- Kansas dished out 20 assists, marking the 15th game this season with 20+ assists.
- The contest consisted of eight lead changes and four ties.

INDIVIDUAL NOTES

- Redshirt senior Dajuan Harris Jr. posted a 10-point, 11-assist double-double which marked the second of his career. The 11 assists tied a career high for Harris, who passed Kirk Hinrich (2000-03; 668 ast) for fourth on Kansas' all-time assist list now with 676 assists. Harris added a 2-for-2 clip from beyond the arc and picked a steal.
- The 11 assists were the most in an NCAA Tournament game for Harris, having previously dished out seven twice (March 21, 2024 vs. Samford and March 16, 2023 vs. Howard).
- Senior Hunter Dickinson scored 15 points and pulled down five rebounds, also dishing out four assists. Dickinson went 2-of-4 (50.0 percent) from the three-point line.
- Junior KJ Adams Jr. added 10 points for Kansas, which included six boards and a steal. Adams scored 10+ points in 26 games this season, including 46 for his career.
- Freshman Johnny Furphy contributed nine points, seven boards and a steal.
- Graduate senior Nicolas Timberlake also scored nine points and grabbed a season-high tying six rebounds.
