KANSAS' WIN...

- Gave KU its 300th win during the 2010's decade, now at 300-67 since Jan. 1, 2010. KU trails only Gonzaga (304-54) in overall wins in that span.
- Pushed the Jayhawks' record to 151-7 in Allen Fieldhouse during the 2010's. Tuesday marked KU's final game in Lawrence this decade.
- Made Kansas 8-1 or better for the second straight season and for the 10th time in the 17-year Bill Self era.
- Made the KU-Milwaukee series 2-0 in favor of the Jayhawks.
- Extended Kansas' home court winning streak to 26 games with 25 of those in Allen Fieldhouse.
- Gave Kansas its 13th-consecutive victory against non-conference foes in Allen Fieldhouse and made KU 46-6 versus non-league competition in Allen Fieldhouse in the Self era.
- Made KU 5-0 in Allen Fieldhouse this season, 793-113 all-time in the venue, including 255-13 under Self.
- Improved Self to 481-107 while at Kansas and 688-212 for his career.
- Made Kansas 2,283-860 all-time.

TEAM NOTES

- Kansas opened the night on a 17-1 run with nine coming from Ochai Agbaji while forcing Milwaukee to go 0-for-7 from the field. The Jayhawks added to its lead with a 17-3 run late in the first half to take a 40-12 lead with 6:32 remaining.
- The Jayhawk's eight makes from deep in the first half marked the second time this season that Kansas has hit eight shots from beyond-the-arc in a half with the other coming against Monmouth on Nov. 16, 2019.
- Milwaukee's nine rebounds in the first half is the fewest by a Kansas opponent since the Jayhawks held Auburn to just eight rebounds in the second half on Mar. 23, 2019. It was the fewest by a non-conference foe in a regular season game since Toledo tallied five on Nov. 28, 2017.
- Kansas' halftime lead marked the seventh time this season KU has led at the break, the Jayhawks are 7-0 in those contests with a clip of 390-31 in the Self era.
- The Jayhawks outrebounded Milwaukee 29-9 in the first 20 minutes of play. Senior center Udoka Azubuike accounted for 10 of KU's boards, two offensive and eight defensive.
- Milwaukee's 35 attempts from three marked the most by a KU opponent since Villanova tallied 40 tries from deep on Mar. 31, 2018.

- The Panthers eight turnovers was the fewest by a Kansas opponent since Auburn committed just seven on Mar. 23, 2019. The clip was also the lowest by a non-conference opponent in a regular season game since Temple tallied four on Jan. 6, 2013.
- The two teams combined for 63 three-point attempts, the most by a Kansas team and its opponent since KU and Duke posted 65 attempts on Mar. 25, 2018.
- KU's 54.2 percent from the field marked the third-straight game and the sixth time this season Kansas has shot 50 percent or better, the Jayhawks are 6-0 in those contests with a 257-9 record in the Self era.
- The Jayhawks have now scored 90 or more three times this season with a perfect 3-0 record in those contests along with a 67-1 mark in the Self era.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

Senior Udoka Azubuike

- Azubuike recorded his third double-double of the season. It marked the 11th double-double of his Kansas career.
- His career-high 17 rebounds replaced his previous mark of 13 set against Texas on Dec. 29, 2017.
- His 13 defensive rebounds marked the most by a Jayhawk since Andrew Wiggins grabbed 14 against Iowa State on Jan. 13, 2014.
- Azubuike's 7-of-7 mark on the night were the most field goals without a miss by a Jayhawk since Silvio De Sousa went 8-for-8 against West Virginia on Mar. 10, 2018. The performance was the fifth perfect shooting night for Azubuike in his career, his first since going 4-for-4 against Baylor on Feb. 10, 2018.
- With his one block, Azubuike sits tied with Darrell Arthur for 16th all-time in block shot history at Kansas with 109 blocks.

- Tallied a season-high 22 points off a 6-of-9 mark from the field.
- Agbaji's five makes from deep were the most by a Jayhawk since Isaiah Moss tallied five against Monmouth on Nov. 15, 2019. The five makes also tied his career high, previously set against Oklahoma State on Feb. 9, 2019.
- Added eight rebounds and three assists.

Sophomore Devon Dotson

- Finished the night with 22 points on a 7-of-16 night from the field. Dotson's 16 attempts tied a career high, a mark he hit twice previously with the most recent against Dayton on Nov. 27, 2019.
- Scored 10-plus points for 15th-straight games. The last time Dotson didn't score double digits was against Oklahoma on Mar. 5, 2019.
- Set a career high with nine assists, eclipsing his previous mark of eight set against BYU on Nov. 26, 2019.
- His 9-to-1 assist-to-turnover ratio was the second-best of his career in games when he's tallied 5 or more assists.

Junior Marcus Garrett

- Matched his career high with seven assists, a clip he set against Chaminade on Nov. 25, 2019.
