OFFENSIVE NOTES

- Junior wide receiver Kwamie Lassiter II caught a 28-yard touchdown pass for his first of the season and second of his career. Lassiter's previous touchdown reception came against Oklahoma State in 2018. The reception also marks the longest of Lassiter's career.
- Senior quarterback Carter Stanley's 275 passing yards moved him to ninth in career passing yards at KU with 3,232.
- Stanley completed a 75-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Andrew Parchment for the longest play for a touchdown this season. The pass also marked as the shortest offensive scoring drive of the season, taking just 12 seconds.
- Stanley completed 19 passes in the game to tie him for ninth on the career pass completions list with Jordan Webb at 300.
- Stanley's three touchdown passes put him into the top-10 for career touchdown passes at KU.
- Parchment's 75-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter marked the longest reception of his career.
- Parchment recorded his second touchdown of the game on a three-yard reception to match his career high of touchdowns in a game.
- Parchment set a new career high in receiving yards, finishing with 132 in the game.
- Junior wide receiver Stephon Robinson Jr., had a career-high five receptions for 48 yards.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

- Senior HAWK Najee Stevens-McKenzie had his first-career assisted sack, along with senior defensive end Darrius Moragne.
- Junior linebacker Dru Prox got his second sack of the season for a loss of 10 yards in the second quarter.
- Sophomore defensive tackle Caleb Sampson recorded his first-career sack in the second quarter for a loss of seven yards.
- Junior HAWK Kyrion Johnson set career high in tackles finishing the game with nine.
- Senior safety Jeremiah McCullough matched his career high with two pass breakups in the game.
- In his KU debut, sophomore linebacker Cooper Root recorded his first-career tackle.
- Junior wide receiver Kameron McQueen recorded his first-career tackle.
