TEAM NOTES

- Over the first 5:15 of action, the Jayhawks went 1-of-5 from the field and committed six turnovers.
- The Jayhawks 14 first-half turnovers were the most in a half since KU gave it away 14 times in the second half versus Oklahoma State on Jan. 18, 2014.
- Kansas finished with 24 turnovers marking the most turnovers in a game since KU also tallied 24 turns at Iowa State on Jan. 13, 2014.
- Kansas' four-point deficit at half is just the fifth time that the Jayhawks have trailed at the break. KU drops to 4-1 when trailing at halftime.
- The Cyclones' 19-point lead (75-56) with 2:46 remaining marked the Jayhawks' largest deficit of the season.
- Kansas' 60 points at Iowa State was the fewest points scored by the Jayhawks this season and just the third time in 2018-19 that KU has been limited to 70 or less points.
- KU only managed four points off ISU's 12 turnovers, marking the fewest points off turnovers since Jan. 23, 2016, when the Jayhawks only scored three points off turns against Texas in Lawrence.
- The Jayhawks outrebounded the Cyclones, 41-26. KU's 41 boards mark the fifth game in a row that Kansas grabbed 40 or more rebounds.
- Kansas netted 32 points in the paint, marking the second game in a row with 30 or more points in the paint and seventh on the year.
- KU led for just 5:55, the shortest amount of time it has led this season and the fewest since the Jayhawks never led in a loss at Oklahoma State (3/3/2018) last season.

OPPONENT NOTES

- Marial Shayok's 5-of-5 clip from 3-point range marked the first time a Jayhawk opponent has been perfect from beyond the arc with at least five attempts since Oklahoma State's Desmond Mason also went 5-of-5 against KU on Feb. 7, 2000.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

RS-Junior forward Dedric Lawson

- Lawson notched his 10th double-double of season and 46th of career his career after recording 13 points and 12 rebounds.
- With his miss from the charity stripe at the 6:58 mark of the opening half, Lawson's string of 15-straight makes from the free throw line was snapped. The streak began against South Dakota (12/18)

Freshman guard Quentin Grimes

- Grimes recorded a double-digit scoring effort for the third-straight game after netting 19 points, two points shy of his career high. Grimes has scored in double figures six times this season.
- Grimes scored 14-straight points for the Jayhawks, starting at the 6:16 mark of the first half and ending at the 18:53 mark in the second half.
- In his last three outings, Grimes is 6-of-16 from 3-point range. This after going 2-of-22 from beyond the arc in his previous eight games.

Senior guard Lagerald Vick

- Vick's seven turnovers were the most by a Jayhawk since Josh Jackson committed eight turnovers against Oklahoma on Feb. 27, 2017.
