SCENE SETTER: Fresh off a three-game sweep of #7-ranked East Carolina, Wichita State puts their six-game winning streak on the line against in-state foe Kansas on Wednesday evening at Eck Stadium. The Shockers were scheduled to play Tuesday night at Oklahoma State, but the game was canceled due to rain and will not be rescheduled. Monday's edition of the Collegiate Baseball poll ranked the Shockers #25, the first time Wichita State has been nationally ranked by a major publication since April of 2018. With 16 games still to play, WSU has already bested their win total from a season ago when the Shockers went 21-36. Wichita State is hunting their first appearance in the NCAA tournament since the 2013 season, a regional bid that was later vacated by the NCAA.

SHOCKER BASEBALL ON THE RADIO AND ESPN PLUS: KFH 97.5 FM/1240 AM will once again serve as the radio home for Wichita State baseball broadcasts in 2023. "The Voice of the Shockers" and Pizza Hut Shocker Sports Hall of Famer Mike Kennedy will handle the play-by-play duties against the Jayhawks. The game will also be streamed live on ESPN+ ($), with former Shocker pitcher (1991-94) and Pizza Hut Shocker Sports Hall of Famer Shane Dennis on the call. Live audio, in addition to live statistics, will be available for all games at GoShockers.com/listen and ShockerStats.com.

SERIES HISTORY: The Shockers and Jayhawks have met 86 times, with Wichita State holding 51-35 lead in the all-time series. From 2013-2016, Kansas won seven consecutive games in the series, and recently Wichita State put together a six-game winning streak from 2017-2022. The Shockers have claimed the last five meetings at Eck Stadium, including a 7-5 win in 10 innings last season that ended with a walk-off, two-run homer from Garrett Kocis. Kansas took the return game in Lawrence and also won at Hoglund Ballpark this season, a 4-0 victory on March 8. Four Jayhawks pitchers combined to hold Wichita State to five hits in the shutout win.

SCOUTING KANSAS: The Jayhawks bring an overall record of 19-21 into play on Wednesday, including a 5-10 mark in Big 12 play. Kansas has won six consecutive midweek games (Creighton, Missouri State, Texas Southern 2x, Air Force 2x) but have dropped seven straight conference contests after taking the first two games of a series at West Virginia. As a team, the Jayhawks are slashing .280/.376/.472, a slugging percentage that is buoyed by 87 doubles, a top-30 mark in the country. Kansas is one of the least-aggressive base-stealing teams in the country, totaling just 23 steals. The pitching staff has logged a 6.14 ERA, and much like the Shockers deploy a closer-by-committee bullpen, with seven saves from four different relievers. Kansas boasts a roster loaded with Division I transfers, including Luke Leto and Collier Cranford (LSU), Sam Ireland (Minnesota), Cole Elvis (Cal), Michael Brooks (UCF) and Collin Baumgartner (SIU Edwardsville). Head coach Dan Fitzgerald is in his first season with the Jayhawks after one season as the recruiting coordinator at LSU. The Shockers are familiar with Fitzgerald, who previously spent nine seasons in the same capacity at Dallas Baptist, a former Missouri Valley Conference foe. Former Wichita State volunteer assistant coach Jon Coyne is a member of Fitzgerald's staff.

BREAKING OUT THE BROOMS: It was a historic weekend at Eck Stadium for Wichita State, who garnered their first sweep against a top-10 opponent since the 1991 season with three dominant wins against #7-ranked East Carolina. The Shockers outscored the Pirates 23-3, out-hit them 41-14, and got two complete game shutouts from Payton Tolle and Grant Adler to bookend the series. East Carolina only produced one inning the entire series in which more than five batters came to the plate (first inning of game two), and managed just one runner to third base in 18 innings against Tolle and Adler. The three victories catapulted Wichita State into a tie atop the American Athletic Conference standings with Houston.

QUIET IN THE BULLPEN: Thanks in large part to shutouts from Tolle and Adler, plus some stellar long relief work, the Wichita State pitching staff has not had to reach deep into the bullpen as of late. In the last six games, the Shockers have used a total of 12 pitchers (four of whom made multiple appearances), meaning just eight individual arms have seen game action in that stretch. The WSU bullpen has yielded four relief outings of at least 2.1 innings over the last six games.

NO MINER ACCOMPLISHMENT: Left-hander Jace Miner continues to cement his status as a versatile weapon out of the Wichita State bullpen. The sophomore southpaw turned in two brilliant outings over the last week, earning the win at Kansas State with 4.1 hitless, scoreless innings, before blanking East Carolina over 3.1 frames to nail down his second save of the season. Opponents are hitting just .147 against Miner in 28.0 innings this season.

SHOCKERS IN THE RPI: Wichita State heads into the week ranked 88 in the last edition of the RPI, good for second in the American Athletic Conference behind East Carolina (15). The Shockers jumped a staggering 59 points last week, comfortably the largest increase in the country (next closest: Georgetown, +40 to 119). Oklahoma State checks in at 25, the highest-ranking opponent remaining on the regular season schedule for WSU. Only Houston (100) joins the Shockers in the top-100 among AAC teams.

INGRAM IN A GROOVE: Junior outfielder Chuck Ingram had a ridiculous stretch of six games dating back to the end of the series at Tulane. In that time frame, Ingram went 17-for-28 (.607), which would be impressive enough in its own right. But among the 17 hits, the righty slugger rammed five doubles and four homers, including big flies in both games of Saturday's doubleheader sweep of East Carolina. Oddly enough, in the series finale against the Pirates every Shocker in the lineup had a hit except Ingram.

STARTING WITH A BANG: Ingram grabbed national headlines on April 14 at Tulane with a leadoff home run that traveled a Trackman-confirmed 501 feet, easily the longest by any Shocker this season. Ingram's homer was the first leadoff round-tripper for the Shockers since David VanVooren opened a game against Texas Tech with a solo shot on March 9, 2019.

DOUBLE UP: Head coach Loren Hibbs made no secret of his desire for the Shockers to hit more doubles in 2023, believing the stat represents a good offensive approach and aggressive baserunning. The Shockers have lived up to that expectation this season, leading the American Athletic Conference and ranking 27th nationally with 88 team two-baggers. WSU has eight players with five or more doubles for the season.

HISTORIC HOMERS: Wichita State powered up last Tuesday night at Kansas State, blasting a season-high six home runs in a 10-4 midweek victory. Garrett Pennington and Brock Rodden each hit two, while David Herring and Payton Tolle contributed one apiece. The six round-trippers are the most for the Shockers in one game since April 26, 1998 against Indiana State, and Pennington and Rodden became the first Shockers with two multi-homer games in the same contest since future major leaguers Andy Dirks and Dusty Coleman accomplished the feat against Harvard on March 8, 2008.

BACK IN THE SADDLE: Interim head coach Loren Hibbs is in his first season leading the Shockers after taking over for Eric Wedge in December of 2022. Hibbs starred as a record-setting outfielder for the Shockers, helping WSU to the program's first-ever CWS appearance in 1982, and still holds the NCAA record for single-season runs scored with 125. He then served as an assistant under legendary Shocker head coach Gene Stephenson before moving on to Charlotte, where Hibbs guided the 49ers for 27 seasons and more than 800 wins. He returned to the Wichita State program following the 2019 season, joining the staff as Director of Baseball Operations.

HIGH PRAISE: The Shockers landed four players on the American Athletic Conference preseason all-conference team, most of any club in the league. Infielder Brock Rodden, outfielder Chuck Ingram, designated hitter Payton Tolle and right-handed pitcher Cameron Bye were all selected, with Rodden tabbed as the conference's Preseason Player of the Year. Despite the league-best four honorees, Wichita State was picked fifth in the eight-team American Athletic Conference preseason poll.

RODDEN RETURN: Infielder Brock Rodden burst on to the scene as one of college baseball's most impactful players in 2022. The Seminole State transfer led the Shockers in batting average (.338), on-base percentage (.441) and slugging percentage (.653) while launching 17 home runs, the most by a Shocker since Drew Moffitt hit 26 long balls in 2004. He was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the 10th Round of the 2022 MLB Draft (pick 304 overall) but elected not to sign, one of just three players chosen in the top ten rounds to do so.

JUCO INFLUX: The Wichita State 2023 roster features eight junior college transfers, several of which have stepped in as immediate contributors. Former Mississippi State outfielder Kyte McDonald brings elite speed out in centerfield, and former St. Mary's righty Clark Candiotti has entrenched himself at the front of the weekend rotation. Two members of Cowley College's NJCAA runner-up team play major roles, as infielder David Herring is the everyday starter at shortstop and right-handed pitcher Grant Adler has grabbed the Sunday starter role. Catcher Mauricio Millan has caught all but two games this season.

Interim Head Coach
First Season

Former Wichita State standout outfielder and assistant coach Loren Hibbs was named Interim Head Coach in December of 2022.

Hibbs, who starred as a player for the Shockers from 1982-84 and then served as assistant coach at WSU from 1985-92, returned to his alma mater in June of 2019 as Director of Baseball Operations. He was previously the head coach at Charlotte for 27 seasons (1993-2019).

At Charlotte, Hibbs posted an impressive 819-682-5 record and guided the 49ers to seven conference regular season championships, four conference tournament titles and five NCAA tournament appearances. He is the program's all-time winningest coach, having achieved that milestone back in 2002.

Before becoming the head coach for the 49ers, Hibbs assisted College Baseball and Pizza Hut Shockers Sports Hall of Fame head coach Gene Stephenson to seven Missouri Valley Conference regular season titles, five MVC tournament crowns, seven NCAA regional appearances, four College World Series berths and the 1989 national championship.

He coached six former Shockers who went on to play in the majors, including Wedge (1987-89), P.J. Forbes (1987-90), Mike Lansing (1987-90), Pat Meares (1988-90), Darren Dreifort (1991-93) and Doug Mirabelli (1990-92).

An outfielder for the Shockers from 1982-84, he was a three-time All-Missouri Valley Conference and All-District honoree, and was selected to the 1982 College World Series all-tournament team. He still holds the NCAA single-season record for runs scored with 125 during the 1982 campaign.

Hibbs captured two regular season conference titles and one conference tournament crown, going along with two NCAA regional showings, and was a member of the 1982 College World Series runner-up team.

He was inducted into the Kansas Baseball Hall of Fame in 2018.

Hibbs and his wife, the former Lisa Helms, have three children, Tyson, Erin and Lanie.

Mike Pelfrey

Pitching Coach Fifth Season

Former Wichita State All-American and 12-year major leaguer Mike Pelfrey was named the program's pitching coach in January of 2019.

Pelfrey, who is a member of the Pizza Hut Shocker Sports Hall of Fame and was an All-American for Wichita State, joined the Shockers after spending the previous two seasons as the pitching coach for the Newman University Jets.

During his career with WSU from 2003-05, Pelfrey went an impressive 33-7 on the mound and compiled a 2.18 ERA, which still ranks second in program history. He also finished second in career strikeouts with 366.

In 2005, he was named a first team All-American by Collegiate Baseball, American Baseball Coaches Association and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association after going 12-3 with a 1.93 ERA and 143 strikeouts.

A three-time first-team All-MVC honoree, he was also the Valley's 2004 and 2005 Pitcher of the Year after 2003 Freshman of the Year honors. He was also a three-time ABCA all-region selection and was named to the Valley's 2007 All-Centennial team.

Pelfrey was drafted ninth overall by the New York Mets during the first round of the 2005 MLB Draft, and went on to pitch in the majors for 12 years with the Mets (seven seasons), Minnesota Twins (three seasons), Detroit Tigers (one season) and Chicago White Sox (one season). In total, he appeared in 275 major league contests.

From 2008-11 with New York, he started at least 31 games each season, totaling 45 wins, 435 strikeouts and just 263 walks in 782 2/3 innings.

Pelfrey earned a bachelor's degree in sport management from Wichita State in May 2019.

He and his wife, Angela, have a son, Chase, and two daughters, Avery and Madison.

Mike Sirianni

Assistant Coach/ Recruiting Coordinator Fourth Season

Mike Sirianni was named the Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coordinator for the Wichita State baseball program on June 27, 2019.

Sirianni was the volunteer assistant coach for the Shockers from 2015-16 and comes back to Wichita State after head coaching stints at Tarleton State and Regis University.

While at Regis, a Division II school in Denver, Colo., Sirianni made an immediate impact. He took over the reins of a program that was 21 games under .500 over the previous three seasons combined (60-81) and led the Rangers to 26 victories in his debut season in 2017. Over the next two seasons, Sirianni added 47 more victories to his ledger. In 2018, the Rangers recorded their first winning season in five years with Sirianni at the helm.

In 2018, Sirianni coached the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Pitcher of the Year Brad Thoutt. He also had 20 all-conference selections in his three seasons with the Rangers and boasted the highest team GPA in the RMAC in 2017.

Prior to his time at Regis, Sirianni spent two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach for the Shockers where he assisted with the offense and helped coach three Freshman All-Americans, two all-region selections, one Missouri Valley Conference Freshman of the Year, eight all-conference performers and nine MLB draft picks.

From 2011-14, Sirianni was the assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Newman University. He helped lead the Jets to the conference tournament two out of the three seasons and to the highest conference finish in school history. He also helped guide the offense to several school records and the team to the best finish in school history.

Sirianni recruited and coached six Gold Glove winners and 14 all-conference position players. He also recruited and coached the Freshman of the Year in the Heartland Conference.

During the summer in 2009, 2010 and 2011, he was the Head Coach for the Jonesboro Ricemen, an American Legion team. He led the team to the Arkansas State Legion Championship in 2009. During his time with the Ricemen, he led the team to four conference championships and guided 19 players to go on to play college baseball.

Prior to coaching at Newman, he had stints with Valley View High School in Arkansas, Iowa Western Community College, Arkansas State and the Cleveland Indians.

Sirianni, who is a native of Indianola, Iowa, earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies from Arkansas State in 2006. In 2017, he earned a master's degree in health, physical education and recreation from Emporia State.

He was a two-year starter at Arkansas State in 2004-05 and set the single season record for runs scored in 2004. He also played two years at Creighton from 2002-03.

Mike and his wife Mandy have three children.

Volunteer Assistant Coach Second Season

Conor Behrens enters his second season as a volunteer assistant coach for the Shockers in 2023.

Behrens (pronounced BEAR-enns) comes to Wichita from Point Loma Nazarene University, where he served as the infield and hitting coach for the Sea Lions. Prior to his time in San Diego, the native of Lincoln, Neb., spent two seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Central Missouri, helping the Mules to a national runner-up finish and a 46-8 record in 2021.

Working primarily with the hitters at UCM, Behrens helped engineer an offense that ranked top-10 nationally in a litany of offensive categories, including batting average (.341), hits (620), home runs, (86), runs (478), slugging percentage (.579), stolen bases (91) and hit by pitch (109).

Over Behrens's two seasons in Warrensburg, the Mules went 66-11 (.857), producing seven all-conference players, five all-region hitters, and three All-Americans. UCM was off to a 20-3 start in 2020 before the remainder of the season was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Behrens played collegiately at Kansas City Kansas Community College and Lindenwood University, where he hit a combined .304 over two seasons. As a junior in 2017, he helped the Lions to their first-ever appearance in the Division-II World Series.

Behrens began his coaching career the following year as an assistant for his alma mater, Lincoln Southwest High School, where he was an all-state performer as a player.
