

COMPLIANCE

Meals in Conjunction with Competition

Quick Guide

Home Competition

All student-athletes are permitted to receive meals at the institution's discretion beginning with the evening before competition and continuation until they are released by institutional personnel. An institution shall not provide cash to student-athletes in lieu of meals during this time period. An institution, at its discretion, may provide a meal or cash (not to exceed $15), but not both, to student-athletes at the time of their release by institutional personnel.

Away-from-Home Competition

An institution may provide meals to student-athletes in conjunction with away-from-home competition pursuant to one of the following options:

- (i) All student-athletes are permitted to receive a pregame or postgame meal as a benefit incidental to participation in addition to regular meals. An institution, at its discretion, may provide cash, not to exceed $15, in lieu of a postgame meal; or

- (ii) All student-athletes are permitted to receive meals at the institution's discretion from the time the team is required to report on call for team travel until the team returns to campus. If a student-athlete does not use team travel to return to campus, he or she may receive meals at the institution's discretion up to the point he or she is released from team-related activities by the appropriate institutional authority. An institution shall not provide cash to student-athletes in lieu of meals under this option before their release. An institution may provide a meal or cash, (not to exceed $15), but not both, to a student-athlete at the time of his or her release by the institutional authority, regardless whether he or she uses team travel to return to campus.
