Offensive Notes

- Kansas threw for a season-high 410 yards on 23-of-34 passing.
- With his 47-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter, Trevor Wilson has now scored his third touchdown in just as many games, all of which being 47 yards or greater. Six of his seven career touchdowns have been at least 20 yards.
- Mason Fairchild hauled in a 30-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter for his first touchdown of the season and eighth of his career. He later scored his second of the season in the second quarter for a 44-yard touchdown, matching his single-game career-high (at Oklahoma, 10-15-22). The last Kansas player to have two receiving touchdowns of at least 30 yards in a game was Stephon Robinson Jr. on Oct. 26, 2019 vs. Texas Tech. Fairchild is the first KU player to do so on the road since at least 1996.
- Jason Bean finished the game 23-of-34 for 410 yards and five touchdowns. His 23 completions, 410 yards and five touchdowns were all career highs. His five passing touchdowns, tied for the second most in school history, are behind only Todd Reesing (6 - 2007 vs. Nebraska). His five passing touchdowns are the most by a Jayhawk quarterback since Jalon Daniels passed for five vs. Arkansas in 2022.
- Bean passed Jordan Webb for 11th on the all-time Kansas career passing yards list and tied Bill Whittemore for 6th on the all-time Kansas career passing touchdowns list.
- Bean completed 13-of-17 passes (76 percent) for 274 yards and four touchdowns in the first half. This is the second time in his career that Bean has thrown for four touchdowns in one half, the first time came in the second half against TCU on Oct. 8, 2022.
- On the first drive in the second half, Bean completed a 42-yard touchdown pass to Skinner for his career-high fifth touchdown pass of the day. That ties Bean for second-most passing touchdowns in a game all-time.
- Quentin Skinner completed a 49-yard touchdown with 1:06 left in the first half for his first touchdown of the 2023 season and for the sixth time in his career. The 49-yard reception was also Skinner's longest reception of 2023. On the first drive in the second half, Skinner caught a 42-yard touchdown to match his career high of two touchdown receptions in a game (TCU, 10-8-22). His two receptions averaged 45.5 yards apiece.

Defensive Notes

- Austin Booker and JB Brown led the Jayhawks with nine total tackles. The nine tackles were a career high for both Booker and Brown.
