TIGERS HIT THE ROAD THIS WEEK

The Colorado College women's soccer program plays its first two road matches of the 2023 season this week. The Tigers travel to Boulder on Thursday, Aug. 24, to take on the Colorado Buffaloes at 7 p.m., then to Lawrence, Kan., on Sunday, Aug. 27, to battle the Kansas Jayhawks at 12 p.m. (MT). Thursday's contest will be streamed live on the Pac-12 Insider, with Sunday's on ESPN+.

OPENING WEEKEND

The Tigers opened the 2023 campaign with a pair of games at Stewart Field. On Thursday, CC fell to Louisiana Tech, 3-1, in the season opener. Sophomore Erin Ewers scored the Tigers' lone goal, while freshman Regan Wallace and junior Zahra Cheeseman each played one half in the net. On Sunday, Colorado College and the Denver Pioneers battled to a 2-2 draw. Seniors Shalom Prince and Alex Sandoval scored, with Sandoval notching the first goal of her career. Wallace played all 90 minutes and collected a career-high seven saves, including several spectacular stops late in the second half to keep the match tied.

SECOND YEAR FOR HEAD COACH KERI SANCHEZ

Keri Sanchez was named the eighth head coach in the history of the school's Division I women's soccer program in December of 2021. Sanchez, who won four NCAA National Championships as a player at the University of North Carolina, led the Tigers to a 7-7-5 record and their first appearance in the Mountain West Tournament since 2018. She brought 25 years of coaching experience to Colorado Springs that spans Division I and Division III. During her standout professional career, Sanchez played at the highest level. She notched 13 caps with the United States Women's National Team and played in the first-ever World Cup qualifying tournament in 1991.

2023 CAPTAINS

Seniors Shalom Prince and Alexis Wessler and junior Kaelin Enga have been named team captains for the 2023 season.
