KANSAS' LOSS...

- Made Kansas 15-3 and 4-2 in conference play for the first time since the 2015-16 season when KU was also 4-2
- Marked its first to a team 0-5 or worse in Big 12 play since KU fell at TCU (0-8) on Feb. 6, 2013.
- Ended a Kansas four-game winning streak against West Virginia and made the KU-WVU series 10-5 in favor of Kansas, 2-5 in games played in Morgantown with all seven meetings at WVU Coliseum
- Made Bill Self 462-99 while at Kansas, 669-204 overall and 10-5 all-time versus West Virginia (10-5 while at KU)
- Made Kansas 2,263-852 all-time

TEAM NOTES

- The Jayhawks were held without a 3-point field goal in a half (0-6 in the first half) for just the second time this season. KU was also held without a triple in the first half against Stanford (12.1.18).
- Kansas tallied one assist in the first half marking the lowest by the Jayhawks in a half since Kansas recorded just one in the first half against Stanford (12/1/18).
- West Virginia's eight first half steals were the most by a KU opponent in a half since Oklahoma State had 8 swipes in the first half of a March, 3 2018 contest.
- The 23-23 tie in the first half marked both the fewest points in a half by KU as-well-as the fewest points allowed in the first half by the Jayhawks this season.
- After neither team made a shot from three in the first half, Kansas and West Virginia opened the second half going a combined 5-5 from beyond-the-arc in the first 4:05.
- With Kansas leading 64-58, West Virginia finished the game on a 7-0 run spanning 2:14. Kansas went zero its last five from the field.
- Kansas' six assists is the fewest in a conference game since KU posted six against Texas Tech on Feb. 18, 2014.
- West Virginia entered the game averaging 14.8 offensive rebounds a game, ranking it fifth in the nation. Kansas limited the Mountaineers to just five offensive boards.
- The 17 lead changes marks the most this season.
- The loss marked the second time this season KU has been defeated after leading with 5:00 remaining in regulation. The Jayhawks are now 13-2 on the season and 424-17 in the Bill Self era when ahead with five minutes to play.
- KU outrebounded West Virginia 34-28, marking the 11th time this season Kansas has edged its opponent on the glass.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

Senior guard Lagerald Vick

- His 13 points moving him past Cole Aldrich (1,038), Carl Henry (1,044) and Nolen Ellison (1,045) to sit 51st all-time in Kansas scoring at 1,046 points.
- His double-digit performance marked the 13th 10+ point game this season.
- With two makes from deep, Vick moved past Jerod Haase (156) for 14th all-time in three point makes at 157.

RS-Junior forward Dedric Lawson

- Lawson finished with 15 points and 11 rebounds marking the 12th double-double of the season and 48th of his career.
- Scored eight of the Jayhawks' final 12 points.

Sophomore guard Marcus Garrett

- Garrett followed a career-high performance against Texas with a 15-point outing against West Virginia marking his second-straight double digit game, the ninth in his career.
- Garrett collected a career-high six steals, marking the most by a Jayhawk since Xavier Henry racked up seven steals against Baylor (1/20/10). His steal total marked the most by a KU sophomore since Mario Chalmers tallied six thefts against UCLA (3/24/07).

Freshman guard Devon Dotson

- His seven turnovers marked a career high and tied for the most by a Jayhawk this season.
