Grove, Erin O'Neil, and Sarah Trew, along with the student-athletes of our golf program need your help. Our two golf teams require a tremendous amount of fan and financial support to be successful, especially in the Big 12 Conference. The Jayhawk Birdie Club combines those two important aspects of our golf program.

Throughout the calendar year, we will monitor the total number of birdies our teams make and update it on our team web site at www.kuathletics.com. We ask that you make a pledge for each birdie or eagle our teams score in tournaments throughout 2008 as well as a pledge for each team's academic success and tournament victories.

Ultimately, low scores are the best way for our teams to succeed, and the Jayhawk Birdie Club is great motivation for shooting them. Our players are very excited that they have direct involvement with and responsibility for this part of our fundraising efforts.

You may support the men's team, the women's team, or both. Your donation is roughly 80 percent tax deductible (priority points credit and member benefits) and will be used solely for the KU golf teams. We use the funds for a variety of purposes, including special projects, travel and equipment. Additionally, your contribution to KU Golf will count toward the priority system for men's basketball and football seating.

Please contact Assistant Coach Sarah Trew if interested at 785/864-3382 or strew@ku.edu.

Marilynn Smith Kansas All-American 1949

At age 77, Marilynn Smith, or "Miss Personality", remains an influential figure in the world of women's golf. Smith, who resides in Goodyear, Ariz., currently teaches golf and hosts a tournament in her name.

A native of Topeka, Kan., Smith was one of the original 13 founders of the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) in 1950. Smith won 21 tournaments while on tour with the LPGA, including the 1963 and 1964 Titleholders, one of the major women's events at the time. Her first LPGA title was in 1954 at the Fort Wayne (Ind.) Open, and her final tournament win came in 1972 at the Pabst Ladies Classic.

Before Smith's founding of the LPGA, she left a legacy at Kansas. She won the Kansas Women's Amateur Championship from 1946 to 1948, and was crowned champion of the 1949 National Collegiate Individual tournament.

Following the title, Smith accepted an offer from Spalding to turn pro for $5,000 a year. From 1954-72, and in 14 of those years, she won at least one tour event. Along with serving as LPGA's president from 1958 to 1960, Smith made history when she was a reporter at the 1972 U.S. Open Championship. She became the first female television commentator to cover a men's golf tournament.

She has also formed many golf tournaments, including the Marilynn Smith Founders Classic - the first senior women's professional golf tournament - and currently is the host of the Marilynn Smith Dallas EWGA Golf Championship.

In 1979, Smith received the inaugural Patty Berg Award for distinguished service to women's golf. Golf Digest presented her the LPGA Founders Cup for charitable service off the course in 1983.

She was also selected as one of the Distinguished Champions of the Vincent T. Lombardi Tournament in 1987. The award recognized leadership in sports and demonstration of high ideals of public good. Later, Smith was inducted into the Women's Sports Foundation International Hall of Fame in 1991.

The collegiate tournament, The Marilynn Smith Invitational, was named in her honor, and teams from around the country have competed in it since 1993.

To cap off her previous achievements - professionally, personal and amateur, Smith was recently inducted into the 2006 World Golf Hall of Fame through the Lifetime Achievement category.

Shelly Triplett McCalla Four-time Letterwinner 1989-92

In her first year as a Jayhawk in 1988, Shelly Triplett McCalla proved that she was a great asset to the University of Kansas women's golf team.

Participating in all 10 events as a freshman, McCalla held a stroke average of 78.9, leading the 1988-1989 Jayhawks. She placed second to lead the Jayhawks in four tournaments (Air Force Academy Falcon Classic, UTEP Invitational, Utah Dixie Classic and the Snowbird Intercollegiate). McCalla also led the team in best single round score (72), low tournament round (73.3) and best finish (second).

As a sophomore, McCalla continued to shine as a Jayhawk. She won the WSU Shocker Classic with a final score of 240. Kansas went on to win the Big Eight Championship for the first time in school history. McCalla placed in a tie for fifth with a final score of 235. In the same year, the Jayhawks advanced to the NCAA Regionals.

Throughout her college career, McCalla continued to be a major aid in the success of the women's golf team. As a senior, she won the McCall/Alabama Intercollegiate with a final score of 226. That same year, McCalla was named a National Golf Coaches Association Scholar-Athlete.

Since college, McCalla has competed in Topeka's city tournament and won the event three straight years (2000-2002). She also participated in the 2002 KWGA Amateur Championship where she finished third. In July 2003, McCalla participated in the Club Championship at the Shawnee Country Club in Topeka, Kan. After the first round of the tournament, she set a club record by shooting three-under par 70. During the second round, she broke her own record by shooting 68, followed by a third round score of 69. Two months later, McCalla shot a hole-in-one.

McCalla, her husband Ryan, and their two children Luke, and Chessa, currently reside in Topeka, Kan. As a stay-at-home mom, McCalla enjoys golfing with her family, including her two children.
