STARTING LINE

BIG 12 CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

This weekend's Big 12 Indoor Championship marks the 24th in conference history, dating back to 1997, including the 11th held at the Lied Recreation Center in Ames, Iowa. At last year's Big 12 Indoor Championship, the Kansas men finished third, while the KU women placed third in the overall team standings. Senior Sharon Lokedi led the Jayhawks by scoring 20 points, winning both the women's 3,000 meters and 5,000 meters. Over the history of the Big 12 Indoor Championship, Kansas has claimed the team title once in 2013, while the Jayhawks account for three Big 12 Championship meet records in its history.

JAYHAWKS AT NO. 21 IN LASTEST USTFCCCA RANKINGS

Entering conference championship weekend, the Kansas men rank No. 21 in the U.S. Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association (USTFCCCA) week five rankings, marking the 16th-consecutive ranking in the top-25. The Jayhawk men stand at No. 5 in the Big 12, with the Texas men leading the way, ranking No. 4 in the country. The Kansas women come in at No. 69, which ranks 7th in the Big 12.

LAST TIME OUT

Last weekend, the Jayhawks competed in the Arkansas Qualifier in Fayetteville, Arkansas, which was highlighted by the KU women's 4x400 meter relay, which ran the No. 7 time in KU history at 3:34.41. The Jayhawks' time placed them first in the Big 12 and No. 10 in the country entering this weekend. The 4x400 meter relay team was made up of senior Mariah Kuykendoll, junior Zantori Dickerson, senior Jedah Caldwell and junior Honour Finley.

DUDAREV LANDS ON BOWERMAN WATCH LIST

Kansas senior Gleb Dudarev made his second appearance on The Bowerman Watch List this season on Feb. 6, which recognizes the top college track and field athletes in the country. Dudarev has found his place on the Bowerman Watch List on four occassions in his career, with the last two coming during the 2018 season. Dudarev made history at the Jayhawk Classic earlier this season, throwing the No. 5 mark in NCAA history of 24.39m (80-00 ft.) and No. 1 mark in the NCAA this season.

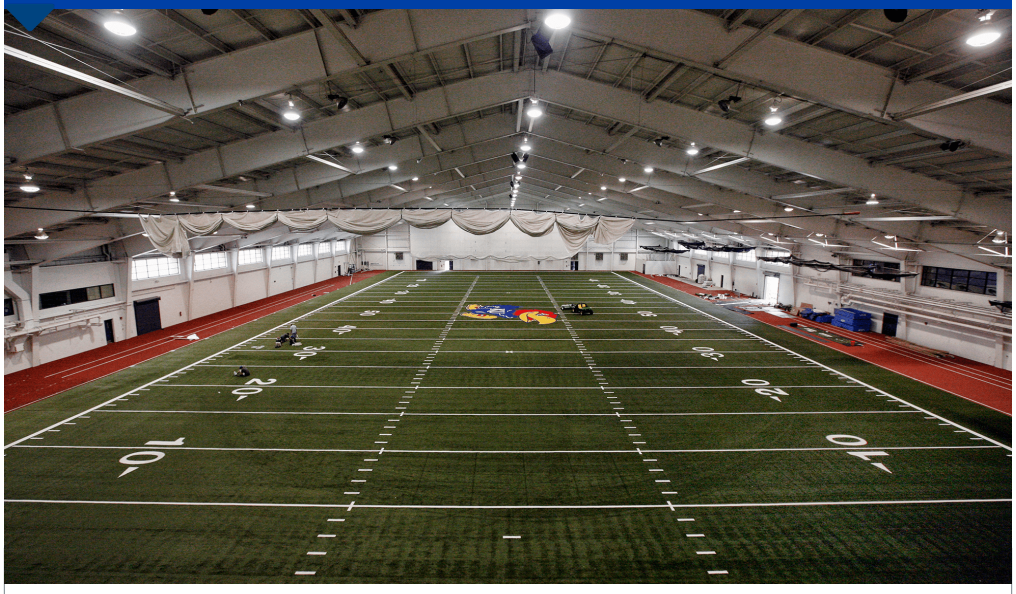
ANSCHUTZ SPORTS PAVILION



The indoor practice facility for many Jayhawk teams, Anschutz Pavilion is a 40,000-square-foot multi-purpose building which includes the Bill Easton Track and Ray Evans Field, indoor competiiton homes for Kansas track and field. The complex was renovated in August of 2011 and features a new turf surface. The pavilion is named for Fred Anschutz, a 1933 alumnus who was its chief donor, and was dedicated Oct. 27, 1984.

The Bill Easton track was originally installed in 1984 when Anschutz Pavilion was constructed. The track was resurfaced in 1999 before a complete overhaul in 2011 by Beynon Sports Surfaces, which converted the track to a 200-meter six-lane track, with eight lanes on the sprint straightaway, the standard for indoor facilities, from a 231-meter oval.

BSS reconfigured and upgraded the track surface with Beynon' state-of-the-art BSS 2000 track and field surface with proprietary Hobart texture, and made other significant improvements, including the reconfiguration of the long jump and triple jump pits and the addition of a new pole vault box and runway.

The improvements were primarily targeted for a better student-athlete experience, but also helped optimize the overall experience for the competitors as well as the fans of KU track and field.

During the overhaul, Kansas also replaced the existing turf with a 70,300-square foot AstroTurf GameDay Puregrass system. Additionally, a new Daktronics results board measures 18 feet high by 16 feet wide and was installed with a new sound system.

NOTABLES

RETURNING BIG 12 CHAMPS

The Jayhawk return three indoor Big 12 Champions from a year ago, including Gleb Dudarev (weight throw), Ethan Donley (Distance Medley Relay) and Cody Johnson (Distance Medley Relay). All three Jayhawks will be back in action this weekend, as they look to top the podium for a second-straight season.

FOUR KU ENTRIES RANK IN TOP-20 OF NCAA

Heading into the final competition before the NCAA Championship qualifiers are announced, the Jayhawks have four entries that rank in the top-20 of their event, including two that rank in the top-five. Among them, Gleb Dudarev (weight throw) ranks No. 1 in the NCAA, while Zach Bradford ranks No. 3 in the men's pole vault. NCAA Championship qualifiers will be announced upon the conclusion of all conference championships.

Kansas Athletes Ranked in the Top-20

1	Gleb Dudarev	Weight Throw	Jayhawk Classic
2	Zach Bradford	Pole Vault	Tyson Invitational
10	Women's	4x400 Meter Relay	Arkansas Qualifier
19	Alexandra Emilianov	Shot Put	Tyson Invitational

BIG 12 ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

Throughout the 2020 indoor season, two Jayhawks have claimed Big 12 Athlete of the Week honors, including Gleb Dudarev and Zach Bradford. Dudarev earned his fourth-career Big 12 Athlete of the Week honors on Jan. 29, after throwing his record breaking mark of 24.39m (80-00 ft.) at the Jayhawk Classic, making him one award shy of tying the most Big 12 Athlete of the Week honors in a career (Ryan Crouser - 5). Zach Bradford earned his first-career Big 12 Athlete of the Week honors on Feb. 12, after initially setting the KU indoor school record in the pole vault at the Frank Sevigne Husker Invitational. Bradford would go on to break the record again at the Tyson Invitational the following week at 5.80m (19-0.25 ft.)

REDWINE SELECTED FOR TEAM USA OLYMPIC STAFF

Kansas track and field head coach Stanley Redwine was selected to serve as a men's assistant coach - distance for Team USA at the 2020 Tokyo Olympics, USATF announced on October 30, 2019. It marks Redwine's first coaching selection for an olympic team, while he will be joined by former Kansas Relays Meet Director, Tim Weaver, who will serve as the Head Manager for Team USA at the Olympic Games.

UP NEXT

Following this weekend's Big 12 Indoor Championship, the NCAA will announce the qualifiers for the 2020 NCAA Indoor Championships in Albuquerque, N.M., which takes place on March 13-14. The NCAA accepts the top-16 individual entries in each event and the top-12 entries in the relays.

HEAD COACH STANLEY REDWINE

Stanley Redwine is entering his 20th season at the helm of the Kansas track & field and cross country programs during the 2019-20 seasons, making Redwine the second-longest tenured head coach in the program's history, behind only Bob Timmons who coaches the Jayhawk programs for 23 years.

Already a member of the Kansas Athletics Hall of Fame, Redwine is one of the most well-respected coaches in the United States. A former All-American himself at the University of Arkansas, Redwine has helped coach his Jayhawks to 273 All-America honors, 139 Big 12 individual titles, 20 individual national crowns, two Big 12 team titles and one NCAA team championship.

Redwine's national championship came for the Jayhawk women's outdoor team in 2013, making it the first women's team title in KU history. For his coaching efforts that season, Redwine was named the NCAA's Women's Head Coach of the Year.

A five-time Big 12 Coach of the Year, Redwine has coached 21 individual champions, 284 All-Americans, eight Olympians and 23 national championship teams between his years as head coach at Kansas and Tulsa and an assistant coach at Arkansas.

During the 2018-19 season, Redwine guided the Kansas men to top-15 NCAA finishes both indoors and outdoors, of which the Jayhawk men added seven All-American honors. During the same season, Bryce Hoppel completed a perfect season between the indoor and outdoor seasons, winning 19 consecutive races including NCAA Indoor and Outdoor titles in the 800 meters. Hoppel's performance at the NCAA Outdoor Championships of 1:44.41 was the fifth-fastest 800 meter time by a collegian ever.

The 2017-18 year proved to be a highly successful one for the head coach in his 18th season with school records being broken 16 times. Redwine coached Sharon Lokedi to her second-straight Big 12 Women's Cross Country individual title, the Kansas women's indoor team to a second-place finish at the Big 12 Championship (earning him Big 12 Women's Indoor Coach of the Year honors), Hussain Al Hizam to a national title in the pole vault NCAA Men's Indoor National Championships and Lokedi to a national championship in the 10,000-meter run at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. His athletes also won 11 individual Big 12 titles and 34 All-America honors during the 2018 track & field seasons. At the NCAA Indoor Championships, the men's and women's teams both posted top-20 finishes for the first time in program history.

Redwine's last seven years at Kansas have perhaps been the most successful stretch in his career, with the women's team NCAA title coming in 2013 and having seven individual national champions. He also led the men's team to its highest conference finish in over 30 years in 2016, claiming second at the Big 12 Outdoor Championship before following it up with runner-up finishes at both the indoor and outdoor conference meets for the men's team in 2017 and an 11th-place finish at the 2017 NCAA Outdoor Championships, the highest finish by the Jayhawk men since taking seventh in 2010.

His coaching accolades over the last six years prove his success, as he was named the Big 12 Women's Indoor and Outdoor Coach of the Year in 2013, the USTFCCCA Midwest Region and National Women's Coach of the Year in 2013, the 2016 Big 12 Men's Outdoor Coach of the Year, the 2017 USTFCCCA Midwest Region Men's Indoor and Outdoor Coach of the Year, and the aforementioned 2018 Big 12 Women's Indoor Coach of the Year.

Adding to his accolades, four of Redwine's athletes competed in the Games of the XXXI (31st) Olympiad in the summer of 2016. Kyle Clemons was a member of the USA's gold-medal winning 4×400-meter relay team, Andrea Geubelle played 21st in the triple jump while representing the United States, Mason Finley took 11th for the USA in the discus and Daina Levy placed 30th in the hammer throw, representing her home country of Jamaica.

The 2013 season marked a historic year for the women's program. In addition to the NCAA Outdoor title, the Jayhawks claimed both the indoor and outdoor conference titles and Redwine saw his athletes earn first team All-America honors 27 times during the indoor and outdoor campaigns. Lindsay Vollmer became Kansas' first female NCAA Champion with her win in the heptathlon while Andrea Geubelle and Natalia Bartnovskaya both tallied national titles at the NCAA Indoor meet.

Redwine pupil Diamond Dixon not only claimed a national championship, four conference titles and four more All-American honors in 2012, but also won a gold medal at the Olympics in London as part of the 4×400-meter relay team.

Behind NCAA Champion Jordan Scott's performance at the 2010 NCAA Outdoor Championships, the KU men's team finished seventh at the national meet, which was the highest finished for the Kansas men at the outdoor championships since taking fifth in 1975. Scott claimed the pole vault title for the first time in his career, while freshman thrower Mason Finley took home second place in both the shot put and discus at the NCAA Outdoor meet.

In 2008, Redwine coached 12 track & field All-Americans, which was then the most he had coached in one season in his time at Kansas.

In the summer of 2008 in Beijing, China, Redwine athletes Scott Russell and Nickesha Anderson represented their respective countries in the Games of the XXIX (29th) Olympiad. Russell finished in 10th place for Canada in the men's javelin, while Anderson was an alternate on Jamaica's women's 4×100-meter relay team.

Redwine oversaw Egor Agafonov to his second-consecutive National Championship in the weight throw, as well as his fifth and sixth All-America honors (weight throw, hammer throw) and his third-consecutive Big 12 Championship, in both the hammer throw and the weight throw.

In the 2008 indoor track & field season, Kansas was just one of 10 schools to have both its men's and women's teams finish in the top 25 at the NCAA Championships. At the NCAA Outdoor Championships, senior Crystal Manning (long jump and triple jump) and junior Nickesha Anderson (100 meters and 200 meters) each won two All-America honors. Only one other woman (Candace Mason) had previously accomplished the feat in KU history.

As an athlete, Redwine placed his name in the Arkansas history books as a 400-meter, 600-yard and 800-meter runner from 1980-83. Redwine was a four-time All-American and was named Arkansas' Outstanding Track Athlete all four of his years in Fayetteville. Redwine went on to spend nine years as an assistant coach at his alma mater.

During his tenure, the Razorbacks captured nine consecutive NCAA Championships and 22 titles from 1985 to 1994 in both track & field and cross country. He helped produce 14 All-Americans and two NCAA Champions in the hurdle and sprint events. Among those All-Americans were two-time 400-meter NCAA indoor and outdoor champion Calvin Davis, three-time 400-meter and 500-meter NCAA champion Robbie Haley and seven-time All-American sprinter Jimmy French.

His success as an assistant earned him the head coaching position at the University of Tulsa in 1994. In six years at Tulsa, Redwine's athletes broke more than 70 school records, most on multiple occasions. He produced 11 NCAA qualifiers and Tulsa's first-ever All-American.

On May 25, 2000, Redwine was rewarded for his efforts by being hired as the head coach at the University of Kansas. The Jayhawks' track & field program has prospered ever since, as he has restored the tradition of KU's illustrious past.

Professionally, Redwine retired from competition in 1996 after he finished fifth in the 800-meter run at the U.S. Olympic Trials in Atlanta, Georgia. He was a U.S. Olympic Trial qualifier five-straight times from 1980 to 1996 and was a two-time silver medalist in the 800-meter run at the Goodwill Games in 1986 and 1994. He won bronze medals at the Pan American Games in 1983 and 1987. Redwine was also a World Championship team member in 1985, 1987, 1989, 1991 and 1993 and a two-time U.S. 800-meter champion.

Redwine earned his bachelor's degree in administrative management from the University of Arkansas in 1985. He and his wife, Jacqueline, have three children; Crysta, Stanley Jr., and Alexa.
