INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- Marcus Garrett made the 62nd start of his Kansas career after snapping his 41-start streak last game when he was out due to injury.
- Mitch Lightfoot's four points at half tied his second most this season, done five times. The redshirt-senior finished the game with seven points.
- Jalen Wilson's six turnovers before the half was already a career high. He ended the game with seven turnovers, which marked the most turnovers committed by a Jayhawk this season. The last time a Jayhawk had seven+ turnovers in a game was Devon Dotson against West Virginia on January 19, 2019.
- David McCormack scored 17 points, his sixth double-figure scoring game of the season, his second straight and third time in the last four games.
- McCormack's 17 points made him KU's leading scorer for the second-straight game, and third time this season overall.
- Tonight marked Ochai Agbaji's seventh game this season making three or more 3-point FGs and 15th of his career. Including this game, Kansas is 15-0 when Agbaji makes three or more treys.
- Christian Braun's nine rebounds were his most in four games, since he pulled down 10 at Texas Tech (12/17). He has seven or more boards four times this season.
- Lightfoot's two blocks moved him to 17th among Kansas' all-time block leaders with 110 blocks.
- McCormack's streak of 21-made free throws ended when he missed a pair of free throws in the first half.
- Wilson pulled down 11 rebounds to lead the Jayhawks and mark his fourth game with 10+ rebounds this season.
