KANSAS' WIN...

- Brought Kansas to 3-1 for the second-straight season and 3-1 or better for the 15th-consecutive season dating back to 2006-07.
- Gave KU its 48th-straight home-opening win, beginning in 1973-74 under head coach Ted Owens.
- Made Kansas 39-3 over Washburn, including 14-straight wins for the Jayhawks in the series.
- Gave KU its ninth-straight win in Allen Fieldhouse.
- Improved KU to 802-114 all-time in Allen Fieldhouse, including 265-14 under head coach Bill Self.
- Made Bill Self 504-110 while at Kansas, 710-215 overall.
- Made Kansas 2,305-863 all-time.

TEAM NOTES

- Kansas had its highest run, going 14-0 in the second half, while holding the Ichabods to a scoring drought for six minutes.
- Kansas had its largest lead of 35 points with 17 seconds remaining in the second half after a 3-point jumper from freshman Latrell Jossell.
- Kansas was led by four players (Jalen Wilson, David McCormack, Ochai Agbaji and Bryce Thompson) in double-figures scoring, marking the third time this season the Jayhawks had three or more players in double-digits. The Jayhawks had four players in double-figures against Gonzaga on Nov. 26 and three players in double-figures against Saint Joseph's on Nov. 27.
- The Jayhawks posted their season high with a 50% shooting from behind the 3-point arc, making 13 of their 26 attempts on the night.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- Redshirt-freshman Jalen Wilson scored in double-figures for the fourth time this season, scoring 13 points on 4-of-6 shooting. Wilson's 13 points come after scoring a career-high 23 points against Kentucky on Tuesday.
- David McCormack recorded his 14th-career game in double-figures on Thursday, scoring 17 points on 7-of-8 from the field. McCormack's 17 points are a new season high for the junior forward.
- With 16 points on 5-of-9 scoring, junior Ochai Agbaji extended his double-figures scoring streak to four games this season and for the 26th time in his career. Agbaji scored a season-high 18 points against Saint Joseph's on Nov. 27.
- In just his fourth-career game as a Jayhawk, junior Tyon Grant-Foster set a career high in scoring, recording six points on 3-of-7 shooting from the field.
