KANSAS' WIN...

- Made Kansas 10-2 or better for the sixth-straight season and for the 13th time in the 17-year Bill Self era.
- Saw KU close the 2010s decade with a 302-68 record. The 81.6 winning percentage over the last 10 years is the second-highest for a decade in program history (1990s - 82%).
- Made KU 95-13 following a loss since the 2003-04 season.
- Made Kansas 5-2 in games not played in Allen Fieldhouse this season and 1-1 in true road games.
- Made the KU-Stanford series 12-3 in favor of the Jayhawks, giving KU four-straight series wins.
- Improved Self to 483-108 while at Kansas and 690-213 for his career.
- Made Kansas 2,285-861 all-time.

TEAM NOTES

- KU's defense held Stanford scoreless for the first 7:49 of the game and without a field goal for the first 11:49 of the contest. The Cardinal started the game 0-of-14 while KU jumped out to a 15-2 lead in that span.
- Stanford's 18 points and five field goals in the opening frame were both seasons lows by a KU opponent in a half.
- Stanford made just five shots in the first half, the fewest field goals by a KU opponent in a half since Syracuse connected on five in the first half on Dec. 2, 2017.
- Kansas held Stanford to just 18 points in the first half, the fewest by a Jayhawk opponent in a half this season.
- KU led 28-18 at the break marking the ninth time this season the Jayhawks have led at the half. Kansas is now 9-0 in those contests with a 392-31 clip in the Self era.
- KU outrebounded the Cardinal by 19 (44-25), the biggest rebound margin of the season and the largest since outrebounding Omaha by 23 on Dec. 18, 2017.
- Kansas' 72 points marked the most scored against Stanford this season.
- The Jayhawks never trailed on the night, leading for a total of 39:08.
- KU forced 19 Stanford turnovers, marking the seventh time the Jayhawks have forced their opponent into 16 or more giveaways this season.
- KU committed more turnovers than Stanford, marking the seventh time this season KU has lost the turnover battle. Kansas is 5-2 in those contests with a record of 190-73 in the Self era.
- The Jayhawks held their opponent to under 60 points for the second consecutive game and sixth time this season. KU is now 5-1 in those meetings with a mark of 173-2 in the Self era.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

Senior Udoka Azubuike

- Grabbed a team high 13 rebounds, marking the fifth time this season he has pulled down double-digit boards.
- Azubuike's seven offensive rebounds were the most by a Jayhawk since Detric Lawson pulled down seven against Iowa State on Jan. 21, 2019.
- Azubuike's 0-for-5 mark from the free throw line is the most attempted without a make by a Jayhawk since Richard Scott went 0-for-6 against Oklahoma on Mar. 6, 1994.

Senior Isaiah Moss

- Scored a team-high 17 points to lead the team in scoring for the second time this season.
- Went 4-of-7 from 3-point range, this after going a combined 1-for-8 in his previous two outings.

Sophomore Devon Dotson

- Tallied 14 points, marking the 18th-straight 10-plus point game. The last time Dotson didn't score in double digits was against Oklahoma on Mar. 5, 2019.

Freshman Christian Braun

- Tied his season/career-best by hitting three 3-pointers, going 3-of-4 from beyond the arc.
