TEAMS AND INDIVIDUALS SELECTED FOR THE 2022 NCAA DIVISION I MEN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIPS

INDIANAPOLIS — The NCAA Division I Men's Golf Committee has selected the teams and individuals to participate in the regional rounds of the 2022 NCAA Division I Men's Golf Championships.

Six 54-hole regional tournaments will be conducted May 16-18. Thirteen teams and 10 individuals not on those teams will compete at each of three regionals while the other three regionals will have 14 teams and five individuals not on those teams. The top five teams and the low individual not on those teams from each regional will advance to the finals. Regional play is considered preliminary rounds of the NCAA championships competition and all national championship policies apply.

Team and individual medalist titles will be decided May 27-June 1 at Grayhawk Golf Club in Scottsdale, Arizona. Arizona State and The Thunderbirds are the hosts for the 2022 championships.

Thirty conferences have been granted automatic qualification for the 2022 regionals. Listed below are the teams and individuals selected to participate in the championships. Teams winning automatic qualification are designated by their conferences in parentheses.
