•Bechard led the Jayhawks to a 23-5 regular season record, including a 14-4 conference clip. Kansas recorded four ranked wins during this time, with two over then-No. 20 Houston, one over then-No. 23 Baylor and then-No. 13 BYU on the road, being the only team to win in Provo this year. DEFENSIVE SPOTLIGHT

MYKAYLA MYERS | GR. | MB

Myers had a strong showing in the Jayhawks' win over then No. 13 BYU. The graduate transfer had six total blocks, leading the way for the Jayhawks in this statistical category. She ended the week with seven total blocks, continuing to be a mainstay in the Jayhawks' starting lineup with her consistency.

INSIDER INFO

SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

- Omaha comes into the tournament with a 15-13 record overall, and a 12-4 record in Summit League play. The Mavericks received the two seed in their conference tournament and defeated North Dakota State and UMKC in five sets to win the Summit League Championship and receive an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament.

- This will be Omaha's first NCAA Tournament appearance in the history of their program.

- Kansas and Omaha have already met once this year at Baxter Arena in Omaha, with the result being a sweep for Kansas. Graduate Reagan Cooper led all players with 14 kills, and freshman libero Raegan Burns led all players with 15 digs, as Kansas held the Mavericks to a .122 hitting percentage for the match.

LAST SEASON IN A NUTSHELL

- Kansas finished the 2022-23 season with 19-11 record and 8-8 Big 12 mark.

- The Jayhawks' lone ranked win of the season came on August 26, 2022 when they beat then No. 22 Utah in Salt Lake City in four sets.

- The team recorded 10 total sweeps on the year, including one in the first round of the NCAA Tournament when the Jayhawks downed Miami to advance to the second round.

- Kansas' season came to a close when they fell to Nebraska in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Although KU was able to knock a set off the powerhouse Huskers, the season ended with that December 2nd match in Lincoln.

WHERE THEY'RE FROM

- There are 10 different states and two different countries that make up the 2023-24 roster.

- Junior Ayah Elnady is our lone international Jayhawk this season, hailing from Cairo, Egypt

- There are six Jayhawks who chose to stay and play college ball in their home state, but each one comes from a different town in Kansas.

- Among the represented Kansas hometowns are Leavenworth (Farris), McPherson (Burns), Kansas City (Swanson), Olathe (Parks), Overland Park (Bien) and Topeka (Turner).

- Texas is the second most-represented state on the roster, with all three of this year's transfers hailing from different parts of Texas (Cooper-Rowlett, Onabanjo-Houston and Myers-Coppell)

- McGehe and Aiono make up the Missouri squad on this roster, hailing from Platte City and Liberty respectively.

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK

- Junior transfer Toyosi Onabanjo has fit perfectly into the Jayhawk puzzle, having come to Kansas after completing two seasons at Iowa.

- While she was a Hawkeye, Onabanjo recorded a total of 209 kills and 61 blocks. So far at Kansas, Onabanjo has recorded 196 kills and 109 total blocks so far, on track to have her best collegiate season from a statistical standpoint.

HOSTING HISTORY

- Kansas received its sixth national seed in program history. The other five national seeds came from 2012-16. This will be the third time Kansas hosts the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament in Horejsi Family Volleyball Arena, joining 2015 and 2016.

- Kansas hosted the first and second rounds in Allen Fieldhouse in 2012 and 2013, while it hosted off-campus in the Kansas ExpoCentre (Topeka) in 2014.

HAWKS VS. RANKED TEAMS

- The Jayhawks downed four different ranked teams this year, with two wins over then-No. 20 Houston, one over then-No. 23 Baylor and one over then-No. 13 BYU on the road, being the only team to win in Provo all season and snapping a home-win streak of 12 consecutive matches in just four sets.

- Kansas had a different fate against the Texas Longhorns, falling twice in Austin earlier in the year against then-No. 8 Texas. The Longhorns won the Big 12 regular season this year, posting a 16-1 conference record.

TURNING HEADS

- Camryn Turner, the Topeka, Kansas native, always knew that she would end up playing volleyball at Kansas.

- Per Matt Tait's feature story for RIS1 on the junior setter, "There's a sheet of paper that lives in a keepsake box at the Turner house in Topeka. The drawing came from a career day project assigned to Turner back at Topeka's Seaman High. The task was simple: Create an illustration that demonstrates where you see yourself in five years?"

- "At the bottom of the piece of paper, there's a volleyball net with a ball clearing the top of it. To the right, there's a building that represents the University of Kansas. At the top middle, there's a Kansas volleyball scoreboard that shows the home team winning 19-15, and in the upper-left-hand corner there's a banner hanging from the ceiling with the words 'All-American' and 'Camryn Turner' on it."

- Turner grew up playing basketball and volleyball both at high levels, but felt much more drawn to volleyball.

- For three consecutive years during high school, Turner was one of the players in a small group of summer campers that the KU coaching staff asked to stick around to scrimmage with the current Jayhawks. That meant everything to Turner and only strengthened her desire to one day be a Jayhawk.

- "Despite her advanced skills, when Turner first arrived on KU's campus, she lacked the one thing that nearly everyone around her already had — belief that she could play at the Big 12 level."

- "The Camryn Turner you see on the court is exactly who she is all the time," said Ebel, the KU assistant coach who Turner says knows her better than she knows herself. "She's very nice, she's outgoing, she's fun to be around and she always looks like she's having a good time."

INSIDER INFO

KENNEDY'S NEW ENDEAVORS

- Kennedy Farris was the Jayhawks' primary libero last season, but has always had the goal of attending nursing school.

- Per Matt Tait's R1S1 article "Kennedy Farris' Unique Farewell," the senior was faced with a tough decision entering the 2023 season - "give up the game she loves and commit fully to finishing her academics or put off nursing school another year so she could continue to keep playing volleyball."

- With Coach Bechard's blessing, Farris was able to come back to volleyball for her final season while also embarking on her nursing school journey.

- Although Farris now juggles both academic and athletic responsibilities in a heightened capacity, her outlook remains positive.

"I really just care about this program and I care about these girls and just getting to be a part of it and hold a different role, like more in leadership," said Farris. "I've started trying to be more of a mentor and help coach when I can. It's a lot, but it's one semester, and I thought that they could benefit from me staying and I could benefit also."

- Per R1S1, although Farris' schedule differs from week to week, Coach Bechard has been open to a flexible system of planning. He said that Farris sends him or his assistant coaches a text message when she knows what days she'll be able to make it to practice or games and the two sides stick pretty closely to that on a weekly basis.

- "It's just a very unique situation for a kid to try to mentor kids and help kids and contribute to our culture when she knows her playing time is going to be diminished to next to none because of her academic pursuits," said Coach Bechard. "But she likes people, she likes the sport and she wanted to try to do both. We were all for it."

THE SCOOP ON COOP

- Reagan Cooper came to KU this season after an extremely decorated career at Texas Tech.

- The Rowlett, Texas native appeared in 26 matches for the Red Raiders, making 14 total starts. She recorded 16 double-digit kill performances in her senior season, being one of the primary attackers for Tech.

- Cooper competed in 72 total matches throughout her career as a Red Raider, tallying 702 kills and a 2.66 kills per set career average. She totaled a .252 career hitting percentage, highlighted by her career high mark of .287 during the 2022 season

- The graduate transfer was also named to four different All-Tournament teams during her stint at Texas Tech. The 6-1 attacker made a name for herself in the Big 12 as well, where she was a two-time Academic All-Big 12 Second Team selection and the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week back in March of 2021.

- For the Jayhawks, she has been consistently leading in the kills per set category all year (3.56 right now).

QUOTING COACH BECHARD

- In a pre-tournament press conference this week, Coach Bechard said, "We think this team is in a really good spot to compete favorably once we get the opportunity to do that this week."

- Shortly after, he added, "It's been a good year. 23-5 in a really good league with a good non-conference schedule speaks well to where we are at this point, but certainly we want to add some value and some energy to this season by the way we compete this week."

BURNIN' UP

- Raegan Burns has made an immediate impact for the Jayhawks as a true freshman, having started and played every single set so far this season.

- Burns has been the only Jayhawk to wear the libero jersey this year out of the seven total options at the position.

- Along with her two Big 12 Rookie of the Week awards so far, the Lafayette, Indiana native is in serious contention for the Big 12 Freshman of the Year, being one of the only freshmen in the conference who is consistently on the statistical leaderboards each week.

- Per a recent article done by Tani Levitt for R1S1, Bechard and the KU coaching staff feel Burns' reception is "in a really good place right now" and her secondary setting is "as good as we've had here in a long time." But they think that she's just scratching the surface.

- "We felt like she could get in the mix right away," Bechard said. "We're excited for her, but we kind of knew she could perform at this level."

- The next step, he said, will be for Burns to put a bit of her modesty and on-court calmness to the side and assert herself as the team's defensive captain.

- When asked by Levitt about her instant success in such a high-level volleyball environment, Burns was quick to credit her teammates and coaches.

COOL BEANS

- Caroline Bien, who has been lovingly nicknamed "Bean" or "Beanie" (despite her last name actually being pronounced Bee-Yen") has been showcasing her versatility this season.

- Although the junior is playing a different role now, Bien steps in wherever she's needed, posting a well-rounded stat line so far.

- Bien has a solid .239 hitting clip on the season while averaging the third most digs per set (2.63) and has the third most aces on the team with nine so far.

- Over the summer, Bien was called up to the USA Volleyball U21 National Training Team for the second-consecutive year, where she was one of 18 girls selected to train at the Anaheim National Training Center for a week.

- "Training with Team USA is always such a cool experience because you get to learn from the best of the best and play with the best of the best," said Bien. "I can't wait to get better and represent KU during training."

INSIDER INFO

SETTER OF THE YEAR

- Camryn Turner lead the Big 12 in assists per set with her 10.71 average this season. The junior standout recently surpassed the 2,000 assists milestone in her still-young collegiate career.
- Turner is the first Jayhawk to win Setter of the Year since Ainise Havili won the award three times in a row from 2015-17. Kansas' Erin McNorton also received the honor in 2013. The Big 12 Setter of the Year has been a Kansas player in five of the 12 years the award has been presented.
- The number to beat so far this season for her is 57 assists in a single match, which Turner has achieved twice so far, including once vs. Purdue on Aug. 31 and once against Houston on Sept. 29.
- Turner's career-high number of assists in a single match is 59, which came in November of 2021 against K-State.
- Along with leading the Jayhawks with her assists per set average, she also posts the second-most digs behind primary libero Raegan Burns with an average of 3.02 per set.
- Turner has also recorded 78 total kills so far this season, averaging .76 kills per set.

FORMER CONFERENCE FOES

- Newcomers Reagan Cooper and Mykayla Myers both joined the Jayhawks this season as graduate students, each having played for a Big 12 opponent prior.
- Cooper was formerly a Red Raider, being a key-cog in the success of Texas Tech during her four seasons there.
- Myers came from TCU, where she too was a standout player for the Horned Frogs for the duration of her undergraduate career.
- The two transfers actually started their collegiate volleyball careers at Washington State together, then both ended up leaving after their freshman seasons. Myers was a large part of why Cooper decided to take her fifth year of eligibility after all.
- The Texas natives were longtime friends prior to coming here, starting their collegiate careers together and choosing to end them together.
- "I would much rather watch them practice for us than have to prepare to play against them," Coach Ray Bechard said. "These two are a ray of sunshine for us. They're quality individuals, first and foremost. They're really good volleyball players, but they're really good people, and when you only have one year left, you want to make sure you add people who are going to add great value. In so many ways, Reagan and Mykayla can do that, so we're thrilled they're back together and that we can create an opportunity to coach them, be with them and hopefully create a great experience for their last go-around here for their collegiate volleyball experience."

EARLY BIG 12 ACCOLADES

- Camryn Turner kicked off the 2023 season as the lone Jayhawk recognized by the Big 12, earning Preseason All-Big 12 honors back in July.
- So far, three Jayhawks have received Big 12 weekly accolades during regular season play in Camryn Turner (Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 5), Reagan Cooper (Offensive Player of the Week on Nov. 21) and Raegan Burns (Rookie of the Week on both Sept. 26 and Oct. 24).

IN THE NCAA

- Reagan Cooper is the first Jayhawk to be recognized on a national level, winning the AVCA/TARAFLEX National Division I Player of the Week on November 21.
- The Jayhawks are No. 18 in the NCAA Division I assists per set category leaderboard as a team with a 12.90 collective average, breaking the Top 10 in this category for the first time this season.
- Kansas is 24th in team hitting percentage (.274)

STREAKIN'

- Both sides in this match are on win-streaks currently, with the Jayhawks being on a five-match and 14-home match streak, while Omaha is on a three-match win streak.

RECENT NEWS

- KU became one of just three schools (along with Tennessee and Texas) to be ranked in basketball, football and volleyball.
- The Jayhawks most recent home win was the 14th consecutive KU victory at Horejsi Family Volleyball Arena. That is the sixth longest active home winning streak in Division I. The 13 home wins are the most since the 2016 season when KU also had 13 home wins. The 13-match home winning streak is the longest since Kansas won 17 straight home matches from Nov. 14, 2015 to Dec. 1, 2016.
- On National Signing Day, the Jayhawks welcomed six freshmen to their 2024 incoming class. Among them are Zoey Burgess, Kenzie Dean, Heidi Devers, Grace Nelson, Ellie Moore and Reese Ptacek. Devers is the only Kansas native, while the other five will be coming from out of state.
- This class was ranked No. 3 in the entire country for the strength of these six recruits, shaping up to be one of Kansas' best recruiting classes in program history.

FRESH PERSPECTIVE

- Freshmen Raegan Burns, Ellie Schneider and Aisha Aiono have all gotten minutes in the Jayhawk uniform so far this season with Aiono and Schneider as blocking subs and Burns as the starting libero.
- Burns has produced at least 10 digs in 22 of the Jayhawks' 28 matches, including a career-best 28 in the team's loss to Texas Tech.

THE BECHARD FILE

- In April 2023, Kansas Athletics announced a three-year contract extension for Ray Bechard heading into his 26th season with the Kansas volleyball program.
- Bechard concluded his 25th season as head coach of Kansas in 2022 and has amassed a record of 446-301 with 11 NCAA Tournament appearances leading the Jayhawks.
- Last season, after a 3-0 sweep of West Virginia on Nov. 12, Bechard moved into second all-time in the Big 12 Conference in league wins, and currently has 209. He also guided the Jayhawks to the NCAA Final Four and a 30-3 season in 2015.
- Under Bechard, the Jayhawks have posted winning seasons in 13 of the last 14 years, reaching at least 18 wins in eight of those seasons.
- This makes Coach Bechard the winningest coach in Kansas Volleyball history.
- He also has coached all 10 All-Americans that have played at Kansas so far.

“Coach Bechard has long been a national leader in the sport of volleyball, a key fixture for Kansas Athletics and in our community, and has elevated our entire department on a daily basis. He is an exceptional mentor and embodies what it means to be a Jayhawk. As much success as the program has already experienced over the past 25 years, I am incredibly excited about the future of Kansas Volleyball with Ray remaining at the helm.”

-Athletic Director Travis Goff
