- Made Kansas 2,353-877 all-time, tying Kentucky for the most all-time wins.

TEAM NOTES:

- Kansas went with the starting lineup of Dajuan Harris, Jalen Wilson, Christian Braun, Ochai Agbaji and David McCormack for the 20th time this season. The Jayhawks are now 16-4 when using this starting combination.
- Kansas brought a 39-38 lead into halftime, with the Jayhawks improving to 25-3 when leading at the break.
- Kansas outrebounded the Bluejays, 47-31, improving Kansas to 25-0 when out rebounding its opponent this season.
- The Jayhawks relied on their bench, scoring 25 points as opposed to Creighton's 0. It is the second largest bench scoring margin this season, only behind the +35 margin against George Mason on Jan. 1, 2022.
- Kansas shot 95% (19-of-20) from the free throw line on Saturday, the highest percentage this season.
- Kansas previously shot 88.2% (15-of-17) against West Virginia on March 10, 2022.
- The Jayhawks had a huge presence in the paint, outscoring the Bluejays 32-14 in points in the paint on Saturday, which is the largest margin since scoring +26 (48-22) against West Virginia on March 10, 2022.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES:

- With his start on Saturday, Kansas senior Ochai Agbaji has now started 98 consecutive games, tying Keith Langford for the seventh-longest streak in school history.
- Super-Senior Mitch Lightfoot provided eight minutes on Saturday, marking his 164th career game played, which is the most in school history. The next closest is Danny Manning, who played in 147 games from 1985-88.
- Redshirt sophomore Dajuan Harris connected on a 3-pointer in the first half. The Jayhawks are 9-1 when Harris connects on at least one 3-pointer.
- Senior Remy Martin scored 20 points on 7-of-14 shooting, including 2-of-5 from beyond the arc. Martin has now hit five 3-pointers in the last three games and 22 this season.
- Martin's 20 points mark his 12th game this season with at least 10 points, including his fourth-straight.
- Martin's 20 points marked a season-high and most of his Jayhawk career, previously scoring 17 points against Dayton on Nov. 26, 2021.
