64TH AUTOZONE LIBERTY BOWL

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 28, 2022 | MEMPHIS, TENN. | SIMMONS BANK LIBERTY STADIUM

The AutoZone Liberty Bowl Classic was inaugurated on December 19, 1959 with a spectacular game between Penn State and Alabama. That game began a tradition of great stars, exciting football and was the first of 60 thrilling chapters in the history of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl Football Classic.

However, there is much more to the story. The AutoZone Liberty Bowl Classic was founded in 1959 by Ambrose F. "Bud" Dudley, a Philadelphia sports and business executive. Dudley slowly enlisted support for his plan to stage America's first and only major bowl north of the Mason-Dixon Line.

After five years in Philadelphia, Dudley moved the game indoors to the Atlantic City Convention Center and in the process made history. The 1964 AutoZone Liberty Bowl was the first indoor college bowl game. Though the game drew interest from media outlets around the country, Dudley realized that a much larger, permanent home was vital to the Bowl's long term sustainability. The following year he went looking for a new place to hold the event. His first and only stop was in Memphis.

The AutoZone Liberty Bowl has enjoyed many highlights throughout the years. But there were none more memorable than in 1982 when Alabama coaching legend Paul "Bear" Bryant ended his illustrious career in the 24th Annual Auto- Zone Liberty Bowl. Thousands of fans from across the country came to see the "Bear" coach his final game. More than 1,000 media members covered the historic event.

Another proud tradition that continues to this day is the partnership between St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. For years, this combination has brought together an internationally recognized research facility and a winning college football tradition. St. Jude is dedicated to helping the children throughout the world in their fight against catastrophic diseases.

Beginning in 2004, Memphis-based AutoZone Inc., became the Bowl's title sponsor. In 2013, the AutoZone Liberty Bowl announced new six-year partnerships with the SEC and Big 12 Conference. Those conference partnerships have been extended through 2025.

STADIUM DIAGRAM

Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium

Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium is a 136-acre multi-purpose sports and entertainment complex centered around the iconic Stadium. The Stadium was opened in 1965 as Memphis Memorial Stadium. Over the years the Stadium and Liberty Park have seen numerous renovations and expansions, and now has a capacity of 58,325. The complex has been managed by Spectra Venue Management since 2011. The Stadium is home to the University of Memphis Tigers, Southern Heritage Classic and AutoZone Liberty Bowl. In addition to football, the venue accommodates other events such as concerts, family shows, band competitions and corporate events.

Liberty Park includes the 15-acre Tiger Lane, 27,000 sq. ft. Pipkin Building, 20,000 sq. ft. Creative Arts Building and over 90 additional acres of green space and parking lots. These additional facilities and spaces are used to host festivals, run/walks, car and bike shows/races, Memphis Roller Derby, Memphis Flea Market, Bluff City Fair and a wide variety of community events. All Liberty Park facilities/spaces are available for rent.

For concerts and music festivals there are three possible locations: Stadium, Tiger Lane and Purple Lot (festival grounds).

The primary purpose of Simmons Bank Liberty Stadium in Liberty Park is to provide a first class gathering place for sports, entertainment and community events, and to transform the events hosted into amazing experiences for patrons and promoters.

CITY OF MEMPHIS

Memphis, Tennessee has taken its historical roots and leapt into the 21st century. Home to such legendary artists as B.B. King, Johnny Cash, Elvis Presley, and John Lee Hooker, Memphis' musical tradition is second to none, but the River City's appeal doesn't stop there. From Graceland and the allure of Beale St. to the National Civil Rights Museum, Memphis' offerings are as diverse and entertaining as anywhere in the Southeastern United States. Memphis has become known the world over for its special brand of smoky barbecue, so it's no wonder one of the biggest annual events in Memphis is the World Championship Barbecue Contest held in May. Boasting a growing metropolitan population of over 1.26 million, Memphis is a city that gets attention, attracts visitors and does its best to make them never want to leave.

a six-time National Champion, a five-time conference coach of the year and the fastest coach in NCAA history to reach 100 career wins, was named the 41st head coach in Kansas Football history on April 30, 2021.

Leipold's track record as a program builder showed itself early in his time in Lawrence, leading the Jayhawks to its first-ever program win in Austin, Texas in 2021, followed by Kansas' first-ever win over West Virginia in Morgantown in 2022. In just his second year at the helm, Leipold engineered Kansas to its first 5-0 start of the season since 2009, guiding Kansas to its first national rankings in 675 weeks. Soon after, Kansas Football hosted ESPN's College GameDay for the first time in program history on October 8, 2022.

Leipold helped Kansas to secure its first bowl eligibility with a win over No. 18 Oklahoma State on November 5, 2022, giving Kansas its first bowl berth since 2008. Kansas' ranked win was the first since 2010, snapping a 44-game losing streak to AP ranked opponents, while it was Kansas' first ranked win against a conference opponent at home since 2005.

Leipold arrived at Kansas after a successful six-year stay at Buffalo, where in his final three seasons, he posted three straight winning seasons for the first time in 20 years. He won 24 games over the final three seasons, which included a seven-game shortened-season schedule in 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic, marking the most successful three-year run in Buffalo history.

"I am absolutely thrilled to welcome Coach Leipold, Kelly, Lindsey and Landon to the Jayhawk Family," said Director of Athletics Travis Goff. "He is a man of integrity, a developer of young men, a program builder and a winner. His track record of sustained excellence is exactly what we were looking for in our next leader, and is what the University of Kansas and our fans deserve. His commitment to maximizing our student-athletes' abilities and experience on the field, in the classroom, in the community, and in life after KU is inspiring. Those qualities will attract individuals and develop them into exceptional Jayhawks."

"We conducted an extensive national search that was guided by feedback from many constituents and this opportunity garnered interest from outstanding coaches across the country. We have an obligation to providing a world-class experience for our student-athletes and that remained at the forefront throughout the search. Additionally, we owe our fans, donors and alumni a football program that will be built for sustained success. I am confident that is what we will provide under the leadership of Coach Leipold. This is a tremendous day for the University of Kansas!"

A proven winner with a strong track record for player development, Leipold served as the head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater for eight seasons from 2007 to 2014, capturing six NCAA Division III national championships and tallying an astounding record of 109-6.

"I am very thankful to Chancellor Girod and Travis Goff for providing me this opportunity to lead the Kansas Football program," Leipold said. "It is an exciting and humbling opportunity, and this is a day I will never forget. We are going to build this program the right way through developing players, discipline and determination. The philosophies engrained in our programs along the way will be key as we turn this around. This is a program that has a lot of young talent on the roster and has the infrastructure in place to succeed. The best days for this program are ahead, and my family and I are ecstatic to be a part of it. I am ready to get to work and give everything I have to the Jayhawks. Rock Chalk Jayhawk!"

After taking over a rebuilding Buffalo program that went 7-17 in his first two seasons, Leipold put together a record of 30-16 over his final four seasons, including three bowl appearances and two bowl victories with the Bulls.

Leipold is coming off a 2020 season at Buffalo that brought unprecedented success to the program. The Bulls went a perfect 5-0 in the regular season and won the MAC East Division title for the second-straight year. Leipold's squad also beat Marshall in the Camellia Bowl for the program's second ever bowl win and second in as many years.

Buffalo also appeared in the Associated Press Top 25 at No. 24 on December 6, 2020, marking the first-time in school history the Bulls appeared in the national rankings. The team finished the season ranked 25th in both the AP poll and the Amway Coaches Poll. Leipold was named the MAC

Coach of the Year for the second time in his career after the record-breaking season.

Showcasing his pristine reputation for player development and a keen eye for recruiting, Buffalo tied a school-record with 12 All-MAC selections in 2020, all of whom were recruited by Leipold. Running back Jaret Patterson led the way, rushing for 1,072 yards in just six games, including a 409-yard performance against Kent State, which is the second-best performance in FBS history.

Patterson was named the winner of the Vern Smith Leadership Award, given to the MVP of the MAC and was also named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year under Leipold's tutelage.

Buffalo also had 12 all-conference players in 2019, a season that culminated in the school's first-ever bowl victory – a 31-9 win over Charlotte in the Makers Wanted Bahamas Bowl. The 2019 team featured one of the best defenses in the school's history. Buffalo ranked seventh nationally in total defense, allowing 291.9 yards per game. The Bulls were also fourth nationally against the run, allowing 94.2 yards per game.

In 2018, Buffalo won 10 games in a season for the first time ever in program history. Leipold's team went 7-1 in MAC play and won the East Division title. The Bulls also won 42-13 at Rutgers, marking the school's first-ever win over a Power 5 opponent. He was named the MAC Coach of the Year and was also a semifinalist for the George Munger College Coach of the Year Award.

In that 2018 season, the Buffalo offense had a record-breaking season. Buffalo scored 484 points, 64 touchdowns and totaled 5,803 yards of total offense, establishing new school records in each category. Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the MAC Offensive Player of the Year, while Patterson earned MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In Leipold's third season in 2017, the Bulls gained bowl eligibility for just the third time as an FBS program. The Bulls offense averaged 432 yards per game and led the conference in passing yards per game at 291. Showing an ability for explosive plays, Buffalo produced 20 plays of 45 or more yards on the season.

Leipold became the head coach at Buffalo in December of 2014 after a triumphant career as the head coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater, which saw him earn six National Coach of the Year awards. In his first season there in 2007, the Warhawks went 14-1 and won the Division III national championship. In 2008, the team made it back to the title game and fell to Mount Union.

Wisconsin-Whitewater then went 45-0 over the next three seasons, winning three straight national championships. After a 7-3 campaign in 2012, Whitewater went 30-0 combined in 2013 and 2014 winning two more national titles with Leipold at the helm.

During his time there, Warhawk players totaled 56 All-America honors, with running back Justin Beaver winning the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen won the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Running back Levell Coppage earned D3Football.com Offensive Player of the Year honors, while Cole Klotz won those honors on the defensive side.

Leipold, a native of Jefferson, Wisconsin, began his coaching career at Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin in 1991, where he served as a graduate assistant for Barry Alvarez for three seasons and helped the Badgers win a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

He then served as an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, helping the Mavericks become three-time conference champions. He was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, before moving on to Nebraska where he worked for Frank Solich for four seasons. He then returned to Nebraska-Omaha for three years as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator, before moving on to Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2007.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater, where he was a standout quarterback.

Leipold and his wife Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR BRIAN BORLAND

Brian Borland joined the Kansas football staff as defensive coordinator in May 2021. He came to KU after six seasons at Buffalo under KU head coach Lance Leipold.

Complementing a record-breaking offense, Buffalo's defense also had a strong season in 2020. The Bulls led the Mid-American Conference in total defense (360.4) and ranked second in the league in scoring defense (21.9). Buffalo led the MAC in sacks for the second straight year with 20 in a shortened season, which the Bulls went 6-1. Three members of the Buffalo defense were named All-MAC in 2020.

In 2019, Borland oversaw a defense that was arguably one of the best in school history. The Bulls led the MAC and ranked seventh in the nation in total defense, allowing 291 yards per game. Buffalo was especially stout against the run, allowing only 94.2 yards per game – good for fourth best in the national rankings and tops in the conference. Seven members of the Buffalo defense were named All-MAC in 2019.

Buffalo ranked third in the MAC in total defense in 2018, allowing 355.4 yards per game – less than two yards per game behind first place. The Bulls ranked second in the conference with 14 interceptions in 2018. It was the most by a Buffalo team since 2013. Eight different players recorded interceptions on the year.

Borland led a unit that ranked fifth in the MAC in scoring defense (24.8) in 2017 and had three defensive players were named All-MAC.

In 2016, Borland guided a defense that led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense, allowing 181.5 yards per game.

The Bulls were a very opportunistic defense in 2015, as they scored a school-record seven defensive touchdowns (by seven different players) to rank second in the nation. Three members of Borland's defense were named to the All-MAC team in 2015.

Borland also oversaw the development of five players who were either drafted or signed as NFL free agents during his time at Buffalo, while 20 defensive players earned all-conference honors during his tenure.

Prior to Buffalo, Borland spent the previous 21 seasons at Wisconsin-Whitewater. Since 2002, Borland served as the Warhawks defensive coordinator.

Borland began at UW-W in 1994, also serving as the defensive backs coach. He was a 2015 Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame inductee.

Borland was named Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2013 by Footballscoop.com after helping lead the Warhawks to the NCAA Division III national championship, the team's fifth in seven seasons. UW-Whitewater led the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 9.1 points per contest, and ranked No. 1 in the country in fumbles recovered (19) and turnovers forced (44) in 2013.

From 2009-14, Borland's defenses led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. The Warhawks also led the league in pass efficiency from 2010-13. During his time at Wisconsin-Whitewater, Borland coached at least one first-team all-conference player at his position from 1994 to 2014. He also coached the D3Football.com National Defensive Player of the Year on three separate occasions (2006, 2008 and 2013).

Borland earned Wisconsin Collegiate Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association in both 2004 and 2006. In 2009, Borland led the Warhawks to the fourth-best scoring defense in Division III. In 2010, the Warhawks were ranked second in NCAA Division III in run defense. In 2011, Borland's rushing defense was ranked first in the WIAC.

From 1994-2002, Borland also coached track and field at UW-Whitewater. In 2000, he led the Whitewater women's track and field team to a fourth-place finish at the NCAA Division III Outdoor Track and Field Championships. He earned NCAA D-III national coach of the year honors for his successful season.

Prior to Whitewater, Borland was the defensive coordinator for three years at Baker University (Kan.) from 1991-93, and at the University of Minnesota-Morris from 1989-90. He also was the head women's softball coach at Baker University and head track and field coach at Minnesota-Morris. Borland's other stops include stints as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Florida and at the University of Wisconsin. He also coached defensive backs at Arizona Western College.

Borland played his college football at Morningside (Iowa) College (1981-84) where he was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at defensive back, and a team captain.

COACHING HISTORY

2021-Present	Kansas (Offensive Coordinator)
2015-21	Buffalo (Offensive Coordinator)
2013-14	Wisconsin Whitewater (Offensive Coordinator)
2011-12	University of Mary (Offensive Coordinator)
2011-12	Wisconsin-River Falls (Offensive Coordinator)
2004-05	Western Illinois (Assistant Coach)

Andy Kotelnicki joined Lance Leipold's staff in May 2021 as the offensive coordinator. Kotelnicki came to Kansas after seven seasons at Buffalo.

In his second season with the Jayhawks in 2022, Kotelnicki is overseeing one of the prolific offensive attacks in school history. Through 10 games, the Jayhawks are averaging 7.33 yards per play this season, which ranks second nationally behind Ohio State (7.60). The program record for yards per play in a season is 6.40, set in 1950. Kansas has seven plays of 60 or more yards on the season. The seven plays of 60 or more yards are tied for fifth most in the country, behind only TCU (9) and Air Force, Florida and UAB (8).

Kansas has posted five games of 500 yards or more of total offense already this season in 10 games. That is the best mark since the 2007 team posted seven such games in 13 contests. From 2018 to 2021, Kansas posted six games of 500 or more yards of total offense in 45 games. During that span, the Jayhawks topped the 500-yard mark twice against conference opponents. This season, KU has already topped the 500-yard mark against three conference opponents.

The Kansas offense also ranks fourth in the country in team passing efficiency (171.99), seventh in third down conversion percentage (51.7%), 17th in scoring offense (36.9), 18th in rushing offense (210.5) and sixth in fewest sacks allowed (0.80 per game). Several key offensive players are having standout seasons under Kotelnicki's guidance. Running back Devin Neal is averaging 6.70 yards per carry, which is seventh in the country and second in the Big 12. He has eight runs of 30 or more yards on the season, which is tied with UCLA's Zach Charbonnet for second-most in the country behind UAB's DeWayne McBride.

Neal became the first Kansas running back since June Henley in 1996 to rush for at least 190 yards in back-to-back games after rushing for 224 yards against Oklahoma State and 190 yards against Texas Tech.

In four-plus games, quarterback Jason Bean has 14 touchdown passes, which puts him tied for eighth in school history in single-season touchdown passes. He is knotted with Mark Williams (1995), Frank Seurer (1983) and Dick Gilman (1948). Bean is also one of just five Power 5 quarterbacks in 2022 to have back-to-back games of 250 yards passing and four touchdown passes.

Quarterback Jalon Daniels has also experienced breakout success under Kotelnicki in 2021 and 2022. In nine games over 2021 and 2022, Daniels has thrown 18 touchdown passes to four interceptions, with eight rushing touchdowns.

Through 10 games, Kansas is averaging 444.6 yards per game, which would be the program's second-best mark since 1950, behind only the 2007 team. The 2021 final tally over the past 10 seasons for the Jayhawks.

Kansas currently has the second-most improved offense in the country in points per game and the third-most improved in yards per game.

In his first season with the Jayhawks, Kansas saw marked improvements in several key offensive categories. The Jayhawks averaged 324.2 yards per game, after averaging 259.2 yards in 2020. The offensive line allowed just 16 sacks in 12 games after surrendering 47 in nine games the season before Kotelnicki arrived.

Additionally, the Kansas offense averaged 5.2 yards per play in Kotelnicki's first season at Kansas after the program averaged 3.7 yards per play in 2020. The Jayhawks also saw their 3rd down conversion percentage increase by 13 percent and its rushing yards per game total increase by more than 35 yards. Kansas also increased its points per game by five a contest and turned the ball over one less time in three more games.

Daniels also excelled under Kotelnicki during the coordinator's first season on campus. Daniels led Kansas to a 57-56 overtime win at Texas in November, before starting the final two games – a pair of one-possession losses at TCU and against West Virginia. Daniels' stats were much improved from his debut season of 2020. He threw seven touchdown passes in 2021 after tossing just one in 2020. He threw for 213 more yards and completed 19 percent more of his passes than he did the season before Kotelnicki arrived.

In his first season, Kotelnicki led the Jayhawks to a 530-yard performance at Duke and a 57-point performance in a win at Texas. The Jayhawks rushed for a season-best 218 yards against the Longhorns.

Before arriving at Kansas, Kotelnicki worked beside head coach Lance Leipold at Buffalo, where he directed some of the best offenses in school history.

Despite a shortened season in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Buffalo offense still posted historic numbers while going 6-1. The Bulls averaged a school-record 478.4 yards of total offense per game and a school-record 287.4 yards per contest rushing. Buffalo ranked second in the nation in rushing offense (287.4) and fifth in the nation in scoring offense at 43.5 points per game. Also in 2020, Buffalo rushed for 32 touchdowns, four shy of the school record for a single season in only seven games. Bulls All-American running back Jaret Patterson led the nation in rushing, averaging 178.7 yards per game. Against Kent State, the Bulls scored a school-record 70 points. Also against the Flashes, Patterson tied an FBS record with eight rushing touchdowns and rushed for 409 yards, the second most ever in an FBS game. He and Kevin Marks combined to rush for 515 yards, which, at the time, was the most ever by two players in an FBS game.

As a result of Buffalo's successful 2020 season, Kotelnicki was named one of four finalists for the FootballScoop Offensive Coordinator of the Year Award. He was the only finalist from a non-Power 5 conference.

In 2019, Kotelnicki's offense rushed for 3,256 yards, shattering the single-season school record. Patterson rushed for a school-record 1,799 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2019 and ranked fifth in the nation in rushing. Fellow Buffalo sophomore Kevin Marks rushed for 1,035 yards – marking the first time in school history UB had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season.

Buffalo featured a record-breaking offense in 2018. The Bulls shattered the program record for single-season total offense posting 5,803 yards on the year. Buffalo scored 64 offensive touchdowns in 2018, which was also a school record.

Patterson became the first freshman in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a season, finishing with 1,013 yards en route to being named the MAC Freshman of the Year. Patterson scored 14 touchdowns and fellow running back Marks scored 13 touchdowns, marking the first time in school history two different players scored 13 or more touchdowns in the same season.

Quarterback Tyree Jackson was named the 2018 MAC Offensive Player of the Year – the first time in school history a Buffalo player won the award. In addition, seven offensive players were named All-MAC in 2018.

Buffalo's offense made significant progress under Kotelnicki in 2017. The Bulls ranked second in the MAC in total offense, averaging 432 yards per game. Other notable numbers from the 2017 season included ranking sixth in the nation in most improved scoring offense; sixth in the nation in most improved passing offense; eighth in the nation in turnovers lost; third in the MAC in points per possession; second in the MAC in fewest 3-and-outs; third in MAC in total offense and first in the MAC in third down conversion percentage.

Prior to Buffalo, Kotelnicki spent two seasons at Wisconsin-Whitewater as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

At UWW, Kotelnicki led an offense that led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5) in 2014 en route to a perfect 15-0 season and the programs' sixth Stagg Bowl national championship in eight seasons.

The Warhawks featured one of the most efficient offensive attacks in the nation under Kotelnicki's leadership in 2013. Whitewater led the WIAC and ranked among the top five in the nation in first downs (311), interceptions allowed (1) and turnover margin (+2.3).

The Warhawks offense also led the conference in red zone offense, converting scores on 85.9 percent of drives inside the 20-yard line, and set single-season team records in passes completed (312) and passing touchdowns (42) in 2013.

Prior to Whitewater, Kotelnicki served as offensive coordinator at the University of Mary, an NCAA Division II school in Bismarck, N.D., for two seasons. In his first year as coordinator, the Marauders scored over 10 points per game more than the previous season and led the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference in scoring offense, total offense and passing efficiency. During his tenure, Kotelnicki mentored nine All-NSIC North Division honorees, the sixth 1,000-yard rusher in the school's history and an All-America wide receiver.

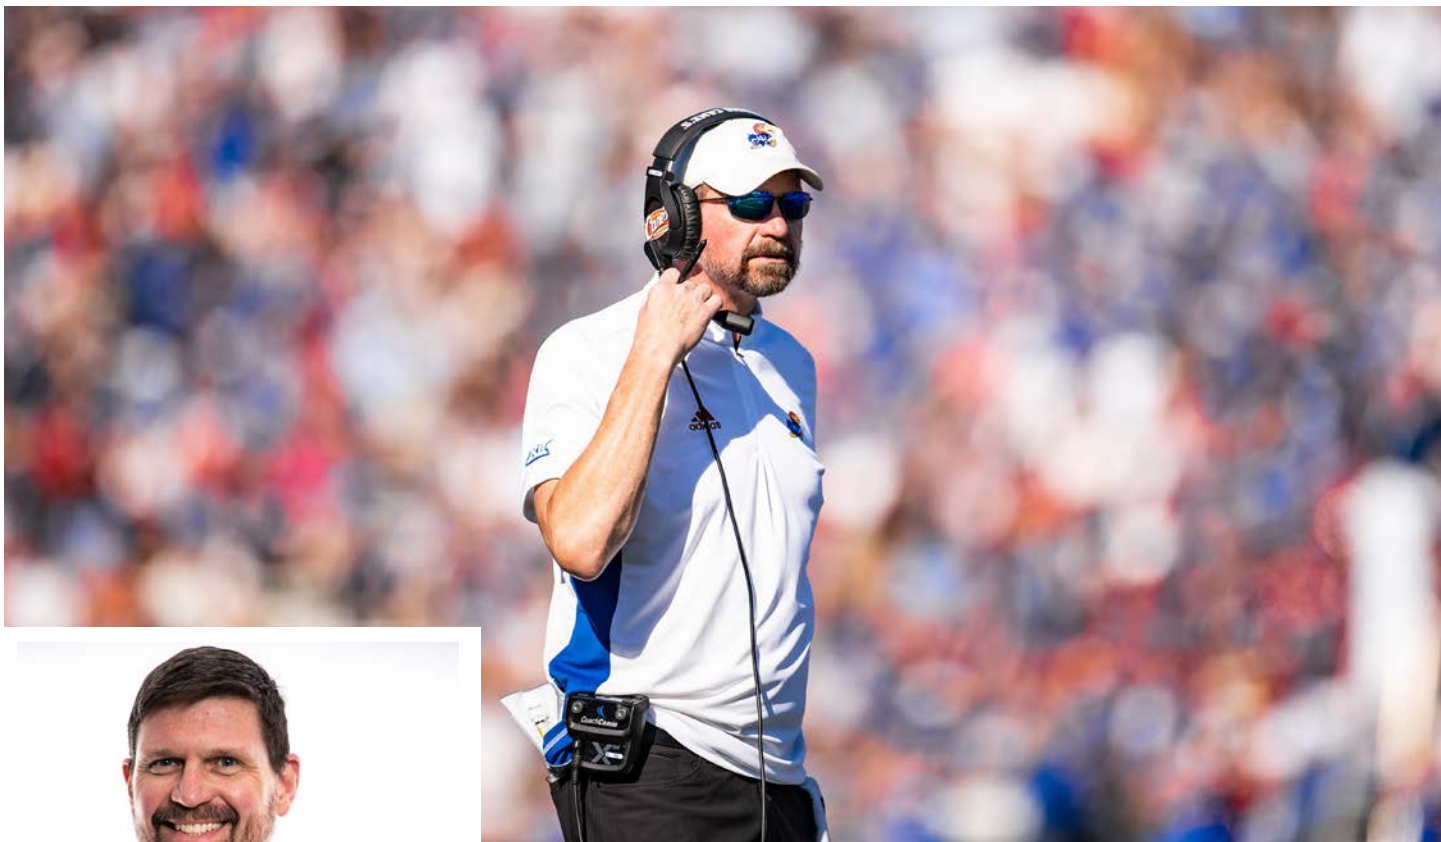

Kotelnicki spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UW-River Falls, including four as offensive coordinator, in 2003 and from 2006-10. The Falcons set 24 offensive school records during his second stint, and he was promoted to assistant head coach for the 2010 campaign.

Kotelnicki worked at Western Illinois, where he coached tight ends, special teams and the offensive line, from 2004-06. He was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2004-05 and the interim strength and conditioning coach in 2006.

After earning a bachelor's in exercise and sport science from UW-River Falls in 2004, Kotelnicki picked up a master's in kinesiology from Western Illinois in 2006. He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association.

Kotelnicki and his wife, Lindsey, have a son, Max, and daughter, Joy.

Fuchs has worked with Kansas head coach Lance Leipold at various stops, including Buffalo and Nebraska-Omaha from 2004-06.

While at Buffalo, Fuchs has helped build the offensive line into one of the strongest units on the team. In 2020, Buffalo ranked second in the nation in rushing yards per game (287.4) and allowed only one sack on the season, which tied for the fewest in the country. Three of the Bulls' starting offensive linemen were named All-MAC, including Kayode Awosika who in 2021 signed an NFL free agent contract to play for the Philadelphia Eagles. Awosika was second-team All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

ASSISTANT COACH/SPECIAL TEAMS TAIWO ONATOLU

Taiwo Onatolu serves as an assistant coach working with the defensive ends and special teams under head coach Lance Leipold.

Onatolu spent the 2021 season as an analyst on the Jayhawks' staff, before being promoted to an assistant coach in 2021. Onatolu previously worked at Buffalo as the defensive ends coach for three seasons and the cornerbacks coach for four seasons. While with the Bulls, he also coaches the specialists and had a stint as the director of player personnel.

During the 2020 season, Onatolu guided UB's defensive ends to record 12.5 of UB's 20 sacks to lead the MAC. Malcolm Koonce led the way with five sacks en route to earning All-MAC First Team honors for the second-straight season.

Under the guidance from Onatolu, the defensive unit was one of UB's strongest in 2019 as UB players ranked 1-2-3 in the MAC in sacks on the season behind Malcolm Koonce's (9), Taylor Riggins' (8.5) and Ledarius Mack's (8) stellar seasons. Koonce and Riggins were named to the All-MAC First Team and Mack was a second-team selection. Defensive ends accounted for 27.5 of the school-record 43 sacks the Bulls registered in 2019.

In 2018, Buffalo ranked fifth in the Mid-American Conference in pass defense, allowing 194 yards passing per game. The Bulls recorded 14 interceptions, eight of which came from cornerbacks. In 2016, UB's defense led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense - allowing 181.5 yards per game.

Prior to his stint at Buffalo, Onatolu spent five seasons at Missouri State working as an inside linebackers coach. In his first season at Missouri State in 2011, guided senior in David Ingram and a redshirt freshman in Andrew Beisel to outstanding seasons. Beisel went on to record a team-high 84 tackles, becoming the first MSU freshman since 1998 to lead the team in total stops and earned MVFC All-Newcomer Team distinctions.

Ingram, who started all 11 games, tallied 77 tackles and finished third on the squad.

In 2012, Onatolu used five different starters in his rotation, including Beisel who led all middle linebackers with 73 stops in 10 games. Redshirt sophomore Christian Hoffmann brought down 41 ball carriers with five starts in an impressive debut campaign.

It was Beisel and Hoffmann who led Onatolu's inside backers again in 2013. Beisel tallied 96 stops while starting 12 games and earned All-MVFC honorable mention honors his junior campaign, while Hoffman earned nine starts with 36 stops. The tandem helped MSU rank among the national leaders in red zone defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and passing defense, while ranking as one of the top defensive units in the MVFC.

A native of Papillion, NE, Onatolu served as an assistant at his alma mater from 2007-10 at the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

As a student-athlete, Onatolu was a standout linebacker at UNO, starting four seasons for the Mavericks, earning All-NCC First Team honors three times and All-America First Team honors in 2004. Onatolu has a twin brother, Kenny, who has enjoyed a professional career that began with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League and included stints with the Minnesota Vikings and Carolina Panthers. He was also an All-NCC linebacker.

Onatolu and his wife, Jennifer, have a son, Isaiah.

ASSISTANT COACH JIM PANAGOS

Jim Panagos joined Kansas head coach Lance Leipold's staff as the program's new defensive tackles coach on February 1, 2022. Panagos brings more than 20 years of collegiate and NFL coaching experience with him to Lawrence.

Panagos spent the past two seasons at Rutgers, coaching the defensive line. He has also coached the defensive line at Minnesota, Temple and UCF, in addition to spending four seasons with the Minnesota Vikings.

"Coach Panagos is an excellent addition to our coaching staff, and I'm very excited to work with him," Leipold said. "He has a strong reputation as an outstanding recruiter, as well as a track record of developing his players. His experience and philosophies align well with our defensive staff and will benefit our defensive tackles and our defense as a whole."

The 2009 FootballScoop National Defensive Line Coach of the Year and a former Broyles Award nominee, Panagos has coached more than 20 future NFL players during his time as a college coach.

In 2020 at Rutgers, the Scarlet Knights led the Big Ten and ranked 11th nationally in tackles-for-loss per game at 7.8. Three Rutgers defensive linemen earned honorable mention All-Big Ten in Michael Dwumfour, Julius Turner and Mike Tverdov. The Rutgers defense also forced 19 turnovers, which marked the program's most in a season since 2012. This past season, Turner earned honorable mention All-Big Ten honors again as the Rutgers defense totaled 73 tackles-for-loss.

Panagos spent the 2019 season at Minnesota, helping the Gophers to a 10-2 record and a spot in the Outback Bowl. Prior to that, the veteran defensive line coach spent two seasons at Temple, first as the defensive line coach and the second as the assistant head coach/run game coordinator. In 2018, Panagos helped the Temple defense rank among the top three nationally in defensive touchdowns, forced turnovers and fumble recoveries. The Owls also ranked second in the American Athletic Conference in total defense, passing defense and three-and-outs.

In 2017, Panagos earned a nomination for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's top assistant coach annually. That season,

Before arriving at Rutgers, Panagos spent five seasons as the defensive line coach at UCF. He helped the program reach three bowl games, including a win in the 2010 Liberty Bowl over Georgia. In his first season at UCF in 2007, the Knights recorded 39 sacks, which ranked 15th in the country. In 2009, he was named the National Defensive Line Coach of the Year by FootballScoop, while Jarvis Geathers (11) reached double digits in sacks. Also that year, Torell Troup was a second-round pick of the Buffalo Bills.

In 2011, UCF's defense ranked fourth in the country behind Florida State, South Carolina and Alabama.

Before his time in the college ranks, Panagos spent four seasons with the Minnesota Vikings as an assistant defensive line coach and defensive and offensive quality control.

ASSISTANT COACH TERRENCE SAMUEL

Terrence Samuel joined the Kansas football staff under head coach Lance Leipold as the program's new wide receivers coach in December of 2021. Samuel comes to Lawrence with 24 years of college football coaching experience.

The Houston native most recently served as the wide receivers coach at Syracuse, and has also spent time at Michigan State, UNLV, Central Michigan, Arizona, North Dakota State, Southeast Missouri State and Nebraska-Omaha, where he worked alongside Leipold.

"We are very excited to add Coach Samuel to our staff, as he has a proven track record of success and player development on and off the field," Leipold said. "Scott Fuchs and I have both worked with Terrence before, and I'm confident this will continue to help build our program alignment. He is a relentless recruiter, who works very hard at building relationships with the players in his position room."

This past season at Syracuse, Samuel oversaw a young Syracuse receivers room, whose top three pass catchers were all freshmen or sophomores. The team's leading receiver, redshirt freshman Courtney Jackson, had his best game in his final game, catching eight passes for 92 yards and two touchdowns.

Samuel spent the 2020 season at UNLV, where the Rebels played just six games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In that one season, receiver Kyle Williams set the program record with 5.8 receptions per game and went on to earn freshman All-America honors and was named the Mountain West Freshman of the Year.

Prior to his one season at UNLV, Samuel spent nine seasons at Michigan State. During his time with the Spartans, Samuel mentored two Big 10 Receivers of the Year in Tony Lippett (2014) and Aaron Burbridge (2015), while his receivers garnered All-Big Ten recognition eight times. Samuel also helped produce five NFL draft picks and another six players who made active NFL rosters.

Lippett and Burbridge were both first-team all-conference selections while B.J. Cunningham, R.J. Shelton and Felton Davis III all earned second-team honors under Samuel's tutelage.

Cunningham, Lippett and Burbridge were all draft picks as was Keshawn Martin (2012) and Keith Mumfrey (2015). In addition, Bennie Fowler played six seasons in the NFL as an undrafted free agent.

Samuel was a part of eight bowl teams during his nine seasons with Michigan State. The Spartans earned trips to two New Year's Six bowls (Rose Bowl and Cotton Bowl) and a trip to the College Football Playoff in 2015, in addition to an Outback Bowl appearance and a Holiday Bowl appearance, among others.

Before spending nearly a decade at Michigan State, Samuel spent the 2010 season at Central Michigan. During that season with the Chippewas, wide receiver Cody Wilson recorded just the sixth 1,000-yard season in program history, tallying 83 receptions for 1,137 yards.

Samuel spent two seasons at North Dakota State from 2008-09, prior to his time at Central Michigan. In 2007, Samuel served as the offensive coordinator at Nebraska-Omaha, where he took over for Leipold, who served in that role for the previous three seasons. During that 2007 season, the Mavericks won a conference championship and posted a 10-1 record.

Samuel's time at Nebraska-Omaha in 2007 was his third time on staff there as he also served as the defensive backs coach in 2003 and 2004 and the outside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator in 2005. Leipold was on staff for two of those seasons on the other side of the ball. Samuel was also a graduate assistant there from 1998-2000, in addition to serving as a graduate assistant at Arizona in 2001 and 2002.

Samuel is a 1995 graduate of Purdue, where he was a four-year letter winner for the Boilermakers. He was awarded the 1994 Kiwanis Citizenship Award, which is presented to a Purdue player who excels most in the combined roles of player, student and community volunteer.

He has a wife, Jaclyn, a daughter, Brooklyn and a son, Draven.

Chris Simpson joined Lance Leipold's staff at Kansas in May 2021. He coaches linebackers for the Jayhawks.

Simpson came to Kansas from Buffalo where he was on Leipold's staff for six seasons, also coaching linebackers. In 2020, he was promoted to co-defensive coordinator.

Under Simpson, Buffalo linebackers were one of the most consistent units on the team. At least one linebacker has been named All-MAC in each of Simpson's six seasons at Buffalo.

In 2020, Buffalo middle linebacker James Patterson was a first-team All-MAC selection after leading the team in tackles and captaining a UB squad that led the MAC in total defense.

In 2019, outside linebacker Kadafi Wright was an All-MAC Third Team selection. Middle linebacker Matt Otwinowski was named Academic All-MAC for the third time in 2019. The Bulls defense finished the season ranked seventh nationally in total defense and fourth nationally in rushing defense.

Simpson helped develop Khalil Hodge, arguably the best middle linebacker to ever play at Buffalo. In only three seasons, Hodge recorded 421 tackles, the third-highest total in school history.

In 2018, three of the team's four leading tacklers were linebackers, including Hodge (144), James Patterson (77) and Jordan Collier (56).

In 2017, Hodge had one of the finest seasons by a linebacker in school history. The junior middle linebacker had an FBS-era record 154 tackles on the year to lead the MAC and rank second in the nation. Hodge was named All-MAC First Team for his efforts.

In 2016, for the second-straight season, Simpson's linebackers were the top three leading tacklers on the team. Hodge had a huge season for the Bulls, finishing with 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season and the second most in Buffalo's FBS era.

In 2015, Simpson's first season, the top three tacklers on the team were linebackers and for the first time since 2008, the Bulls had two different players with more than 100 tackles as Nick Gilbo finished with 113 and Brandon Berry had 104. Berry was named All-MAC Second Team and Okezie Alozie was named third-team all-league.

Prior to Buffalo, Simpson was the outside linebackers coach at Eastern Michigan in 2014.

Before his stop at EMU, Simpson spent the previous four seasons as linebackers coach at Grand Valley State in in Allendale, Mich.. Grand Valley posted a 39-11 record and four Division II playoff victories. Simpson also tutored six All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) performers during that span.

Grand Valley closed the 2013 football campaign ranked third in the final American Football Coaches Association poll. The Lakers advanced to the NCAA DII National Semifinals for the eighth time after knocking off undefeated and No. 3 ranked Colorado State University-Pueblo.

Senior linebacker Jordan Kaufman received second team All-GLIAC honors after leading the squad in tackles with 87, while also recording eight tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and returning a blocked field goal 56 yards for a score. Also earning honorable mention league honors for GVSU were senior linebackers Charles Hill and Luther Ware.

His 2011 linebacking unit was a key component in a Laker defense that ended the year among the GLIAC leaders. GVSU led the league in tackles for loss (93) and sacks (36), while ranking second in scoring defense (20.2). GVSU limited opponents to 15.5 points per game in its last five games that season.

Simpson's linebacking unit helped the Laker defense rank nationally in several categories, including the top 20 in tackles for loss and sacks in 2010. Ware and Justin Victor earned All-GLIAC accolades during the 2010 campaign.

Simpson arrived at GVSU following a two-year stint at the University of Nebraska-Omaha, where he coached the defensive line. The Mavericks were 14-9 with one appearance in the NCAA DII playoffs during his time on the staff.

Simpson spent five years at Division III national power Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was an assistant coach in charge of the linebackers. UWW was 42-3 his final three seasons with three-straight NCAA DIII National Championship game appearances and three Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crowns. The Warhawks claimed the 2007 National Championship in Leipold's first year at the school.

In addition, Simpson coached two years (1999-2000) at Waunakee (Wis.) High School, one year (2001) at Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, as a graduate assistant and one year (2002) at Wisconsin-Platteville. In the summer of 2006, Simpson was selected as a participant at the NCAA Men's Football Coaches Academy.

He also has received an NFL Minority Coaching Internship on six occasions, from the Green Bay Packers for defensive line and special teams in the summer of 2006, in 2007 with the Dallas Cowboys, in 2008 with the Carolina Panthers, in 2009 with the Minnesota Vikings and Cleveland Browns and in 2013 with the Detroit Lions.

Simpson graduated with a bachelor's degree from Wisconsin-Whitewater in physical education in 1998. He earned his master's in curriculum and instruction in 2004.

Simpson and his wife, Nicole, have three children: Jarryn, Riley and Noah.

ASSISTANT COACH JONATHAN WALLACE

joined the Kansas coaching staff in February of 2020, and currently serves as the KU running backs coach. Wallace came to Lawrence after spending the 2019 season coaching the tight ends at Air Force and the 2018 season on the staff at Bethel.

In his first season in Lawrence, Wallace oversaw the Kansas rushing unit, which consisted of Pooka Williams Jr., and Velton Gardner and freshmen Daniel Hishaw Jr., and Amauri Pesek-Hickson. As true freshmen, Hishaw and Pesek-Hickson combined for more than 400 yards rushing and two touchdowns on just over 90 carries.

Wallace spent the 2019 campaign at Air Force, helping lead the Falcons to an 11-2 overall mark and a win over Washington State in the Cheez-It Bowl. Air Force posted a 7-1 record in the Mountain West, a school record for conference wins, and finished the year in the Top 25 national rankings for the first time since 1998. Wallace's tight ends were instrumental in blocking for the FBS' second-ranked rushing offense, while the Falcons led the nation in fewest sacks allowed.

Wallace joined the Academy from Bethel, where he was wide receivers coach and director of football operations in 2018, he led the Wildcats to a 10-1 overall record and a conference championship.

Wallace was an offensive graduate assistant coach at Auburn from 2016-17 working with quarterbacks and wide receivers during the 2017 season. He helped the Tigers to a pair of bowl games and Southeastern Conference championship game appearance in his two seasons on the staff.

Wallace lettered as a quarterback at Auburn from 2012-14 and wide receiver in 2015 during his playing career. He started at quarterback the final four games of his freshman season and set an Auburn record for quarterback efficiency (139.60) Wallace also helped Auburn to the SEC title in 2013 and was part of the national championship run when Auburn finished the season 12-1. He was selected as a team captain in 2015 and earned the Unsung Hero Award. In addition, he was a selected as a member of the All-State Good Works team.

A native of Phenix City, Alabama, Wallace helped lead Central High School to a 12-2 record and the 6A AHSAA semifinals as a senior. He graduated from Auburn with a bachelor's in physical education in 2015 and a master's in adult education in 2017. He is married to Ashley Koter, a former Auburn soccer student-athlete and former member of the Mexico national soccer team.

ASSISTANT COACH JIM ZEBROWSKI

Jim Zebrowski brings a wealth of NCAA coaching experience with him to his first season as the quarterbacks coach at Kansas. A coaching veteran in the Big Ten and Mid-American Conference, Zebrowski brings 29 years of experience to the Jayhawks, including four seasons at Buffalo as the quarterbacks coach and co-offensive coordinator. He is well known for developing young quarterbacks within the programs he works for.

Prior to his time at Buffalo, Zebrowski was the quarterbacks coach at Minnesota from 2011-15 and helped lead the Gophers to three-straight bowl games. To touch on his development of young quarterbacks, he took Minnesota signal-caller Mitch Leidner from running the scout team to accounting for 2,250 yards and 21 touchdowns in 2014. Leidner had 10 rushing touchdowns, tying the school record for a quarterback.

He helped lead the Gophers to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in 2012, the Texas Bowl in 2013 and the Citrus Bowl in 2014.

Prior to coaching at Minnesota, Zebrowski was the quarterbacks coach at Northern Illinois in 2010. He tutored All-MAC quarterback Chandler Harnish, an NFL draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts. He also laid the foundation for Harnish's backup Jordan Lynch who was an All-American and a Heisman Trophy finalist in 2013. Featuring a high-powered offense that averaged over 35 points per game, Zebrowski helped lead the Huskies to the 2010 MAC Championship game and a win over Fresno State in the Humanitarian Bowl.

This is the third time Zebrowski will serve under Leipold. The first was when he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater from 2007-09. Over his tenure, the Warhawks went 42-3 and advanced to the Division III title game every year, winning it twice. Zebrowski was named the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and the FootballScoop.com Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2009. Most recently, Zebrowski served on Leipold's staff at Buffalo from 2017-2020.

In 2004, he became the head coach at Lakeland University and led the Muskies to a 28-12 record over four seasons. He led Lakeland to a pair of Illini-Badger Conference championships and advanced to the Division III playoffs for the first time in school history.

Zebrowski and his wife, Heather, who was named Female Athlete of the Year during her volleyball playing days at Southern Illinois, have two children, Zachary and Lauryn. His son, Zach, is a quarterback at Southern Illinois.

In 2020, Zebrowski helped Buffalo quarterback Kyle Vantrease develop into a solid starting quarterback for the Bulls. In a season that was dominated by the run game, Vantrease was still able to shine after he threw for 353 yards and four touchdowns against Miami (OH) and 365 yards and a score against Ball State in the MAC Championship game. He became the first UB quarterback since 2014 to throw for 350+ yards twice in the same season under Zebrowski's guidance.

In 2019, Zebrowski led two different young quarterbacks to an eight-win season and helped UB earn the program's first win in a bowl game. Redshirt-freshman Matt Myers began the season as the starter before suffering a season-ending injury in the fifth game. Myers had a standout performance against Penn State, throwing for 245 yards and a touchdown. Redshirt-sophomore Kyle Vantrease started the final eight games of the season and threw for 1,193 yards and eight touchdowns and ran for six additional touchdowns.

Under Zebrowski's guidance in 2018, quarterback Tyree Jackson became the first player in school history to be named Mid-American Conference Offensive Player of the Year and the first quarterback in school history to be named All-MAC. He threw for 3,131 yards and 28 touchdowns – both were second in school history for a single season.

During his first season at Buffalo in 2017, Zebrowski made an immediate impact with the Bulls. Despite an injury-riddled season that saw the Bulls have to start three different quarterbacks, Buffalo still led the MAC and set a school record with 3,490 passing yards on the year. Jackson threw for 2,096 yards and 14 touchdowns in eight games, including three 300-plus yard games. Backup Drew Anderson started against Western Michigan and threw for a school- and conference-record 597 yards and seven touchdowns.

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS PERFORMANCE MATT GILDERSLEEVE

Matt Gildersleeve joined the Kansas football staff in May 2021 as the head football strength and conditioning coach. In his role, Gildersleeve oversees Kansas football's strength and conditioning staff.

Gildersleeve came to Kansas after two seasons at Buffalo where he oversaw UB football's strength program, nutrition program and fueling station. In his two seasons at Buffalo, the Bulls went 14-6, and in 2019 defeated Charlotte, 31-9, for the school's first-ever bowl game victory. In the 2020 pandemic-shortened season, Buffalo went 6-1, finished first in the MAC East and ended ranked No. 25 in the Associated Press and Coaches' polls.

Prior to Buffalo, Gildersleeve spent seven seasons at Akron where he was the director of football strength and conditioning and nutrition specialist for the Zips. He was promoted to the director title in the spring of 2016 after serving as the head coach of football strength and conditioning for two seasons. Under his direction, Akron won the 2017 MAC East Division title.

Gildersleeve earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Mount Union in 2012. The Dean's List student was a four-year letterwinner at tight end for Mount Union and was part of four Ohio Athletic Conference championships and the 2008 national championship.

A native of Phoenix, Arizona, Gildersleeve earned a master's degree in sport science and coaching principles from Akron in 2014. He worked as a graduate assistant at Akron until he was named the assistant director of football strength and conditioning in January 2014. Gildersleeve was promoted to head coach of football strength and conditioning in May 2016.

Gildersleeve is certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is Precision Nutrition Level I certified.

He is married to Ana Martin-Sacristan, a former Academic All-MAC long jumper and runner from Akron. They have a daughter, Mia.

GAME SUMMARY

Trailing 20-14 to Georgia Tech with the final minutes ticking away, Kansas appeared ready to upset the favored Engineers in the 14th annual Orange Bowl, only to have a lost fumble at the two-foot line dash all hopes. Georgia Tech scored first on a 24-yard pass play to take a 7-0 lead in the second quarter. Kansas answered, however, with a 65-yard drive, finished by Ray Evans' 12-yard scoring burst and the extra point by Don Fambrough.

The third quarter proved pivotal, however, as Georgia Tech scored twice to take a 20-7 lead into the final stanza. Finding it difficult to move on the ground, Tech resorted to the air. As a result, Georgia Tech's quarterback Jim Still set an Orange Bowl record for most touchdown passes and best passing percentage, a .769 mark based on 10 completions in 13 attempts.

The Jayhawks, though, were not finished. A long pass from quarterback Bill Hogan to end Bryan Sperry moved the ball to the Georgia Tech 12. Hogan then lobbed a 12-yard scoring pass to Ray Evans. Soon afterwards Dick Monroe of Kansas recovered a Georgia Tech fumble at the Tech 42. Three plays later, Hogan completed a pass to end Otto Schnellbacher, putting the ball at the 26. Evans then sliced off three yards before pitching to Schnellbacher, who was forced out at the 10. Evans bolted nine yards to the one, and it appeared Kansas was ready to upset the Engineers.

But then disaster struck. Quarterback Lynne McNutt, attempting to sneak it in for the game-tying touchdown, lost the ball and the officials ruled that Tech's Rollo Phillips recovered it. Controversy raged as to whether McNutt actually fumbled or Phillips took it away from him amidst the pileup at the goal line.

GAME SUMMARY

Sparked by a 41-yard run by quarterback John Hadl out of deep punt formation late in the first half, Kansas swept by Rice, 33-7, to claim the third annual Bluebonnet Bowl. Trailing 7-6 at the time and facing a fourth-and-six situation from the KU 40, Hadl faked the punt and raced 41 yards before being dropped at the Rice 19. Two plays later fullback Ken Coleman crashed over from the one to give the Jayhawks a 12-7 halftime lead.

The Jayhawks controlled the ball in the second half, scoring on drives of 50, 36 and 68 yards, while finishing the day with 76 offensive plays compared to only 47 for Rice. Hadl completed seven of 10 attempts for 64 yards. Coleman, voted the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Performer, finished with 107 yards rushing and two touchdowns.

The Jayhawks scored first with 5:05 remaining in the initial quarter, when Coleman went over from a yard out. It climaxed a 59-yard, nine-play drive. The extra point attempt by Bill Barnes was blocked. Rice answered that score with just 45 seconds left in the first quarter, when quarterback Randy Kerbow completed a five-yard scoring pass to flanker Johnny Burrell. The extra point was good to put the Owls on top for the one and only time. That set the stage for Hadl's heroics and the Kansas domination.

GAME SUMMARY

In the never-to-be-forgotten "Twelfth Man Game," Penn State narrowly defeated Kansas, 15-14, with a second-chance two-point conversion in the waning seconds of the 35th annual Orange Bowl Classic. The Jayhawks thought they had won the game when they broke up Chuck Burkhardt's conversion pass following Penn State's frantic touchdown with just 15 seconds remaining. Kansas was penalized, however, for having 12 men on the field, and the Nittany Lions received another chance — this time from only one-and-a-half yards out instead of three. On that attempt Bob Campbell's thrust at the left side of his line produced the winning margin.

Kansas, playing in its third bowl game, scored in the opening quarter when Mike Reeves capped a nine-play, 45-yard drive by ramming over from the two. Pat Hutchens set the drive in motion by intercepting a Burkhardt pass.

The Jayhawks took a 14-7 lead early in the fourth quarter, when Donnie Shanklin returned a punt 46 yards to the seven to set up a touchdown by John Riggins. The Jayhawks nursed the lead for nearly 12 minutes, once missing a first down by inches at the Penn State five while driving for what would have been a wrap-up touchdown. The game still appeared to be under control when Kansas kicked to the Nittany Lions at the 50 with 1:16 remaining. But on the next play Burkhardt hit Campbell with a 47-yard pass that KU defender Billy Hunt lost in the lights. It took three plays to score from the three, but Burkhardt finally got across on a bootleg play around left end to set the stage for the hectic finish.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in a bowl game for the fourth time in its history, Kansas was upset by North Carolina State, 31-18, in the 15th annual Liberty Bowl. The Jayhawks fell after a controversial decision by an official in the third quarter, which was followed by three unanswered N.C. State touchdowns.

The play in question came early in the third quarter with the score tied, 10-10. N.C. State punted to KU's Bruce Adams at the 19. In heavy traffic Adams called for a fair catch, but fell to the ground as the ball glanced off him. N.C. State's Ralph Stringer fell on the ball and the Wolfpack scored two plays later. Adams argued with officials that he was tripped on the fair catch, but the officials refused to change their ruling.

The Wolfpack scored twice more before the Jayhawks' offense responded with a late fourth quarter scoring drive of its own.

David Jaynes, KU's All-American quarterback playing his last game for the Jayhawks, finished the game with 24 completions in 38 attempts for 218 yards. All of those figures represented Liberty Bowl records, and for his efforts Jaynes was named the game's Outstanding Offensive Performer.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in its fifth bowl game ever and second in three years, Kansas dropped a 33-19 decision to Pittsburgh in the 41st annual Sun Bowl. Behind three 100-plus yard rushing performances by All-American halfback Tony Dorsett (142), fullback Elliott Walker (123) and quarterback Robert Haygood (101), the Panthers built a 19-0 halftime lead and made that lead hold up in the second half to claim the triumph.

The Jayhawks did score first in the second half, giving some hope of a comeback. Halfback Laverne Smith, who finished the day with 118 yards rushing, dazzled the Panther defense with a 55-yard burst up the middle with 4:32 remaining in the third quarter. That made it 19-7, but with 12:49 remaining in the game Walker scored again for Pittsburgh, this time from two yards out, to erase all hopes of a KU comeback.

Smith later added a 17-yard touchdown run, which was followed by a 38-yard scoring pass from quarterback Scott McMichael to halfback Skip Sharp to close out the Kansas scoring. Nearly 4,000 KU faithful made the trip to El Paso to help comprise the record turnout of 30,272.

GAME SUMMARY

It will be remembered by Jayhawk fans as the 12-second game. Playing in its first postseason game in six years, Kansas players, coaches and fans watched as a nightmare unfolded before their eyes. KU's Darren Green took the opening kickoff and returned it 15 yards before colliding with a teammate. The result was a turnover and Mississippi State's ball on the KU 17. On the ensuing play, MSU quarterback John Bond rolled right on an option play, turned up field and went unscathed into the end zone for the first and last TD of the day. A mere dozen ticks of the clock had gone by and already KU was trailing, 7-0.

Following the quick score the Jayhawk defense stiffened, however, allowing just a field goal for the remainder of the game.

The offense was a different story. The Jayhawks' only real scoring threat was nullified by a strange penalty. With a little under five minutes left in the game, KU's Bucky Scribner punted from deep in KU territory; the Bulldogs' Cookie Jackson fumbled and Kansas recovered on the MSU 22. However, a flag had been thrown; the Jayhawks were called for clipping. Rather than moving the ball back 15 yards to the Bulldog 37, the officials decided the clip had occurred during the punt, and assessed the penalty from the line of scrimmage. Kansas had to punt again from its own 11.

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in its first bowl game in 11 years, Kansas surrendered a kickoff return touchdown to Brigham Young on the first play of the game. Just two plays later, KU answered right back as receiver Matt Gay caught a lateral from quarterback Chip Hilleary and then hit a wide-open Rodney Harris for a 74-yard touchdown pass.

KU defensive lineman Chris Maumalanga tackled BYU's Jamal Willis for a safety and a 9-7 lead. The Kansas defensive line had a strong day as senior Dana Stubblefield led the Jayhawks with three sacks, three hurries and one tackle for loss. For his efforts, Stubblefield was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

Willis soon gained revenge with a 29-yard touchdown romp with 10:16 left to play in the half. Following his score, BYU led, 14-9, but Jayhawk kicker Dan Eichloff hammered a 41-yard field goal that capped the first-half scoring at 14-12.

BYU carried a 20-12 lead into the final quarter. Hilleary then scored on a one-yard run and capped it with a two-point conversion that tied the game at 20. On the following drive, the Jayhawk defense stopped the Cougars on three straight plays and BYU was forced to punt. Hilleary then led the Jayhawks on a drive that lasted nearly seven minutes and resulted in Eichloff's 48-yard field goal, giving Kansas the lead.

BYU mounted a drive late in the game, but senior safety Charley Bowen secured the Jayhawks' first bowl win in 31 years by picking off Young's pass at the Kansas 29-yard line with 2:11 to play.

GAME SUMMARY

Preparing for its second bowl game in four seasons and its eighth in school history, the Jayhawks set several bowl records in running over the favored UCLA Bruins to win their second-straight postseason game.

Kansas struck first and often in taking a 17-0 lead into halftime. Senior quarterback Mark Williams capped an 11-play, 72-yard drive with a nine-yard pass to tight end Jim Moore for the touchdown. On its first drive of the second quarter junior running back June Henley outran the Bruin defenders for a touchdown. Henley carried the ball 13 times for 107 yards on the afternoon. Jeff McCord booted a 27-yard field goal late in the second quarter to give the Jayhawks a 17-0 lead at halftime.

In the third quarter KU's Ashaundai Smith returned a punt 43 yards and five plays later Williams found Andre Carter open in the left corner of the end zone for a score. Carter's first career TD gave Kansas a 37-7 lead late in the third quarter.

Williams finished the day 18-for-27 passing for 288 yards and three touchdowns. He also had 11 carries for 48 yards, including a fourth-quarter touchdown run. Following the game he was named Kansas' Most Valuable Player of the game. When the final gun sounded, the Jayhawks had set a bowl record for most points scored by a team with their 51-30 victory.

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas, playing in its first bowl game since 1995, fell to the North Carolina State Wolfpack, 56-26, in the Mazda Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla.

N.C. State opened the scoring with a three-play, 64-yard drive which took just 1:02, capped by a 45-yard touchdown pass from Tangerine Bowl MVP Philip Rivers to Richard Washington.

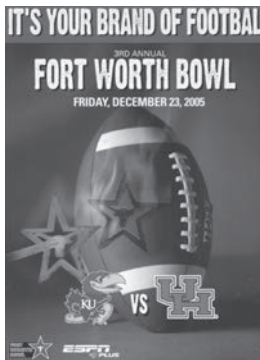

The Jayhawks answered with 10:41 left in the first quarter, as senior quarterback Bill Whittemore found freshman wide receiver Charles Gordon in the end zone on a 23-yard pass play.

KU scored again with 4:01 remaining in the half, capping off a 10-play, 66-yard drive with a 28-yard field goal by Jerod Brooks to make the score 21-10. But NCSU closed out the first-half scoring with a three-yard touchdown pass from Rivers to McLendon to make the score 28-10 at the break.

The Jayhawks opened the scoring in the second half, marching down the field on a nine-play, 79-yard drive that culminated with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Whittemore to sophomore running back Clark Green. N.C. State answered right back with two straight scores to take a 42-17 lead.

A nine-yard Whittemore rush for a score made the score 42-26 with 14:18 left in the game. But that's as close as KU would get. Brandon Rideau led the Jayhawk receivers with a KU-bowl record nine catches for 109 yards.

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas closed out the 2005 season with a 42-13 victory over Houston in the Fort Worth Bowl at Amon G. Carter Stadium. The win gave the Jayhawks their first bowl victory since the 1995 Aloha Bowl and the most wins (seven) in a decade.

Junior Brian Murph put Kansas on the board early when he returned a Houston punt 85 yards for a touchdown.

Houston scored its first points of the game in the second quarter when freshman Ben Bell kicked a 32-yard field goal. Kansas made it 14-3 on the ensuing possession with a five-play, 60-yard drive that resulted in a 13-yard touchdown shovel pass from senior Jason Swanson to junior Jon Cornish.

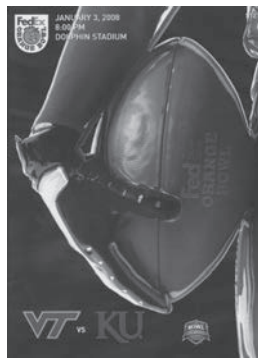

The Cougars capped a 42-yard, seven-play drive with a touchdown when junior Kevin Kolb scored on a one-yard keeper with 57 seconds remaining in the half. KU headed into the break leading 14-10.

The KU defense struck early in the second half when senior Theo Baines intercepted a Kolb pass and ran it 16 yards to KU's 30-yard line. Two plays later, Cornish took another shovel pass from Swanson 30 yards for his second touchdown of the day making it 21-10 in favor of the Jayhawks.

On KU's next possession, Swanson connected with senior Mark Simmons on a 32-yard pass to cap an 80-yard, 3:32 scoring drive. The touchdown gave KU a 28-13 lead with 4:57 left in the third quarter.

KU pulled away scoring twice following interceptions by Charlton Keith and Baines.

Swanson threw for four touchdowns and had 19 completions on 29 attempts for 307 yards and was named KU's 2005 Fort Worth Bowl Most Valuable Player.

Receiving: Harper 4-64

GAME SUMMARY

Playing in its first BCS game, No. 8 Kansas earned a 24-21 victory over No. 3 Virginia Tech in the 2008 Orange Bowl championship. Sophomore QB Todd Reesing threw a touchdown pass and ran for another, while Orange Bowl MVP Aqib Talib returned an interception 60 yards for a TD to lead KU.

The Jayhawk defense and special teams were the story of the game. The Jayhawks matched a KU bowl game record with three INTs, while five different Jayhawks collected quarterback sacks. Of the three interceptions, none was bigger than Talib's first-quarter pick that gave Kansas a 7-0 advantage.

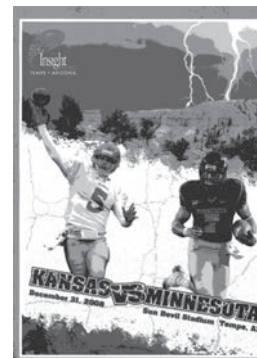

With 12 minutes remaining in the first half, senior place kicker Scott Webb stretched KU's lead to 10-0 with a 32-yard field goal, capitalizing on a Chris Harris interception.

KU increased its lead to 17-0 when Reesing led the Jayhawks on a 10-play, 59-yard drive that he culminated with a 13-yard strike to Marcus Henry. Virginia Tech answered that touchdown with a one-yard plunge by Brandon Ore with 1:24 to go in the half.

The Hokies cut the lead to 17-14 on an 86-yard punt return by Justin Harper early in the second half. Tech threatened again in the third quarter, but KU held onto its lead when junior Joe Mortensen blocked a 25-yard field goal attempt with 6:41 to go in the quarter.

Following a Justin Thornton pick-off deep in Tech territory, Reesing stretched the KU lead to 24-14 with a two-yard bootleg run.

But Virginia Tech was not done. With 5:51 to go, the Hokies held Kansas on a fourth-down try from the Tech 23. They then marched the ball 77 yards on 14 plays, drawing to within three with three minutes remaining. The Hokies tried an onside kick, but KU's Raimond Pendleton recovered the ball. From there, the Jayhawks ran out the clock.

GAME SUMMARY

Todd Reesing completed 27-of-35 passes for 313 yards and four touchdowns, while Dezmon Briscoe set Insight Bowl records for receptions (14) and TD catches (three), to lead the Jayhawks to a 42-21 victory over Minnesota in the 20th Insight Bowl. The win gave the Jayhawks their third-straight bowl.

On defense KU's trio of senior linebackers shined. Mike Rivera matched a career high with 14 tackles, while Joe Mortensen also tied his career best with 13 stops. James Holt added eight tackles, with four for loss, including three sacks.

Briscoe was named the game's offensive MVP, while Holt was tabbed the game's top defender.

Kansas struck first, scoring on a 60-yard pass play from Reesing to Briscoe on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Minnesota responded on its first possession, however, converting on a 75-yard pass on their opening play to set up a quick score.

Trailing 14-7, in the first quarter, Kansas scored the game's next 28 points to take a 35-14 lead in the third period.

The Jayhawks scored on four of their first five possessions while shutting Minnesota down after the Gophers scored the first two times they had the ball. Reesing was nearly flawless in the first half, throwing four touchdown passes and at one point completing a school-record 14 straight passes. He finished the first 30 minutes hitting 19-of-23 passes for 221 yards and the four scores.

KU scored in the third quarter on a 32-yard pass from Meier to Briscoe and then closed out the game's scoring with a two-yard rushing TD from Jake Sharp.
