KANSAS' WIN...

- Made Kansas 7-0 for the second-straight season and sixth time in head coach Bill Self's 16 seasons at KU
- Made KU 2-0 in the month of December for the fourth time in the last five seasons
- Moved Kansas to 163-1 under Bill Self when holding its opponent to 59 points or fewer.
- Made Kansas 1-0 all-time versus Wofford and 12-0 against current membership of the Southern Conference
- Gave Kansas its ninth-straight win in Allen Fieldhouse, including a 4-0 record this season
- Made KU 238-13 in Allen Fieldhouse under Self and 777-113 all-time in the venue
- Made Self 454-96 while at Kansas and 661-201 overall
- Made Kansas 2,255-849 all-time.

TEAM NOTES

- The Jayhawks' seven turnovers were a season low. It also marked the fewest giveaways since KU had 7 turnovers at Iowa State on Feb. 13, 2018.
- The Jayhawks outscored the Terriers by a margin of 30 in the paint (46-16). This season Kansas is averaging 42 points in the paint.
- After Wofford cut the Jayhawk lead to two points following an eight-two run, Kansas responded with a 27-0 run over a span of 8:49 to up 78-41. During that stretch, Kansas was 12-of-16 from the floor (75 percent).
- The Jayhawks held Wofford to just three fast break points. Since Louisiana posted 23 fast break points on 11-16, the next four KU opponents have combined to tally a total of 5 fast break points.

OPPONENT NOTES

- Wofford's 47 points marked an opponent season-low for the Jayhawks. This total was the lowest by a Jayhawk foe since the Montana Grizzlies scored 46 in the 88-46 KU win on Dec. 19, 2015.
- Wofford's 19 offensive rebounds are the most by a KU opponent since TCU also pulled down 19 offensive boards on Jan. 6, 2018.

- Kansas forced 18 Wofford turnovers on Tuesday night. Kansas has now forced 18 or more turnovers three times in its 7 games this season. Last year, the Jayhawks forced 18+ opponent turnovers 3 times in 38 games.
- The Jayhawks were able to convert their 18 turnovers into 25 points. Kansas has scored 25 or more points off opponent turnovers three times already this season.
- Wofford entered the game averaging 11 three-point field goals per game this season. The Jayhawks held the Terriers to season lows in both three-point field goals (5) and three-point percentage (19.2).
- Kansas held Wofford's leading scorer, Fletcher Magee, to 1-of-14 (7.1 percent) shooting and 0-for-9 from behind the arc. The last Jayhawk opponent to miss all nine of his attempts from deep was Georges Niang of Iowa State on Jan. 13, 2014.
- The Jayhawks held Wofford to a field goal percentage of 26.2, which was 21.1 percent below their season average of 47.5 percent per game. This is the lowest opponent shooting percentage since Kansas held Texas to 21.8 percent (12-55) on Feb. 16, 2013.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

Senior guard Lagerald Vick

- Vick was held scoreless for the first time since Feb. 1, 2017, his sophomore season, when the Jayhawks played No. 2 Baylor at home.

RS-Junior forward Dedric Lawson

- Lawson set a season high in blocks with three his most as a Jayhawk.
- With his 20 points against Wofford, Lawson eclipsed the 20-point mark for the fifth time this season.

Freshman guard Devon Dotson

- His 16 points marked the fourth-straight game he hit double figures and the third time this season he has tallied 16 or more points.

Freshman guard Quentin Grimes

- After tallying two points on 1-of-4 shooting in the first half, Quentin Grimes tallied 12 points on 5-of-6 shooting and added a pair of rebounds and an assist in the second half.

Freshman forward David McCormack

- The Kansas big man set a career high with six points.

Junior center Udoka Azubuike

- Suffered an ankle injury with 11:38 remaining in the first half. Following the game, head coach Bill Self noted that Azubuike will miss an indefinite amount of time due to a high-ankle sprain.

Freshman guard Garrett Luinstra

- Made his Kansas debut when he entered with 1:02 in the second half.
