2023 NEVADA WOLF PACK FOOTBALL

HEAD COACH KEN WILSON (@CoachKWils)

Ken Wilson enters his second season as Nevada Football head coach in 2023.

In Wilson's first campaign at the Wolf Pack helm, Nevada's defense made an impressive impact, ranking in the FBS top half nationally in multiple statistical categories. Putting a strong emphasis on takeaways, the Wolf Pack made 19 in 2023, with 11 interceptions and eight fumble recoveries, the latter ranking second among all Mountain West teams. Takeaways played a major role in the Wolf Pack's first two contests of the season, as Nevada made five in the season-opening win at New Mexico State, and four more in the following week's 38-14 victory over Texas State.

The Pack defense also ranked in the national top 50 in red-zone defense (47th) and tackles-for-loss (43rd, 6.3 per game).

Seven members of the Wolf Pack earned All-Mountain West honors in 2022, headlined by safety Bentley Sanders being named to the First Team. Of the seven honorees, four came from the defensive side, including defensive tackle Dom Peterson's second-team nod.

Two members of the Wolf Pack defense were recognized nationally in 2022, with Sanders claiming a spot on the Associated Press Midseason All-America Team, and redshirt freshman linebacker Drue Watts being named to the College Football News (CFN) All-America Third Team.

Wilson possesses over three decades of coaching experience, including 19 previous years on the Nevada staff (1989-98, 2004-12), which included five seasons as associate head coach (2008-12) and four as defensive coordinator (1996-98, 2007).

Wilson also coached the defensive line, linebackers, and safeties, during his time at Nevada. During his coaching tenures, the Wolf Pack reached a bowl game 11 times, including each of his last eight seasons, and captured two Western Athletic Conference titles (2005, 2010), five Big West Conference championships (1992, 1994-97), and two Big Sky Conference titles (1990-91) with Wilson on staff.

Wilson spent six seasons working with Ault from 1989-92 and 1994-95. He was also an assistant coach for Jeff Horton in 1993 and Jeff Tisdell from 1996-98, spending those final three seasons as defensive coordinator. As the nation's youngest Division I (now FBS) defensive coordinator, he directed Nevada's 1996 defense to the top of the conference in every defensive category and was part of the Las Vegas Bowl victory over Ball State.

He spent four years (1999-2003) in the Nevada administration, serving as Assistant Athletics Director, Sports Services, under then-athletic director Chris Ault. He oversaw football, men's basketball, baseball, track and tennis while coordinating grant-in-aid for all student-athletes in Nevada's 19-sport athletic program.

Wilson returned to the Mackay Stadium sidelines in 2004 when Ault returned to the football program's helm.

In 2009, Wilson coached the Wolf Pack linebackers and oversaw the development of a youthful group that included second-team All-WAC selection James-Michael Johnson, who went on to be taken by the Cleveland Browns in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft. In 2008, he coached a pair of future NFL linebackers in Jushua Mauga (New York Jets & Kansas City Chiefs) and Jerome Johnson (St. Louis Rams).

In his final season at Nevada in 2012, Wilson helped senior Albert Rosette successfully move back to middle linebacker after playing defensive end the year prior. Rosette went on to lead the Mountain West Conference – Nevada's first year in the league – with 135 tackles, good for the third-most in program single-season history and earned first-team All-Mountain West Conference recognition.

The Wilson family's ties to Nevada run deep. Wilson and his wife, Heather, have a son, Tyler, who was a long snapper for the Wolf Pack from 2012-14, a daughter-in-law, Makenzie, and a daughter, Baylie.

Wilson served as co-defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach from 2019-21 at Oregon. Over his coaching career, Wilson has been a part of 18 teams that have advanced to a bowl game, including 15 of the last 16 years.

Oregon's Pac-12 championship in 2020, its second in a row, was the 11th conference title Wilson has been a part of during his coaching career.

Wilson added co-defensive coordinator to his duties after helping Oregon to back-to-back Pac-12 Conference titles in his first two years on staff.

In 2020, Wilson helped the Ducks to a conference title with the defensive putting together a dominant performance in the Pac-12 Championship game, holding No. 13 USC to just 38 rushing yards on 28 carries (1.4 yards per carry) in a 31-24 win. Wilson's linebackers – Mase Funa, Noah Sewell, and Isaac Slade-Matautia – played a huge part in the win combining 17 tackles and a tackle for loss.

In Wilson's first season at Oregon, the Ducks' defense led Oregon to a Pac-12 Conference title, a win in the Rose Bowl, and a 12-2 overall record while ranking among the nation's elite units.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday's meeting between Nevada and Kansas will be the first between the schools. Last year, the teams announced a home-and-home series, with the Jayhawks coming to Reno for Saturday's contest, and the Wolf Pack returning the favor with a trip to Lawrence in 2029.

ABOUT KANSAS

Kansas (2-0) has opened the season with a pair of wins under third-year head coach Lance Leipold. The Jayhawks reached the postseason last season for the first time since 2008, and this year are led by quarterbacks Jalon Daniels and Jason Bean, while Devin Neal leads the ground attack with 214 rushing yards and two touchdowns.

2023 NEVADA WOLF PACK FOOTBALL

LAST TIME OUT

Nevada dropped its home opener, 33-6, to Idaho last Saturday afternoon. The Pack trailed 7-3 early, but squandered two early chances to take the lead. Nevada forced a fumble and took over at the Idaho 43 on its second possession, but went three-and-out, then, after forcing a Vandal punt, drove to the Idaho 18 before the drive came to an end with an interception.

Brandon Talton hit two field goals to account for the Nevada points, while linebacker Drue Watts recovered his second fumble in as many games.

The loss snapped a Nevada streak of five-straight wins in home openers, and is just the second loss in a home opener for the Pack since 2012.

THINGS GOT A LITTLE WILD LAST TIME...

Kansas will be the first team from one of the "Autonomous Five" conferences to visit Mackay Stadium since the memorable 34-31 Nevada victory over Purdue in the 2019 opener (Aug. 31, 2019).

There's even a connection to that 2019 game with Kansas' visit--current Jayhawk safety Marvin Grant saw action for Purdue in that contest. That night, Nevada, trailing 31-14 with 6:19 left in the third quarter, scored the final 20 points, capped by then-freshman Brandon Talton's career-long 56-yard field goal on the game's final play.

FACING THE BIG XII

Saturday's game against Kansas will mark the Wolf Pack's second game against a Big XII foe in three seasons--Nevada dropped a 38-17 decision at Kansas State in 2021.

The Jayhawks are the first Big XII team to come to Reno (as a member of the Big XII at the time of visit) since Missouri back on Sept. 25, 2009. In that visit, the Tigers defeated the Wolf Pack, 31-21.

Nevada is 0-7 all-time against the Big XII since moving up to Division I (now FBS) in 1992.

BELL ON PACE FOR CAREER YEAR

Wide receiver/kick returner Jamaal Bell is well on his way to a career year receiving through just two games in 2023. Bell has caught eight balls in each of the first two contests, with his 16 receptions going for 188 yards and a score.

The 2022 season was Bell's best in both categories, as he hauled in 28 passes for 279 yards. His 2023 campaign got off to a big start Sept. 2 at No. 6/6 USC, when he posted career highs of eight catches and 121 yards with a 77-yard touchdown reception.

RIGHT PLACE, RIGHT TIME (AGAIN)

Linebacker Drue Watts once again found himself in the right place at the right time Saturday against Idaho, recovering his second fumble of the season. Watts has now fallen on a loose football in each of the Pack's first two contests, after picking off a pass in last year's finale at UNLV.

JACKSON III GETTING A CHANCE

Wide receiver John Jackson III transferred to Nevada for his final season after playing four seasons, mostly on special teams, at USC. Through two games this season, Jackson III has caught five passes for 72 yards, the reception total equaling his USC output. The Redondo Beach, Calif., native has quickly made himself a target for Wolf Pack quarterbacks, ranking tied for second in receptions on the team.

MATEIALONA IN THE BACKFIELD AGAIN

Linebacker Tongiaki Mateialona recorded his second tackle-for-loss in as many games this past Saturday against Idaho. Mateialona, Nevada's leading tackler with 10 so far in 2023, opened his 2023 campaign with an impressive performance at No. 6/6 USC. The team's second-leading returning tackler from a season ago (53 tackles, 3.5 TFL, 2.0 sacks in 2022), Mateialona shared the Pack lead with six tackles in Los Angeles, including a strip-sack of Caleb Williams.

LOCAL GUYS GETTING SOME RUN

Last Saturday's contest against Idaho featured highlighted efforts from some former Northern Nevada prep standouts in running back Ashton Hayes (McQueen HS), linebacker Jackson LaDuke (Spanish Springs HS), and rush end Chris Smalley (Douglas HS). Hayes had eight touches (six carries, one catch, one kick return), while LaDuke made a tackle-for-loss among his four tackles on the day, and Smalley had three tackles and returned a short kickoff 13 yards.

TALTON ENTERS FINAL SEASON OF CELEBRATED CAREER

Fifth-year kicker Brandon Talton enters his final season intent on reminding many around the Mountain West of his status as one of the top kickers on the West Coast. Talton, named to two preseason watch lists this summer (Lou Groza Award, Comeback Player of the Year Award), is the Mountain West's all-time leader in field goals made (70).

Talton, named to the Lou Groza Award watch list for the fifth time this past July, hit from 29 and 44 yards in his two attempts Saturday against Idaho, bringing his career total to 70 and tying Tony Zendejas for second all-time at Nevada. Talton needs just three more field goals to eclipse Marty Zendejas' Nevada career record of 72.

Talton also ranks third in kick scoring with 334 points. He is one of just eight players, including four kickers, in Nevada history to have 300 career points.

LOCAL FLAIR TO THE PACK ROSTER

Among the numerous values head coach Ken Wilson promotes in the Nevada Football program is its local connections. To that end, the Wolf Pack roster features 17 players from Northern Nevada high schools. See the table on page six of the game notes for the entire list of players, by school.

PLENTY OF PAC-12 ON THE NEVADA ROSTER

Along with the Pac-12 ties on the Nevada coaching staff, the Wolf Pack roster features 17 players who have previously been on Pac-12 rosters. Among that number, eight joined the Pack since the end of the 2022 campaign. In total, the 17 Pac-12 transfers represent seven schools from the conference: Oregon (7), California (4), USC (2), Arizona State (1), Colorado (1), Oregon State (1), Utah (1).

Linebacker Eli'jah Winston and wide receiver John Jackson III are the former Trojans with the Wolf Pack, with Winston entering his second season in Reno after recording 14 tackles, 2.5 TFL, and 2.0 sacks over nine games in 2022.

EXPERIENCED DEFENSE READY TO SHINE

The Nevada defense features an impressive amount of experience and production returning in 2023. The Pack D is led by a deep inside linebacker unit which features All-Mountain West Honorable Mention Drue Watts (57 tackles, 9.0 TFL, 3.0 sacks, one INT), fifth-year Tongiake Mateialona (53 tackles, 3.5 TFL, 2.0 sacks), redshirt junior Davion Blackwell (seven tackles, 0.5 TFL), and Oregon transfer Jackson LaDuke.

The secondary features returning starting corners in Isaiah Essissima (35 tackles, two INT, nine PBU in 2022) and Jaden Dedman (50 tackles, 3.5 TFL, eight PBU), with Aedan Seiuli, Emamy Johnson, Richard Toney Jr., and Ezekiel Robbins all returning in the safeties unit.

Up front, James Hansen (19 tackles, 3.0 TFL, 1.0 sack) and Dwight Togiola (10 tackles, 3.0 TFL, 2.0 sacks) lead a unit that also features Cal transfer Henry Ikahihifo, who played his first two seasons (2019-20) as a tight end at Nevada. Marcel Walker-Burgess (24 tackles, 5.0 TFL, 1.0 sack), Eli'jah Winston (14 tackles, 2.5 TFL, 2.0 sacks, one INT), and Chris Smalley (11 tackles, one FR) provide a deep rush end position.

A STINGY, GREEDY GROUP

Nevada's defense created 19 takeaways (11 INT, eight fumble recoveries) in 2022, with 11 of those leading directly to Wolf Pack points. The Pack has already made two takeaways this season, with linebacker Drue Watts recovering a fumble in each of the first two games.

NEW-LOOK BACKFIELD

The Nevada offense is expected to have a familiar look up front and out wide, but the backfield will feature new faces, and all formerly from Pac-12 schools in quarterback Brendon Lewis (Colorado) and running backs Sean Dollars (Oregon) and Ashton Hayes (California).

Lewis joined the Wolf Pack in January and is primed for his Nevada debut in 2023. Prior to coming to Reno, Lewis spent the 2020-22 seasons at Colorado. He made his collegiate debut at the 2020 Alamo Bowl, going 6-for-10 passing for 95 yards and running nine times for 73 yards, including a 44-yard score. He started all 12 games for Colorado in 2021, finishing the season with 1,540 yards on 149-for-257 passing with 10 touchdowns against just three interceptions. Lewis redshirted the 2022 campaign, appearing in just two games, including starting the season opener against TCU.

Dollars will make his Nevada debut this fall after transferring from Oregon, where he rushed for 188 yards and a touchdown, and made 16 catches for 143 yards in 2022. With the Ducks from 2019-22, Dollars ran for 326 yards, highlighted by a seven-carry, 52-yard effort in the 2020 Pac-12 Championship Game victory over No. 13 USC, and a 27-yard, one-score game against Stanford in 2022.

Hayes was a two-time All-Nevada and Northern Nevada Player of the Year selection during his time at McQueen High and, prior to that, Damonte Ranch High. He earned the honors at both McQueen as a 2021 senior and Damonte Ranch as a 2019 sophomore, with the programs combining for a 37-6 record, three conference titles and one regional crown, in addition to reaching the state finals once and Northern Nevada finals on two occasions.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Nevada's 2023 offensive line unit features seven returners who started at least one game a season ago. The experience gained from the playing time spread among the group, along with the addition of Angus McClure as Run Game Coordinator/Offensive Line coach, will certainly pay dividends for a unit that had nine different starting combinations in 2022.

Left tackle Isaiah World leads the group after starting the final 10 games at the position last season. Andrew Madrigal made eight starts on the line a season ago, while additional starts were made by Zac Welch (five), Joey Capra (five), Kai Arneson (three), Josh Grabowski (two), and Andrew Nunez (one).

WIDE RECEIVERS

Out wide, three of the Pack's top-five receivers from a season ago return in 2023 and are expected to contribute from the jump. This trio is led by Dalevon Campbell (39 receptions, 467 yards, one touchdown in 2022), Spencer Curtis (18 catches, 245 yards, one touchdown), and Jamaal Bell (28 catches, 279 yards).

Bolstering the group are a pair of transfers in John Jackson III (USC) and Isaah Crocker (Oregon). Jackson III will have a special homecoming in Saturday's game at USC--after spending four seasons (2019-22) with the Trojans, he will once again take the field at the Coliseum, where his father, John Jr., was an All-Pac-10 receiver, and his grandfather, John Sr., was USC's running backs coach and offensive coordinator for six seasons (1976-81).

WOLF PACK ALUMNI MAKE THE 2023 NFL CUT

Seven Nevada Football alumni made the final cut onto NFL 53-man rosters, as Week 1 commenced Thursday:

G Joel Bitonio (Nevada, 2009-13) - Cleveland Browns

Bitonio will begin his 10th NFL season, all with the Cleveland Browns, this week. Bitonio has made five-straight Pro Bowls, and been named to the AP All-Pro First Team each of the past two seasons.

WR Elijah Cooks (Nevada, 2017-21) - Jacksonville Jaguars

Cooks signed with Jacksonville as a free agent following the 2023 NFL Draft, and made the team's 53-man roster following a strong camp. During his Nevada career (2017-21), he had season bests of 76 catches, 926 receiving yards, and ;

G Austin Corbett (Nevada, 2013-17) - Carolina Panthers

Corbett will begin his sixth NFL season, and second with Carolina, in 2023. However, he will miss at least the first four games of the season while on the Panthers' PUP (physically unable to perform) list, after tearing his ACL in the 2022 finale.

WR Romeo Doubs (Nevada, 2018-21) - Green Bay Packers

Romeo Doubs enters year two with the Green Bay Packers, after a solid 2022 rookie season in which he caught 42 passes for 425 yards and three touchdowns over 13 games.

LB Daiyan Henley (Nevada, 2017-21) - Los Angeles Chargers

Henley played at Nevada from 2017-21, being named to the All-Mountain West Second Team in 2021, before finishing his collegiate career at Washington State in 2022. Henley was drafted in the third round of the 2023 NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Chargers, and made the team out of camp.

LB Nephi Sewell (Nevada, 2017-18) - New Orleans Saints

Sewell, the brother of current Nevada graduate assistant Gabe Sewell, played two seasons (2017-18) for the Pack, making 53 tackles while starting all 11 games in 2018. After transferring to Utah, where he finished his collegiate career, Sewell signed as a free agent with the New Orleans Saints, appearing in four games in 2022.

TE Cole Turner (Nevada, 2018-21) - Washington Commanders

Turner is back for his second season with Washington in 2023. Last year, Turner appeared in 10 games, making two catches for 23 yards.

THE BITONIO FAMILY STRENGTH & CONDITIONING CENTER

On April 21, 2023, Nevada Athletics received one of its largest donations to date, thanks to Joel and Courtney Bitonio's generous gift of $1 million to support the football program. The donation funded the new football weight room, named The Bitonio Family Strength & Conditioning Center, and will support student-athletes in Nevada's pursuit to build a championship-caliber athletic department.

As a former Nevada player, NFL pro bowler, and offensive lineman for the Cleveland Browns, Bitonio recognizes the value of a strong football program in shaping the lives of young athletes and providing opportunities for success.

"I'm honored to be able to give back to the university that helped shape me into the person I am today," said Joel Bitonio. "I know firsthand the impact that a strong football program can have on student-athletes. The weight room has always been more than just a place to train; it is where teams build character, develop discipline, and learn the importance of teamwork. I'm proud to be able to support the football program's success and ensure student-athletes have the resources they need to succeed."

"Joel and Courtney's gift is a transformational statement about the importance the University of Nevada plays in the lives of our student-athletes," said Athletic Director Stephanie Rempe. "This gift will significantly impact our football program and the momentum we are creating within our athletics program. I am personally so grateful to Joel and Courtney for their generous gift and their leadership, and hope it encourages others in the Wolf Pack community to support our efforts to build a championship-caliber athletics program."

The University of Nevada and Nevada Athletics are grateful for the Bitonio family's commitment to supporting the success of the Wolf Pack's football program. A thriving athletics program contributes to the success of the entire institution, and Nevada Athletics hopes that the Bitonio family's gift will inspire others to support.

BEHIND THE TRIDENTS

Nevada's Takeaway Trident has received plenty of TV time in its debut season, 2022. The original trident was presented to Nevada head coach Ken Wilson and Wolf Pack players Tyson Williams, Toa Taua, Devonte Lee, Dom Peterson, Grant Starck, and Shane Illingworth during a visit to the Naval Air Warfighting Development Center (NAWDC) in Fallon, on Aug. 19, 2022.

NAWDC commander Rear Admiral Max McCoy presented the trident to University President Brian Sandoval, Wilson, and the players as part of a tribute to the U.S.S. Nevada (BB-36). The battleship survived the attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941, and was repaired and put back to sea, going on to earn seven battle stars during World War II.

In 2023, Nevada has added a silver Touchdown Trident to the fold, in addition to medallion coins for takeaways and touchdowns.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Caleb Williams threw for 319 yards and hit Taj Washington with two of his five touchdown passes, leading No. 6 Southern California to a 66-14 victory over Nevada on Saturday night.

Williams passed for 258 yards and four TDs on just 15 completions while USC built a 35-7 halftime lead. He finished 18 of 24 while also rushing for 42 yards and adding another array of remarkable escapes and pinpoint completions to his collection.

Stanley Ta'ufo'ou returned a fumble 23 yards for a touchdown in the fourth quarter for the Trojans. South Carolina transfer Mar-Shawn Lloyd had 76 yards rushing and 59 yards receiving, while touted freshmen Quinten Joyner and Duce Robinson scored their first career touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

Brendon Lewis passed for 182 yards for the Wolf Pack (0-1), who scored on their opening drive before giving up 45 consecutive points. Freshman AJ Bianco threw a 77-yard touchdown pass to Jamaal Bell on his first career pass attempt during the fourth quarter for Nevada, which went 2-10 in coach Ken Wilson's debut last season after four straight winning campaigns under Jay Norvell.

Williams was in control from the opening drive, during which he improvised a stunning 30-yard completion to Dorian Singer while on a dead sprint to the sideline. Two plays later, he threw a perfect 22-yard TD fade to Branch, the freshman phenomenon who scored two touchdowns in the opener.

Nevada answered with a 73-yard catch by Spencer Curtis leading to a TD run by Sean Dollars two plays later. But Lloyd made a 24-yard TD run later in the quarter, and Williams ran 46 yards on a draw with the first snap of the second quarter before putting the Trojans up 28-7 with a 15-yard TD pass to Jackson.

RENO, Nev. (AP) - Gevani McCoy completed 71 percent of his passes to amass 313 yards passing and two touchdowns and FCS No. 12 Idaho dismantled Nevada 33-6 on Saturday.

McCoy, who was 15-for-21 passing, set the tone early when on the first play from scrimmage he connected with Turon Ivy Jr. on a 75-yard score for a lead that was never challenged.

Brendon Lewis threw for 104 yards for Nevada which now has been outscored 99-20 in its first two games of the season.

Nine decades after their first meeting, the two former conference foes met for the first time since 2011. The Wolf Pack leads the all-time series 20-10. Idaho (2-0) hadn't beaten Nevada (0-2) since 1999.
